At Berlin, June 10, 1911.

My dear Doctor:

I have definitely booked Wednesday the 21st for your meeting at Milverton. If Mackay is also to be present I presume it will not be necessary for me to say very much, and I should be glad to hear from you as to what particular points you think I ought to touch on, if there are any to which you would like preference given.

As I speak in Hanover the next day I shall likely go on from Milverton to spend the night with my brother-in-law and sister there, Mr. and Mrs. Lay at Walkerton. The train, I understand, leaves Milverton at 6.48 p.m.

What is the best connection I should make to get from here to Milverton? I shall be at Crosshill, Wellesley Township on the night of Tuesday the 20th, and shall probably go back to Berlin after the meeting. Perhaps you could let me know where it would be best to connect with you. My meeting at Crosshill is a church social, not a political picnic.

I am pretty well booked up for the whole of this month. I have promised some of our friends in Wellesley Township to give them a meeting for the last week in June. They are to let me know the date. As soon as I hear from them I shall let you know, and if the Millbank meeting can be arranged in conjunction well and good.

With kindest regards, I am,
Yours very sincerely,

Dr. J. P. Rankin, M.P.,
Stratford, Ont.
