

the Common Job is cut out for us,
Some time soon I should like to have a heart to heart talk with you and would even go to Ottawa or Toronto, for the purpose. Great reso-lutory forces are loose in the world; unity alone can control them - unity and friendship.

My best wishes attend you beyond me some time - put you in the firmest class. Sincerely, J. M. Stewart.

Congratulation.

I am glad, indeed, that you have come into your own; it is a splendid work that has been committed to your hands - not the least item of which is that of helping, with us of America, to further friendship between the Republic and the Dominion - with.

Our enemies have been unleashed again - and
