whether in the opinion of Capt Maley the wound could have been inflicted in that manner.

Ans. Yes.

Ques by Court: Was there any powder burn on the flesh near the wound?

Ans: I did not see any and doubt that I would have due to the bloody condition of the wound.

Second witness for prosecution } K65046 Pte Faulkner, R. J. (C.S.R.)

being duly sworn is examined by pros.

I was lying on my bed when Pte Fagerik came in. I asked him where he had been and he answered "to a show". Pte Fagerik stood there for a few minutes and then went upstairs. He was upstairs for about a minute when I heard a rifle shot. I shouted "What in hell is going on up there?" There was no answer. Then I heard a groan and a feeble cry for help. I ran upstairs and Pte Fagerik was lying on the floor with his back against the wall. I went downstairs and called to ~~Pte~~ Cpl Smith and Cpl Campbell who were outside nearby. Cpl Campbell administered first aid to
