

SECOND SESSION.

1. Metaphysics. Bowne's Study of First Principles, with Lectures and References to the History of Philosophy. Four hours a week.
2. Moral Philosophy. Stewart's Active and Moral Powers. Robinson's Moral Philosophy, with Lectures. Four hours a week.
3. Political Science. Lectures on Economic History. Two hours a week.
4. Theses on assigned subjects, to be read before the College.
5. Final Essays of the Undergraduate Course, to be delivered before the Faculty and other members of the Senate.

The following
 tage of stud
 assignments
 any undergrad
 the prescribed
 in these stud
 Honor Certifi
 according to
 will not be a class standing
 undergraduat
 may, by vote
 attention to a
 whose standin
 Honor studies
 done, from th
 "General Stud

1. Classics.
 (2) D
 Antig
2. Mathem
 High
3. English.
 editio
 (c) W
 on By
 nyson
4. History.
 Lectu