

Keith W. MacLellan (61) from Montreal, Quebec, to be Ambassador to Jordan.

Mr. MacLellan (McGill, Oxford, MA) entered External Affairs from private business and has since 1952 been posted to Berne, Los Angeles, Rome, London and Brussels. He served as Commissioner to the ICSC, Laos (1965-66), Ambassador to Pakistan and Afghanistan (1974-77) and Ambassador to Yugoslavia and Bulgaria (1977-79). Since 1979 he has been Head of Evaluation and Audit at headquarters. Mr. MacLellan will open the post in the autumn.

* * * *

Richard McKinnon (48) originally from St-Raymond, Quebec, to be Consul General to Marseille.

Mr. McKinnon is a graduate of Laval University (B.A., 1954, LL.L. 1957). After obtaining a Certificate of International Studies from the London School of Economics and Political Science in 1960, he entered the Department of External Affairs. He has held various positions abroad in Warsaw, Geneva and Paris, and in Ottawa at headquarters and the Privy Council. From 1969 to 1973 he was seconded by the Canadian Government to the Agency for Cultural and Technical Co-operation. Since 1977 he has been the Deputy Permanent Representative of Canada to the United Nations Office in Geneva. Mr. McKinnon replaces Mr. André Potvin who is returning to Ottawa.

* * * *

Jacques S. Roy (47), originally from Ste. Anne des Monts, Quebec, to be Minister at the Canadian Embassy in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Roy (B.A., LL.L., Laval University) joined the Department of External Affairs in 1960. He served abroad in Prague and Havana and as Deputy Permanent Representative and Minister-Counsellor of the Canadian Delegation to the North Atlantic Council in Brussels. He returned to Ottawa in 1975 and occupied a number of positions including that of Assistant Secretary to Cabinet in the Privy Council Office and Assistant to the Prime Minister for international relations. From 1979-81 he was Director-General of the Bureau of Development, Industry and Science Relations at headquarters. Since February 1981 he has been Ambassador to Saudi Arabia. He is replacing Mr. G.E. Shannon who is returning to Canada.

* * * *