A BACHELOR'S CONSOLATION,

A Romance of the Needle.

BY ROCKAFELLOW.

I.

In a snug little cot, but a thousand miles off,
Lived a lonely, contented old "bach,"
Who cooked his own grub and dined by himself,
And had no one to sew on a patch.

II.

With his cat, and his dog, and his little pet pigeon,
Our hero, 'twas said, wanted nothing;
But needles were sharp, and would frequently stick,
So he oft went with holes in his clothing.

III.

There no doubt were misses and maids quite near
Who would fly to relieve his distresses,
But he oft had declared he could never abide
The appearance of hoopskirts and dresses.

IV.

Now, this lucky old bachelor heard by a friend,
Or read in his morning journal,
Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines,
And considered the matter nocturnal.

V.

Having fully determined to get a machine,
He spent a whole day in inspection,
For an hour or so would never suffice
To select from so large a collection.

VI.

For some thought the "Wheeler & Wilson" the best,
And others the "Wilcox & Gibbs,"
While others affirmed that the agents of both
Were too much inclined to tell fibs.

VII.

An I a few for the "Florence" were ready to fight,
While most liked the "New Family Singer;"
Another one swore the "Osborne" was best,
The last one, I think, was a shaker.

VIII.

So first to the "Wheeler & Wilson" he went,
Where he found them making a shirt,
At the end of each seam they used needle and thread,
And by experience he knew they would hurt.

IX.

Then down to the agent of "Florence" he went,
And told him the part that was slack.
So the "Florence" a certain advantage had gained
By the feed that could make it sew back.

X.

But our Bachelor friend was dissatisfied still,
For the "Florence" so complicate seemed,
He feared the minutia might "get out of fix,"
And could never be wholly redeemed.

XI.

Then they told him another advantage they had
In the Wheel,
That four different stitches with it they could make,
And from four he might sure get the best.

XII.

Our hero replied, "What's the use of the our!
If one of the stitches is best,
Why that is the right one to use all the time,
And what will you do with the rest?"

XII.

The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly he tried,
The "Domestic" and "Osborne" as well,
But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilson" too light,
And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

XIV.

The "Finkle & Lyon" or "Victor" he tried,
The "Etna," "Bloss," "Leavitt" and "Weed,"
Till worried and vexed with his fruitless research,
He scarce hoped in the end to succeed.

XV.

After trying in vain many other Machines,
Without any hope of success,
He called where the "Singer New Family" was kept,
And they quickly relieved his distress.

XVI.

For here half a dozen machines were engaged
In stitching of different sorts,
Which they did so complete, and with so little noise
He acknowledged the truth of reports.

XVII.

In lightness of running, in stillness and speed,
In construction so simple, yet strong,
Sure none but the "New Family Singer" would vie,
Though he'd searched through the infinite throng.

XVIII.

Then the stitch was so neat, so elastic, so strong
That he vainly endeavored to break it,
And so many advantages in it combined
That he quickly decided to take it.

Manufacturer of the New Singer Family,

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

The House, being summoned at a quarter past 12, in the usual form, attended His Honor the Lieut. Governor in the Legislative Council Chamber, and having attended and returned again, the Speaker announced that while there His Honor had delivered the following Speech:

Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The unremitting attention which you have given to your Legislative duties commands my hearty acknowledgment. The Act which you have passed in aid of the construction of railways in the Province is one under the operation of which I have every reason to hope that the railway system of the Province may be greatly extended and consolidated without unduly pressing upon our resources.

The abolition of imprisonment in civil suits, and the enactment of an Attachment Law will, I trust, while securing to the debtor freedom from arrest, at the same time afford a more speedy and efficacious remedy to the creditor for obtaining payment of his debts than has in the past been within his reach.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the public service. It will be my duty, aided by my Council, to apply with economy the funds thus placed at my disposal.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

I congratulate you on the termination of your labors. You will, I am sure, on your return to your respective localities, use your influence to promote mutual good will among all classes, and I earnestly hope that it will please Providence to continue the many blessings we now enjoy.

The Speaker announced that his Honor had also prorogued the House until the second Tuesday in June.

City Police Court.

Joseph Rerichstead confessed to the charge of drunkenness, and was fined $4.

Samuel Stewart, arrested drunk in Nelson street, and John Watters, charged with the same offence in Charlotte street, were fined $4 each.

John Curran, age 21, was found lying drunk in an alley off Sheffield street. He confessed and was fined $6 or two months in the penitentiary, the Magistrate remarking that he might as well take him in time, as he had come under his control. The enormity of the offence, visiting Sheffield street, was also pointed out to the young man, who received the address with a look of wonderment.

The protectionists were two. Charles Nowlan arrived by boat last evening and had no place to go. He was discharged with a caution.

Abraham Chute had been warned twice of the fate that awaited him if he again appeared in the dock, and was furnished with a two months residence in the penitentiary.

The Court of Sessions.

The Sessions met this forenoon, His Worship the Mayor in the chair. About forty Justices were present.

The Committee to whom was referred question of salaries submitted a supplementary report, recommending that the Sheriff's salary be increased from $1200 to $1600; that the Clerk of the Peace's salary be made $1100 instead of $900; and that the County Treasurer and Auditor receive no increase.

Justice Clark moved that the report be received and the recommendations carried out.

Justice Nowlin spoke against the report. He wished to know what the increase was for. The office of Sheriff is an office of fees, and the Sheriff is an officer appointed by the Government. The fees appertaining to the office are very large.

Justice Keans spoke in favor of the increased salaries. The office of High Sheriff was an honorable one, and it required a man of ability to fill it. They had cause to be proud of Sheriff Harding. The duties of the Clerk of the Peace were very arduous, and occupied his entire time.

Justices Crookshanks and Milligan supported the increase, and the report was adopted almost unanimously.

The Clerk of the Peace thanked the Justices not only for the increased salary but for the kindly way in which they had spoken of him.

Merritt Wetmore was appointed a surveyor of lumber.

The Clerk was ordered to have 200 copies of the new Highway Act printed.

John Warnick, Jr., and John Kearns, were appointed Road Commissioners for the Parish of Lancaster, in place of Robert Boggs and J. Sheffield, who had not given bonds according to law.

The Grand Jury then entered and made a special presentment on the accounts of the County Treasurer as generally correct, but large sums are due the County. Many of the taxpayers who are in arrears are the first men of the place, who are well able to pay. They recommend an assessment for County purposes of $10,000.

The annual assessment of $14,000 for the Alms House was ordered, $500 of which shall be used for providing a cellar for the building.

The following assessments were also ordered: for Goal Debentures $1000; Alms House do. $1000. The proportion was passed last year—for St. John 74, Portland 12, Lancaster 5, Simonds 5 and St. Martins 4 per cent.

Notice of Co-Partnership.

THE undersigned have this day entered into a Co-Partnership under the name and style of

McALPINE, EVERETT & CO.,

for the purpose of Publishing Directories and Conducting a general Advertising Agency.

DAVID McALPINE,
HENRY B. EVERETT,
CHAS D. McALPINE.

St. John, N. B., 2nd March, 1874.

Referring to the above, we would inform the public that it is our intention to publish Directories for St. John and Halifax as soon after the 1st of May as possible, the same as has been done for the past ten years, by Mr. D. McAlpine.

Our agents are now engaged in canvassing for advertisements and subscriptions, and we hope that our friends and the business men of St. John generally, will give the Directory, under the new firm, the same generous support it had received in the past.

Persons wishing to advertise in or subscribe for the work can address as under.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperfient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.
