DESPONDENT

INSPECTOR

TEMPTS DEATH

L. C. Musgrave of North Sydney Unable to Stand Jides

North Sydney, N. S., Aug. 13.—
Despondent over continued and bitter criticism of his work as license in spector by a local paper, the temperance people and the liquor dealers, L. C. Musgrave last night attempted to tend his life by shooting bimself in the head. The rash deed was committed in his home after his family had retired, but the report of the shot brought Mrs. Musgrave almost in stanty to the side of her husband, whom she found standing in the kitchen with the smoking revolver still in his hand. The bullet entered his forehead a little above the eye and two doctors who were summoned failed to extract it. Mr. Musgrave is still alive and conscious this morning but it is thought he cannot recover.

His Demise Due to Heart Failure Says Coroner's Jury--Remains of Popular Traveller Sent to Montreal.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Aug. 13. — Coroner Weaver this morning held an inquest linto the death of Mr. Walter Radford, the well-known traveller for Tooke Bros. Montreal. The inquest established the fact that Mr. Radford's death was due to heart trouble and came from natural causes.

For thirty-three years Mr. Radford had been a member of the Dominion Commercial Travellers' Association. He was a native of England and came to Cannda when a young man, later entering business with his brother at Montreal under the firm name of Rad ford Bros. and carried on a wholesale gent's furnishing business. The firm met with financial reverses and up till two years ago Mr. Radford travelled for Skillon Bros. of Montreal, having for the past two years represented Tooke Bros. in the Maritime Provinces. He was about fifty-six years of age and is survived by a family, residing, in Westmount.

Tooke Bros. Notified.

Last night Proprietor Monohan, of the Barker House, notified Tooke Bros. by wire. This morning A. E. Massie, for the Dominion Travellers' Association, notified the effects of the association of the sad event, and with R. S. Low, another member, and Proprietor Monohan, made arangements for having the remains embalmed.

This afternoon at 4.45 o'clock the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitarial and the remains will be conveyed from the unitar men on the road, being respected by all.

The remains of the late Walter Radford, traveller for Tooke Bros., Montreal, who died so suddenly last right at the Barker House, were taken to Montreal tonight for interment. At John G. Adams' undertaking rooms Bishop Richardson contucted a short service before the body was conveyed to the station by 1 number of fiellow commercial travellers and local friends of deceased attending. Proprietor Monchan of the Barker House and Mrs. Monchan accompanied the remains to Montreal.
