

Commissioner's Message to all RCMP Employees

The visit to Canada of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and His Royal Highness, The Duke of Edinburgh has come to a successful conclusion. Thus, I want to personally convey my appreciation to all employees, directly or indirectly, involved in the Royal Visit. Your professionalism and dedication to your duty are truly commendable and in keeping with the finest traditions of the Force.

We could not make these kinds of contributions to our society without partnerships and cooperation with our community, with other police departments and with other government organizations, or without the support and sacrifice of our families.

Men and women of the RCMP have risen once again to meet the challenge and have continued working in our proud tradition of making Canada a safer place to live.

Thank you for your participation.

J.P.R. Murray
