of the Kerensky government to Great Britain, today sent a cablegram to President Wilson protesting against what they termed the president's identification of the Bolsheviki with the Democracy of Russia. The cablegram said Mr. Wilson was "strengthening the hands of autocratic despotism and supporting lawless rule which is destroying the foundations of Russian freedom and Russian power of resistance to the German enemy."

M. Gavronsky issued the following statement at the Russian eubassy:

"The Allies made a big blunder in relation to revolutionary Russia. They did not define their war aims clearly during the time of M. Kerensky's government, and thus they placed a powerful weapon in the hands of the Bolsheviki in their fight against the Allies as well as the Kerensky government, which always supported the war policy of the Allies. Were it not for this blunder would not be witnessing the unfortunate spectacle of Russia being drawn into, an abyss by Bolsheviki rule, and an alleged representation of Russia carrying on peace negotiations. Another blunder must be prevented at all costs.

The Allies can be foundations of Russian freedom and Russian power of resistance to the German enemy."

Ottawa, Jan. 10—The conference on labor shortage goes over to the sixteenth of January. To secure accurate information as to the actual needs, the departments of agriculture in each province are being invited to send representatives to Ottawa. The supply of arm labor will be probably under consideration when the conference meets. Railway requirements were presented at a conference held today between representatives of the railway companies and Hon. N. W. Rowell. Every effort, it is stated, is being made to meet railway needs without interference with the supply of shell steel.

Says Teutons Must Adjourn Peace Conference to Stockholm or Suffer Consequen

London, Jan. 10.—Unofficial reports received here concerning the first session of the peace conference at Brest-Litovsk, which was resumed Tuesday with Leon Trotzky. the Bolsheviki minister, at the head of the Russian delegates, say that Trotzky in a speech insisted on a removal of the conference to Stockholm. Trotzky declared the Russians came to Brest-Litovsk not as the representatives of a conquered country and did not intend to ask for pity, but would continue to act as true revolutionists. He is reported to have told the German and Austrian delegates that if they did not accede to his request that they would feel the weight of arms of the Russian democracy.

The Evening Post asserts that the German replied that they did not defer in the carry on the peace negotiations but that they failed to specify where.

The German delegation in Petrograd is reported to have expressed the desire to the Swedish legation that Sweden act as the go-between with Great Britain, France and Italy.

Beginning with his joyful fanfare of freedom of the seas and ether things on which the whole world is agreed, even if diversity of opinion exists regarding the method of realization. Mr. Wilson's intervention is not wanted, Having the opportunity of serving peace he has not only failed, but has clearly expressed a contrary intention."

The Kolnische Volks Zeitung says: "President Wilson's programme substantially squares with Lloyd George's. It is as unacceptable for us as is the British and is more brutal still than that of Lloyd George."
