

The provisions of the sections of the Imperial act 3 & 4 Will. IV c. 59, from the 36th to the 47th inclusive, extended to duties imposed by provincial acts.

See those sections.

Proviso.

What credit shall be given for the payment of duties on goods taken out of any warehouse in certain cases.

ment to the trade of this Province:—Be it enacted, &c.,—that each and every of the provisions and enactments of the thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, fortieth, forty-first, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fourth, forty-fifth, forty-sixth and forty-seventh sections of the said act herein first above cited, and intitled An act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad,—(which said sections relate to the Warehousing of goods, the appointment of proper Warehouses and the regulations to be observed with regard to goods so warehoused)—shall extend and are hereby extended to all duties payable—under any act of the legislature of this Province—or of the late Province of Lower Canada—or of the late Province of Upper Canada—on any goods, wares or merchandise arriving from sea in any vessel entered at the custom house at the warehousing ports named in the act herein first cited—or hereafter to be appointed under the authority of the same,—or brought by land or inland navigation, and forwarded under the provision of the said thirty-eighth section, from any frontier port, to be entered and warehoused at any of the said ports;—any thing in the fifty-seventh section of the said act to the contrary notwithstanding:—And no such duty shall be payable on such goods, wares or merchandise while warehoused under the provisions of the said sections of the said act,—or if they be exported in the manner therein provided:—Provided always,—that when any such goods, wares or merchandise, or any part thereof,—shall be taken out of any such warehouse,—except for exportation or removal to some other warehouse within this Province,—the duties thereon shall be paid or secured, previous to the removal of the goods—in the same cases and manner as if such goods had not been warehoused;—the term of credit allowed by law on the duties to be secured—to be computed from the date of the removal;—any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.