

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Preliminary remarks	4
Part I.—On the value and nature of good maps	5
Part II.—Existing survey work in Canada	7
Part III.—On the organization of a Canadian Survey Department	12
Part IV.—Summary	18
Appendix I.—Technical details of survey work recommended for the survey of Canada .	19
Appendix II.—Annual cost of Canadian Survey Department	21
Appendix III.—Initial cost of instruments, camp equipment, books and stationery required for Canadian Survey Department.	23
Appendix IV.—On the errors of a system of triangulation	29
Appendix V.—Summary of the topographical maps of other countries	31