

Certificate of inspector to be given at least twice a year.

XIV. When the inspection is completed, and the inspector approves of such vessel and her equipments, he shall, at least twice in each season, between the first of April and the first of June, and the first of August, and the first of October, make and subscribe a certificate to the Colonial Secretary, substantially as follows :

Form of certificate.

“ Having examined the steamer [name] of whereof are owners, and is master, on this day of A. D. 18 I, [inspector's name] do certify, that she is, in all respects staunch, sea-worthy and in good condition for navigation, that her engine, machinery, pumps and boilers are sufficient and suitable to be employed in the carriage of passengers, without hazard to life, on the route for which placed, and that the boilers of such steamer can carry with safety from to pounds (here insert the number of pounds) per square inch, and no more. And I further certify that the equipment of the vessel throughout, including boats, life-boats, life-preservers, lights, and other things, is in conformity with the provisions of the law, and I declare it to be my deliberate conviction, founded on the inspection I have made, that the said steamer may be employed in the waters hereafter specified, without peril to life, from any imperfections, or from materials, workmanship, or arrangements of the several parts, or from age or use ; and I further certify that the said vessel is to run in the following waters, viz: (here insert the waters, &c.)

Certificate to be verified on oath.

Which certificate shall be verified by the oath of the inspector signing, and shall be filed by him in the office of the Colonial Secretary of the said Island.

Inspector guilty of neglect of duty, liable to fine of £100.

XV. In case the inspector shall be guilty of any neglect of duty required of him under the provisions of this Act, or shall wilfully certify falsely under this Act, touching any such vessel propelled by steam, her hull, boilers, engines, machinery, pumps, boats, or their appurtenances, or any of her equipments, or any matter or thing contained in any certificate signed, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, or imprisoned for a period not exceeding twelve months, or both, in the discretion of the Court before which convicted.

Reasons to be stated when certificate refused.

XVI. In case the inspector do not grant a certificate of approval, he shall, if required so to do, state in writing under his hand, the reasons of his refusing such certificate.

Record of inspection and official acts to be kept.

XVII. The inspector shall keep an account and record of every steamer inspected and verified by him during the year, with the dates of such inspection and visits, and of all his
