

Atty. and Clk. of the Peace, Frontenac, 1882-91; was elected Bencher of the Law Soc., 1886; was apptd. an Official Referee under the Ont. Drainage Act, 1891 (resigned, 1896); a Comnr. with others re the Univ. of Toronto, 1895; was a Comnr. for the Revision of the Ont. Statutes, 1896. A mem. of the Meth. Ch., he is also a mem. of the Bd. of Regents of Victoria Univ. In Queen's Univ. he is lecturer on Criminal Law. He was Mayor of Kingston, 1876-77, and was likewise Chairman of the Sch. Bd. Politically, he is a steadfast Reformer, is a mem. of the Council of the Eastern Ont. Lib. Assn., and may be regarded as the leader of the Lib. party in his Dist. He ran in that interest for Catarqui divs, Leg. Council, against the late Sir Alex. Campbell, 1864, and for Frontenac, Ont. Assembly, Sept., 1868. He was first returned to Parl. for Frontenac, in the Ho. of Commons, g. e., 1896. He believes in free trade and is opposed to annexation to the U. S. He m. Dec., 1863, Mary E., eld. dau. of the late Hon. L. H. Holton, M.P.—Kingston, Ont.

BRITTON, Charles E., manufacturer, is the 3rd s. of Danl. Freeman Britton, a native of the State of New Hampshire, who was for 32 yrs. Postmaster of Gananoque, Ont., by his wife, Nancy M. Britton. B. at Gananoque, June 5, 1842, he was ed. at the local schs., at Fairfield Acad. and Vic. Coll. Sch., Cobourg, and gained his business training under his father. He afterwards entered into partnership with O. D. Cowan, and subsequently with D. C. Cowan, and they established the Gananoque Nail and Hinge Works at Gananoque, which they still conduct. Mr. B. has been long identified with the Lib. party in politics, and was the candidate of that party, for South Leeds, at the Dom. g. e's. of 1882 and 1887. He was elected Mayor of Gananoque, 1897. In the same year he was an unsuccessful candidate for the office of High Chief Ranger of the Order of Foresters. In religious belief, he is an Ang. He m. 1872, Marian, 2nd dau. of the late G. B. Holland, Toronto. Gananoque, Ont.

BROCK, Rev. Isaac (Ch. of Eng.), is the s. of the late Rev. Wm. Brock, M.A., Rector of Bishop Waltham, Hants, Eng., a relative of Maj.-Genl. Sir Isaac Brock, the hero of Queenston, and was b. near Winchester, Hants, 1829. Ed. at Clifton Sch., York, and at Queen's Coll., Oxford (M.A., with 1st class honors in Math., 1851), he was ordained to the priesthood, 1853, and for several yrs. labored in the Irish Ch. missions in Connemara and Galway. He was Secy. Islington Prot. Inst., London, 1858-61; incumbent of the Jews' Epis. Chapel, Bethnal Green, 1861-66; and Rector Chapel of Ease, Lower Holloway, London, N., 1866-68. Coming to Can., he was Principal of Huron Coll., London, 1868-72; Rector of Galt, 1872-73; Asst. Rector of Sherbrooke, P.Q., 1873-82; Rector of Bishop's Coll. Sch., Lennoxville, 1882-83; Rector of Londonderry, N.S., 1883-85; Presdt. of King's Coll., Windsor, and Prof. of Divinity therein, 1885-88; since when he has been Rector of Horton and Kentville. He was strongly in favor of the consolidation of King's Coll. with Dalhousie Coll., Halifax, and when Presdt. of the former Coll. opposed the wishes of its gov's. by urging that step before the Ang. Synod of N. S. He is the author of "Sermons on the Creed," "Modern Science and Religion," "The Continuous Organic Life of the Church of Eng.," and various other publications of a similar class. He was apptd. a canon of St. Luke's Cath., Halifax, 1886, and received the hon. degree of D.D. from King's Coll., 1887. Dr. B. m. 1855, Ruby Roberta, eld. dau. of Thos. C. Butler, Carlow, Irel.—The Rectory, Kentville, N.S.

"A man of learning and scholarship."—Ch. Mag.

BROCK, William Rees, merchant and capitalist, is the eld. s. of the late Thos. Rees Brock of Guelph,