

without serious injury
to your own interests
you have given 21
years of the prime of your life to your country - 8 years of which you held office - the
would yourself from your profession
and afforded your private means in addition to all
you received from the country in maintaining your public position. You have a large family to support and are now in a position
to secure ample

means for the purpose if allowed ~~to~~ 6582
attend to your professional work -
I cannot see how any one can under these circumstances
expect you to sacrifice your family
and destroy the professional position
you have labored
so hard and successfully to attain - if there were any ordinal matter of importance upon which the progress and prosperity of the country
depended you might well be compelled

TUPPER PAPERS

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA