MORAL REFLECTION.—If it be permit-ted to long for death, the right surely pertains to the soul of the just man, who knows that Heaven is his home. The well known druggist, Mr. Otto Leffler, has this report to make : I have had a large trade in St. Jacobs Oil, and know of a great many cases where it effected a speedy cure of Rheumatism and Neuralgia. It sells on its merits." Messrs. Boyer & Campbell, of Waterloo, Indiana, write : "Mr. J. W. Walker, of this town, suffered with Rheumatism for fifteen years. After trying a great many remedies without Love of GoD AND YOUR NEIGHBOR,— St. Brigid, patroness of the Irish, who esteemed her as a second Mary, was born in the year of our Lord 453, and from an early period of her life devoted herself to the service of God. The sanctity of this consecrated maiden has been juily cele-brated by the Venerable Bede and other great writers, who described her as having been constantly occupied in holy contem-plation or the active exercise of charitable works. She founded the far-famed mon-astery of Kildare, where she lived as abbes, and died in the year 523, after having gloified God for long years by the many virtues and miracles recorded in her his-tory. With the example of this holy vir-gin before them, the Irish youth of both sexes made rapid progress in the acquisi-tion of all those eminent characteristics which secured for them, through many ages, the designation of the children of the Saints. None of the many remedies he used bene-fited him, until "The Conqueror of Pain, St. Jacobs Oil" was applied, one bottle of which effected a perfect cure. Mr. Ru-dolph Jasper, No. 72 W. Washington Street, was likewise made hanny by its use. Mr. was likewise made happy by its use. Mr. Rodemann the druggist, stated : "I must say that it is the best liniment I ever sold."

PRATER IN THE HOUSE OF GOD.—The Greeks term the feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin the Hypapante, by reason of the meeting of the saintly old man Simeon and the prophetess Anna with Jesus and Mary in the Temple. This blessed coming-together was no mere chance-work; if was the divine spirit of prophecy that led thither the two former, to one of whom, indeed, it had even been promised that he should not die until his eyes had beheld the Saviour of mankin Jesus wished to be taken to the Temple, and ransomed according to the law, before He Himself ransomed the world. Mary, although pure, went there in order to maternity, and made for her Son the offering presented by the poor—namely.

MORAL REFLECTION.—After Solomon had dedicated the Temple of Jerusalem, God appeared to him and said : "My eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive to the prayer of him that shall pray in this place."—(2 Paral. vii. 15.)

The Church of Rome a Teacher.

The Rev. Mr. Beecher, in his sermon in Plymouth Church, on Sunday last, said of the Catholic Church:

maternity, and made for her Son the offering presented by the poor-namely, two turtle doves, the emblem of innogence. How many lessons are here set forth ! Let in the Temple that the Lord is to be me with, and there it is that we should ear-nestly apply for His graces. There He dwells in very presence, and is ever ready to accord favours to His worshippers. Manar, Reflection.-After Solomon

"A sympathetic person is never an infidel. "A sympathetic person is never an infidel. He will have fidelity for something. I have a great deal more respect for a pagan or a heathen who is faithful to his religion than I have for a man who rejects every-thing and believes in nothing."
