

A hand-drawn scroll with a wavy, irregular shape. The scroll is drawn with black outlines and has some internal shading lines to suggest its three-dimensional form. It is unrolled, showing a central area with text. The top and bottom edges are slightly curved, and the left and right sides are also curved, giving it a sense of being a long, continuous piece of paper. The text is written in a simple, handwritten style.

Progress, therefore, is not an accident,
but a necessity It is a part of nature.

Herbert Spencer
