A foreigner claiming to be a Russian Pole was arrested as a suspicious character on Monday and afterwards allowed to go, taking the Limited train to London where High Constable Watterworth promised to look after him. His business appeared to be taking orders for enlarging photos, but his statements were so contradictory as to arouse suspicions.

The sudden death occurred Sunday afternoon of Mrs. David Ramey at the family residence, North Ekfrid. Mrs. Ramey was only sick a couple of days. She was in her 36th year. for the Dominion, accompanied by Mrs. Thornley, of London, were present for the afternoon session and answered the question box. Mrs. Thornley read a number of letters from the front from various soldiers and officers, telling of the awful ravages among our soldiers in England caused by the wet canten and the daily wear and tear. Mrs. Thornley also told of the efforts made by the W. C. T. U. to induce our Canadian Government to interfere with the British Government for allowing our Canadian boys to be subjected to such temptations, but hitherto to no avail. A splendid report was given by Miss McLaughlin, of London, of the work of the Y.

The evening exercises were opened by the pastor of the church at 7:30. Music was given by the L. T. L. Mrs. Gordon Wright then gave a splendid address on "Woman's Part and Place in the World's Work."
