In FAIRVILLE-The concert held in St. Rose's hall on Monday evening was an unqualified success. Mr. Andrew Hee unqualified success. Mr. Andrew Hee nan of Fredericton Junction, and Miss Sarah Catrin of Nerepis, both of whom are at present residing in Fairville, were married in St. Rose's church on Monday evening by Rev Charles Collins in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The condition of Justice H P Allingham is unchanged. Although very ill, the doctors hope to pull him through.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT. - The Xmas tree and concert, which was given by Norton Sabbath School Monday evening was a decided success. The little ones acquitted themselves most creditably. One of the finest was a class of seven girls, trained by Miss Alta McLeod, who recited and sang a piece entitled "The Star of Bethlehem." WH Heine, who has taught the ladies Bible class for the past 17 years, was very kindly remem-bered by his class, who presented him with a very handsome for cap. It was a genuine surprise to him; and he says will be especially valued not on account of its intrinsic worth, but for the kindly feelings which prompted the gift.

HANDSOME GOLD MEDAL - Messrs Smith & Tilton have received a handsome gold medal from the Windsor, Ont.

OUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

Was Formally Opened Yesterday Afternoon with Usual Ceremonies

QUEBEC, Jan. 12-The legislature was opened this afternoon. Lieut. Gov. Jette opened this afternoon. Lieut.-Gov. Jette in a speech from the throne, referred to the departure of Lord and Lady Aberdeen from Canada and the arrival of the new governor-general, Lord Minto.

The deaths of Sir J. A. Chapleau, Lieut.-Gov. Jette's predecessor, and Cardinal Taschereau, the illustrious Roman Catholic prelate were feelingly referred to. The meeting in Quebec of the International conference was looked upon as a tribute to the ancient capital, and to the oldest province in Canada. The dedication of the statue to Champlain during the year drew forth an allusion to the fact of two great countries that contributed to people the province made it a point to be represented. The speech then referred to measures to be submitted during the session.
