Wesleyan Office and Book Room NVILLE ST., HALIFAX. Picvincial Wesleyan to 1st and beautiful.

January, 1875 $200 in advance Excellent M dium for Advertising

ALL THE LA .'EST PUBLICATIONS, and all kinds of Meth the Book Room.

Probincial Weslepan.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1873.

BACKSEIDERS .- KEEP THEM IN VIEW .- such a calamity for many a day ! Every Church has its long, sad list of Mr. Wood is a leading Preacher among to his circuit. weary and faint and wayward members. his Brethren in New England. He has From our increased staff of self-deuying The land is full of them. Some turning been elected frequently to deliver the Con- and devoted laborers, we encourage the on a pivot-to-day glowing with religious ference sermon, and has always produced hope and cherish the faith of satisfactory ardor, to-morrow pressing with the crowd a most favorable impression by his scholardown the decline of sin; others bitter in ly and fervent addresses. He confines may we not at least depend upon the prayers their consciousness of wrong, giving every himself almost entirely to manuscript, of those who have power before the mercy one else the utmost degree of trouble; and though his rare faculty of seeming to be in- seat for a daily remembrance of our net still others reckless, hardened, as if the dependent of all extraneous aid, gives him work of missions that will soon we hope memory of former professions were some- an advantage to which ordinary readers foundland. Is need of laborers an incentive thing to live down by determined unrighteseldom attain.

cuspess. How do we think of these people Generally as we do of confirmed drunkards,-as hopeless cases and only to be pitied.

to make a special effort for the recovery of bled in the vestry to give practical effect to The Methodist Church can well afford this class of sinners. Many of them have a petition previously presented to the pasattained to joys whose lingering sunshine tor, Rev. J. Read, in favor of au organiza-The sermon smites them, the confident erary and religious intercourse. Most us to expect yet greater things. A fine heartily they agreed upon two things-to hymn fills them with sadness, lives of purity rebuke their own iniquities. The organize, and to admit all of both sexes belonging to the congregation who might strong probability is, that once back in the Church they would walk more warily,the talent which we observed there to an they would appreciate the treasures long extent that almost surprised us. we may lost but never forgotten. Treat them reasonably anticipate for the new organizakindly; deal with them tenderly. " And tion, a lengthened and lively existence. upraideth not," says the Apostle. Conwinter's campaign, forget not the numbers vide these homes within themselves for at a new one where is a most promising their young people. of backsliders who exist almost everywhere. They are precious as any and may be EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE .--- The Halifax restored to Christ, fully, directly, joyfully.

Branch has been reorganized. Hon. Dr. Parker has been reappointed President FROM THE ALLIANCE TO HEAVEN. A with Mr. Brown as Vice President. The American steamer collided last week with laborious Mr. Murray of the Witness, has a sailing ship, and was so damaged that been established for another year in the she sunk, taking down with her 260 Secretariat, and D. Henry Starr, Esq. is to passengers, among whom were two of the disburse the funds. The Alliance has a no-Alliance Delegates. And thus God deals ble mission before it. Already this season it with us! The historian of the Peninsular Wars records that on one occasion, when nity in this city. May it continue to prosthe hosts were weary after a heavy days' fight, a veteran dragoon, looking up to heaven in the pale moonlight, caught the rapture of worship, and began to sing the grand old hymn-" Thanks and Praise to

was most heartily welcomed by the people, are among all the thousands in our congre- Arrangements had been made for friends to

Mr. Wood is a native of St. John's New. fiuished by the first of May next, and par-tially furnished without debt (or nearly.) amiable young lady, daughter of our own

Rev. W. S. Shenstone. In a short time and secured to the Connexion. Bro. I she followed other members of the same has preached with great earnestness and family to the home of pure spirits. May unction in Brigus, Harbor Grace and St. John's, and bids fair to be useful among us. the new relationship be preserved from He has been here for some time awaiting the arrival of a " craft " to take his family from Wesleyaus in the sister Provinces to benevclence? then let our Home Missions be sustained yet more vigorously, for still from many destitute and populous districts CHURCH INSTITUTE .- Grafton St. Church the cry reaches us,-Come over and help us. is to have an Institute Last Friday evening In this city and circuit we have a good deal of earnest Christian life. Our conweek a large number of young men assemverts of last year, generally, stand firmly to their obligations; and the gain in church power is vast. If we mistake not the pulse our people, as indicated by their godly tion embracing the features of social, lit- desires and efforts, it beats well; and leads sisters, carry the silent message of glad tidings for sinners to very many homes of the humble, where their words and looks desire the privilege of membership. With secure them a cordial welcome; while a noble band of brethren, old as well as young, has been enlisted to co-operate with their ministers in supplying regularly the outports on the Sabbath. At one of the old stations a new church is very nearly Those Churches are very wise which pro- completed, which is a model for neatness prospect of doing good, a chapel partially completed for some months, is being made comfortable for the winter.

Our new church in St. John's is at length ecciving the finishing touches from masous arpenters and painters; and is a great ornament to the city and a credit to the deomination. (D. V.) It will be opened on Sabhath, December 14, of which an account may be expected hereafter. Oue sad event with which our coast has been recently vis-

ENDOWMENT FUND.

these visitations!

St John's, Nov. 35, 1873.

G. S. M.

has grievously marred the satisfaction at tending the completion of this beautiful sanctuary. Mr. Richard Atwell, maste builder and superintendent of the work, has doue much for the Church and commu- to whose skill and taste the Trustees are very greatly indebted, died on the 19th of October, from severe spinal injury received on the 16th of October, by a fall from the portico, the scaffolding giving way, when

who made the best possible arrangements gations throughout the Provinces, 140 others stand in the street ready to render assistance in their power for the reception of himself who are well able to contribute at least half if needed; four of us went in. We were oundland. He obtained his education prin- and family meantime, and then resolved at as much as the first 140, and that then cipally in the United States, and entered once to commence a parsonage, which, there would be enough among the more desired to see him alone for a moment first. the ministry in the New England Confer- through their united and creditable efforts, than ninety thousand still left, who could ence, where he has remained during seve- since succeeded by the liberality of friends and should subscribe enough to round up in their hands. But now came a trial of ral years. He married some years ago an in Harbor Grace and St. Johu's, will be the Fund to, at least, the exceedingly de- moral courage, such as Nehemiah experi-However I, as the Agent of the Conference and Church, am just now to seek the flee?" and Luther, when he said, "I will 140, more or less, who will subscribe the go to Worms though the devils are as thick $15,000 vet lacking, to make up the net as tiles on the houses." $15,000 vet lacking, ... $60,000 "immediately indispensable." H. PICKARD. shut. We could only beg God to keep him, and enable him to " open his mouth boldly P. S.-I wish to make grateful mention f the kind assistance which has been renand declare the truth. Soon loud and earnest talking was heard. dered to me in my agency work by Brethren Again and again admission was admanded oseph Hart and (T. J. Deinstadt, as well as by the Ministerial Brethren on all the and promised, but not granted. For nearcircuits which I have already been able to ly an hour we waited, then the door open-H. P. viait

"TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS."

' It is finished ! " MR. EDITOR,-Under the above heading He is calm, tender, humble and modest the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN of the 24th ret firm and fearless. Not often do we ult., au 'error' in our Conference Minutes The 'first edition' of said error was published in the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN stood before his inquisitors, declared the is noted. of the 16th July. In getting up the Minutes, Conference documents printed in PROVINCIAL WESLETAN in advance, were the 'copy.' In this instance the Minutes show "a true copy,"-error and all. There is a redeeming quality however this 'error.' It expressed a literal fact. The Pastorate was 'limited.' We are informed that it is so no longer, for vacan.

are alike under Pastoral oversight." which refer to the wording in the minutes, suggesting that the term limited (error or error) should be dropped or changed. Good ! the Pastorate is not limited, neither in its number nor the object of its oversight. May the improvement be progressive, and henceforth pastors be found o fill new fields of labor, and in visiting from house to house pass by none of the flock, but go to all, that it may never be truthfully written (error or uo error) that we have a Pastorate limited-to a few. Let us now hope that the liberality of he people will become so generally diffusive, as to render the term 'limited " obsolete also, it relation to their support of the Pastorate, and the pecuniary circum-In some things the term should be re- stand before you to-day and declare these stances of the Pastor.

ained, and its meaning have practical re- truths, while you dare not touch a hair of cognition-in articles written for the col- my head. Yes, God has begun this work. imus of the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN, and and soon this tribunal, these walls and (Alas for our friend's metaphor! This universal Roman Inquisition is dead-dead F. S. (LIMITED) not excepted.

the presence of a large number of the friends special recommendations, went to Greens Preachers' List, I find that 140 individuals ed him of our Saviour's words. "Fear not HERE are some incidents of the Tweed are not a whit wiser. History is here rethe presence of a large number of the friends special recommendations, went to Greens List, 1 and that 140 functionals and of section of the Chairman of have subscribed the amount of $34,154 84, 1 them that kill the body "(Matt. x. 28 32), Trial in New York :- And of precious encouragement, "Let not well, the carbonear West circuit, accompanied by Bro. C. Ladaer, the Superintendent. He Now is it unreasonable to suppose that there is troubled "(John xiv. 1-2). Submitted, and then the circuit and then the circ peating itself. Nor will the parellel be ton Well, the exceptions were finally all close, should the Evaugelical world apply the rebuke which was uttered ages ago submitted, and then the crowd-the court-" Thou blood Pharisce room now being full-began to put on the free and easy style usual in waiting for We take the following toon the Tverdicts. Those addicted to smoking lit cigars, and large numbers returned to the Sun. Our young brethren do well to give romised permission to be with him, but they adjoining rooms to, stretch their legs and their full influence against the traffic in He had been advised not to trust himsel talk on the probable results. No one strong drinks, as well as the vice of intern. would have scarcely believed, from the general interest shown, that this was Mr. Cweed's second trial. There was, in fact, curse more and more, and only sound danger, asking, "Shall such a man as I more interest evinced than on his first trial. determined advocacy of temperance nria Various groups speedily formed, and in ciples can turn the current :-

each the trial and the verdict likely to LECTURE AT GREAT VILLAGE -Refollow were the all-absorbing topics of con- Mr. Ainsley of Truro, gave a very interest, versation. "I fear a conviction," said one, shaking under the auspices of Palma Lodge his head in token of his doubt. "So do I," said another sorrowfully.

The Judge's charge was dead against Dress, Light literature, and the Obnoxio

It is a singular fact, but very few spoke against Mr. Tweed or expressed a hope ed, and our brother was with us again. that he would be convicted. Taking my hand and pressing it to his " How do you account for the universal heart he said, with deep emotion, "E friendly feeling shown for Tweed?" a gen- Village should look to the matter of intemtleman (who was evidently a stranger from perance, as there are four places where in-the country, and whose curosity to see the toxination drinks are to the places where infinito !" " E finito ! " "It is finished witness such moral heroism. Alone he men here whom he has made rich, and, if truth, entered his protest, denounced their iniquities, defied their power, and scorned heir anathems. To give you a more cordollar for him. A bigger-hearted man rect idea of the man, I give a few closing never lived. He may have acted indissentences of his defence, Think of him alone, unprotected, and in such a place, warming up into the holy enthusiasm of breath of life." Stephen, the first Christian martyr, and THE JURY DESIRE EXPLANATIONS. turning upon his Inquisitors, he said :--

Grassi entered alone, and the door was

"O you inquisitors, pontiffs, cardinals, cies are filled, the list of stations is now and prelates, God speaks to you. To what in of the jury at ten o'clock, When it was lectures during the season hoping that they have you brought the true Church! She told they were coming everybody rushed will be the means to arouse the sturdy i These happy changes are appropriately that was so pure, so beautiful, so glorious, from the adjoining rooms, and there was duty.

announced in the same paper and column ye have betrayed, violated, despoiled, the most intense eagerness to learn the wounded, and cruc fied by your doctrines, verdict, if one had been arrived at, or the superstitions, and immoralty, and sealed purport of their return. It was soon set at her tomb by your blasphemous 'dogma of rest by the foreman stating that they wish-Hear what God says to his ed the Judge to explain to them the meaninfallibility. suffering children, ' The God of peace shall ing of the fourth count. This Judge Davis bruise Satan under your feet shortly.' Do proceeded to do, by reading in the first heard from only a tow respecting their inten-you not tremble at these words? Who but place, that portion of the indictment includ-tions of taking these for next year. We will Satan instigated and inflicted the tortures ing this count, and then stripping the same of course continue where we do not receive iniu this place? O, could the buried, speak- of its verbiage, explaining it to them. He formation to the contrary. In this case "Si could this roof but echo back the cries of also gave them more specific directions as lence gives consent." agony from your innocent victims, and the to the form of the verdict they were to he vaults beneath us reveal the corpses of reuder, and the jury again withdrew. those who have been buried alive -- no other MORE SURPRISE. sentence of condemation would be requir-Again, on the departure of the jury, there was a renewal of the previous sus-

"But the breath of God has for ever expense. Again were cigars lit, and again tinguished the fires of the Inquisition, and more speculations as to the final verdict. swept away your power! Therefore I "That jury is bound to convict," was the general exclamation.

Meantime Mr. Tweed seemed to show counsel with his usual freedom, and greeted advertisement. umns of the FROVINCIAL WESLETAR, and struments will be bruised under our feet his friends in his usual easy, off-hand way, REMEMBER !- We send any Books in our proclaiming to the world that the most holy because God has crushed it beneath the

ing lecture on Monday evening, Dec. Ast L O. G. T. Subject : - " Intemperance of Drink,

The lecture was closely listened to for one hour, during which the audience was held in rapture with the lecturer's vivid pictures drawn from life. It is time our toxicating drinks are bought and drank. great ex-boss has evidently drawn him to and one wholesale dealer. The sight of "Most there are friends of Tweed." re-of no strange occurrence. It is time the of no strange occurrence. It is time that sponded the party addressed. " There are a stand should be taken in the right direction, and let those who are true friends to men here whom he has made rich, and, in tion, and let those who are true triends to necessary, they would spend their bottom temperance come to the front, and not those who are the friends of the drinking house and who make temperance a cloak creetly, but a more liberal man and one Let men of sturdy integrity come to the truer to his friends never breathed the public front, and then, and not autil then, will the principles of our once quiet Village, be brought from rioting to sobriety. Palm Some emotion was excited by the coming Lodge intends having a series of temperaner Yours. &c.

DILETTANI

Editorial Notes. &c.

PERIODICALS FOR NEXT YEAR .- We have

BEREAN LESSONS. -- We are receiving orders for them for next year. Sunday School jam nals 60 cents each and lessons six cents each for the year, post paid. All schools should have them. About one journal for every sever leaves would be about the average

MUSIC BOOKS for the Sunday School areab olutely necessary. Select the one most'snitable and send us your orders. We will forward very little anxiety. He chatted with his specimens free at the price mentioned in ou counsel, his brother Richard Tweed, his son REVISION OF SUBSCRIBERS LISTS will begin 'Young Dick," his private secretary, Mr. with the new year. In adjusting these during The Montreal Witness has during the past year increased rapidly in circulation, who leaves a widow and two children, was Dewey. The time rolled on slowly. The ast year increased rapidly in circulation, who leaves a whow and two children, was the not full! May this ever be the case in has said mass, and confessed, and preach uight arrived and still no jury. Most of our subscribers. This was natural under the d to wait patiently : howremains to the cometry. The community for a season seemed appalled. Almost whose facile fingers had been kept in mo-tion since nine o'clock in the morning, had gard it as a kindness, with promise of imme to drown in blood. Yes, she is rising at this hour fallen into a gentle repose, diate rectification. No one but those who have glorious as the morning light, and ignor- and, through "tired nature's sweet restorer, had the trial are aware of the trouble involved ance, superstition, heresy, and tyranny flee before her. and the track of the reporters, for which are revised every few months. Agents that matter, were in a semi-somnolent condition : and yet. take the crowd altogether, tion. Oh, if my word has yet any weight they were a wide wake party, and evinced to have amounts acknowledged, and we will de upon you, I beseech you to open your eyes an unflagging determination to see the thing so, waiting till they have completed their canto have amounts acknowledged, and we will do vas. In all cases we will keep on subscribers out. "It is going to be a disagreement," was who may be thus vouched for by our agents, now the remark most generally heard. for a reasonable length of time. Another half hour passed and brought no REV. J. W. Shepherdson writes respecting change in the situation. One o'clock ar-Sheet Harbour Mission : " I find this a large rived. The only news it brought was that Circuit-65 miles. The people are very kied the jury had sent for a pitcher of ice water. At half-past one the scene changed from water to brandy. Mr. Tweed was the many scattered along the shores favourable to purveyor, and furnished the latter beverage, the drinking, however, being confined to ety." Our Home Missions are truly encourse. himself and counsel. Scarcely had they ging in all details of information.

Surrounding him were, in addition to his Catalogues, post free, on receipt of price.

our God." One after another of his comand vigorous newspaper. It is the second rades caught up the strain, till dying and paper in the Dominion in point of cheap. for a season seemed appalled. Almost wounded, resting for a brief triumph on ness. The Witness has for many years everybody looked as if he had lost a friend. their elbows in pools of blood, joined with followed a plan which we do not know to There was good hope in his death, which be followed by any other paper, in the was duly improved by a sermon by the wthe healthful in rolling those noble strains Superintendent of the circuit, on Sabbath toward heaven. Eight thousand voices, regulation immediately over the editorial evening, 26th ult. A suitable monument. scattered over a fatal battle field, united in head of its last week's circulation com- it is expected, will be determined upon by the chorus! And thus it ever is. Fallpared with the same circulation a year be- the Trustees, as the matter is now referred ing on the right hand and the left .- sink. fore. So far it has been an exceptional to a committee. In this connection, I may ing in the sea and shot down on the land, day in its history when these figures have observe, Mr. Christopher Vey, one of the brave heroes pass homeward; but the sur-indicated retrogression. The Witness is links of our Church in former years, a little ago, entered peacefully upon his revivors are confident in God. and the coming out this winter in a new dress, and ward, aged 78 years. His life well de-Church moves right on. "God buries his the Weekly is to be to some extent enworkmen but carries on his work." Blesslarged, making it a remarkably good Once more the great political contest is dollar's worth. The publishers announce that their subscriptions came is during hat ed be His name forever !

that their subscriptions came in during last witnessed, yet what wire man would ques-THE CHILD OF THE 19TH CENTURY .- A month 58 per cent more than during the tion the sobriety and good sense of the conmost happy sign of these times is the same month last year. Whatever views stituency of this respectable city. It is secession from the Church of Rome. His energy displayed in ministering to the ris- may be taken of the course of the Witness quite assuring to some nevertheless to hear ing generation. The ablest minds are in its treatment of public matters it is cerengaged in writing for them; a large pro-tainly without a rival as a family newspaper, knows, ministers do well to say little about dotoinal. In the second will, I am about politics, he will only add both Govern-given, is worthy of a Roman, and will, I am portion of our best music is designed for and as such we can safely commend it. ment and Opposition claim great victories, them; systems of religious and secular Its selected articles on social questions and and what the complexion of affairs will be teaching are contrived for them, which em- its tales are very well chosen.

Correspondence.

bath Schools, and all necessary equipments to render them tasteful, attractive, and de-NEWFOUNDLAND LETTER. lightful,-these our wise Christian peoples

DEAR MR. EDITOR.-At the date of my are providing on every hand. last (Oct. 28,) Bro. Jabez Hill, lately from To contribute our portion of aid in this England, was on his way from St. John's direction, we are preparing to give each Bonne Bay, nearly 600 miles distant; week, after the new year opens, the Interwhere a very considerable Wesleyan community was awaiting him, as an ambassanational or Berean Lessons. The best talent of the Church is engaged in writing dor of Christ and messenger of the Church. Particulars of his safe arrival at Port au these, and they save Teachers the trouble Basque, nearly 400 miles onward per steamof preparation to some extent, while they er, and after some delay, of his having left furnish truth in a systematic and intellig- by sailing packet for his Mission, have ble form. Though we did not begin to reached me; and by this time it is hoped write with a view to constructing an adver- he has entered fully upon his work as our pioneer missionary on our Western coast. overtaken in Charlottetown, about a month tisement, we cannot do better than recom. Next summer, one or two more men will mend the Berean Lessons. They are furbe needed to complete the chain of missions nished through the Book Room, postage that ought to be formed there without depaid, at 6 cents for each number or leaf lay. Meantime much prayer should arise for the year. And the Journal, designed from the thousands of our Israel, that our young brother may be preserved, sustained for Teachers, at 60 cents a year. and comforted in his isolated position, and

PICTORAL PUSH .- This Continent is evi- souls.

body all the experience of centuries ; homes

in the Church-costly structures for Sab-

Bro. Joseph Parkins has also since then dently to have an Oleographic deluge ! Panew subscribers in prospect, are threaten-Talmage as Editor, and the regular contri-butions of Spurgeon, and the exclusive use bath school had been organized. of Bonar's pen, is yet making a speciality of its pictures. Talmage, Spurgeon and again indebted to Joseph Lawrence, Esq., employ the opportunity so afforded. Some- among the inmates. Bonar are not enough ! With these two, and complete. We have an inkling that seve- since Conference has spared neither time. ral of the first shower of premiums which thought nor means to forward our missions fell on these Provinces, have found their by the schemes of commerce? And now every Superintendent Wesleyan minister the N. Y. Methodist offers, with its new in the United Kingdom respecting our need of men; conducted an enormous correspon-dence; liberally provided grants of books, form and increased price, several premient patterus! We are resolved to lend no countenance to shooting—other than me-of charge twenty pounds sterling worth of this afternoon, and after this proceed to before these men. He applied to the Govern tracts for circulation, besides newspapers taphorical !

Joy BELLS .- We clip this hymeneal note to hope for the arrival of another man for from Zion's Herald :

The Travetter says: "A brilliant wed-ding took place in Brooklyn last night, when the Rev. Frederic Woods, of New-our-ministry next year. Of the two breth-tonville, was united in marriage to Miss Fren reterred to above, one, Bro. Samuel to be least sum named as "exceedingly desirable." This statement is sufficient to the least sum name is sufficient Anna Alden May, of Boston Highlands, Snowden, went immediately to Bay of desirable." This statement is sufficient to quisition. Father Grassi took my arm, and daughter of Wm. B. May, the well-known Islands and Tilt Cove, via Exploits ; the show that the assistance of the friends who as he walked along the street of the Holy broker. The wedding was celebrated at other brother, George H. Bryant, who is have not yet subscribed is urgently needed. Office thinking of our brethren who had pre-the residence of W. W. Hill, jr., Esq., in married, but came out as a young man with Leaving out of view the Conference or ecded us, but who never returned, I remindurners followed his Methodism till the Millenial shout shall eth !"-ED. P. W.)

Miscellaucous.

RECANTATION OF A ROMAN CATH-OLIC PRIEST IN ROME.

Our English exchanges came too late last week to admit of our making axtracts from to the light-to abandon that system of their pages; but this letter from the London darkness in which you are groping, and Watchman will even now be read with grate- accept the true light which Jesus offers to ful interest :-

DEAR SIRS .- I send you for insertion a copy support for his work. of an exceedingly interesting letter just re-ceived from the Rev. W C. Van Meter, of ceived from the Rev. W C. Rome. It relates chiefty to Father Grassi's conduct before the Inquisitors, before whom sure, be read with doepest interest by your numerous readers.

M. Van Meter is engaged in organizing in a month or two is quite uncertain. Oue Evangelical schools in Rome, and has been bering 900, entered the city by the Bayathing admits of no doubt. The Weslevan eminently successful in this good work. I mo road, thus taking away all the troops, was there in March last, and had the honor element has gained immensely, and will it The loss of the "Robert Lowe," S. S. with of opening a Sunday-school while there. 1 and exposing them openly to the inroads is hoped stand up nobly for equal rights. stances of Rome that permitted such a privi-is still going on, and those already made the captain and sixteen others, on Thursday last, has just thrilled our city with intense lege .- I am, yours v.ry truly, emotions. Other great losses of life it JAMES SINCLAIR. leared may be reported in the heavy gales, ited. May the voice of God be heard in recantation, which I am persuaded will gladden the heart of Protestant England. Father Grassi, who for thirty-six years upon the troops leaving were ordered out MOUNT ALLISON INSTITUTIONS performed successively the duties of priest, onfessor, curate, mitred aboot, Lent preach SACKVILLE, N. B. DEC. 3, 1873. er, and lastly incumbent of the great Basilica MY DEAR MR. EDITOR,-Had it not Santa Maria Maggiore, has cast down robes, been for the accident by which I was honor, emoluments, abandoned prospective promotion, and united with the Baptist Church under the pastorate of the Rev. Mr. on the 16th and left again on the following since, I should have sent some earlier report of the progress made in the Agency | Wall, of England.

48 Blackfriars-Street, Manchester, Oct. 29.

A few weeks ago, with Mr. Wall, he called for this Fund. During the five weeks which followed the publication of my letter to bid his associates farewell. It was a scene that they stood in no need of expeditions or respecting it in your issue of the 22nd of not to be forgotten. They knew well that he arms from abroad, as when any were and St. Stephens in New Brunswick ; Hal- honoured, was sincere. As a loving father them, and in fact they helped themselves made the means of the conversion of many jitax and Yarmouth in Nova Scotia, and he told them of the terrible conflict through very freely to everything that could be car-

Bedeque, Tryon and Cornwall in Prince which he had passed, why he had given up ried off. The Spanish papers admit that pers professing to have tens of thousands of reported his arrival at St. Pierre, and en- wick and Nova Scotia above named, had of Christians meeting in a tent, and begged every fought since the insurrection, the new subscribers in prospect, are threaten-ing to send a picture to each one. The Christian at Work, with all the strength of the opening Sabbath services, and to invite ting them in such form as would render ask for light, one of them the superior of a DIAN WESLEYANS.-Mr. Editor: I have Two brethren more have reinforced our them immediately productive, and I found convent, who on Sunday sent a priest to Mr. no doubt but the letter written by the Rev number of labourers, for whom we are almost every one of these friends ready to Wall for tracts and Scriptures to distribute J. Caswell may be by some disputed as three Chromos, surely the inducements are complete. We have an inkling that seve-since Conference has spared neither time, way of obtaining additions to the amount way of obtaining additions to the amount the seve-the seve-the facts it brings forward relating to the facts it brings forward relating to the seve-the New Connexion in 1841. I will give of subscriptions, these additions amount to But last Sunday the silence was broken. thought nor means to forward our missions of subscriptions, these autitions amount to but the value of the va way into solitary hiding places. Why Christian gentleman with moderate income, isound return this complete in the and the solution of Father Grassi? The "Infallible" com-should our love of the beautiful be blighted has, at his own expense, issued a circular to that the "postage" would soon be swept tion in the PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN. I am now so far recovered from the ef- away. Grasri was summoned before the Infects of the accident before mentioned, that quisition, to repent or endure the penalty. form and increased price, several premi-ums,—one of which is shot-guns in differ-ums,—one of which is shot-guns in differ-Halifax with all convenient speed. ment for protection, but was advised not to

Ap examination of the subscription lists venture, and that if he did go, he must bear and periodicals for the brethren by every An examination of the subscription lists the responsibility. The interview was approximate the responsibility of the responsibility. mail. His recent communications lead me to hope for the arrival of another man for yet required to make the Fund amount to Musgrave Harbour, the last on our list with the $60,000, considered both by the "Board Father Grassi, assisted by Mr. Wall and a Weep not over ed with you. tion of that Church which you have tried before her. "Farewell, Church of my youth; farewell, companions of my ministry of destruc-

Mr. Van Meter closes with an appeal fo

OUR EXCHANGES.

THE INSURRECTION IN CUBA.-A letter he was summoned, amounted to true moral from Manzanillo, (a seaport on the south 14 savs :---

> "On the 13th the Spanish troops, numare being strengthened. The insurgents were still waiting the are reported to have, from 3000 to 4000 jury.—N. Y. Hera d. men near here and an attack is momenta-

12, Vicolo D, Alibert, Rome, 22nd Oct. 1873 rily expected. The troops and citizens are DEAR SIR, - I hasten to convey to you some information respecting Father Grassi's flags on the different Consulates remain hoisted both day and night. To-day the Spanish force left again, and all volunteers natries have a more serious trouble on their McAlpine and Barnes, publishers of this sess. guard the town during the night to guard the town unrug the Twelve to fourteen persons were arrested hands .- Her Most gracious Majesty Queen concise and multitarious manual, have sent us Victoria has been communing with Pres- a copy for notice. It contains even more than without the slightest cause, except that they hyterians ! Perhaps those two liberal- the usual quantity of information on subjects were Cubans, and were lodged in the common jail, one of them being a lady. The minded heads of the English Church under which every one ought to know. For sale at British man-of-war Woodlark arrived here stood each other. At all events they seem the Book-room, 12 cents. day.

said episcopal thraldom :---The Cubans who entered the town There is wrath among the Ritualists o England against the Dean of Canterbury. September, I was allowed to visit St. John whom they had so long known, loved, and wanted they knew where to go and get He has committed the, for a Churchman unpardonable sin. He has been guilty of Christian charity. The Guardian (cour-teous High-Church) says: "Considering Edward Island. The places in New Bruns- all, and chosen his home with a little company the fight of Sacra was one of the severest the occasion and the person, it may be tered upon his duties there with fair share been cauvassed for subscriptions by mem- hem to consider well his reasons. All were Cubans rushing up to within forty paces of liberate violation of Church order than this head illustrates the character of Him by whom

The Evangelical Witness (New Connex-

LETTER FROM ONE OF THE OLD CANA The Church Times (malignant High Church) is, after its usual fashion, more trenchant. It does the Dean and Canon Freemantle in to the facts it brings forward relating to the New Connexion in 1841. I will give you the figures from 1841 to 1873:

two hundred and thirty-three, and up to ou last Conference we have, Ninety ministers in the itinerancy. Twenty-one superanuated. Twenty-four deaths.

rather than increasing. I know of only FOUR of the ancient brethren who were ministers of the old body. These are the beroism. His speech, extracts of which are given, is worthy of a Roman, and will, I am N. W. of Santiago de Cuba) dated Nov. when it was announced that the jury was in our issue of to-day, deserve the confidence coming. The announcement woke up the sleepers, for many in the weariness of waiting had fallen asleep, and all were agog waiting the approach of the twelve of the lamented minister of that name, and as men honest and true. It proved a false a student is also well known, so that, is all realarm, and the sleepers again subsided into spects, they both bring a good record below their somnolency. At two o clock Judge Davis and counsel the public.

Tinturn, Nov. 17, 1873. N. B .- Is there not a cause

NEW SUBSCRIBERS, to the number of 275 were still waiting the coming in of the have been added tof our Lists. A brave, united, determined effort by all our Agents

The Methodist (New York) thus refers this month, and a good word from our readers to the Dean of Canterbury's troubles on ac- to those who do not take the Paper, will bring count of his recent action in communion up the thousand yet. Our Agent is very me with Christians of other Churches at the Alliance. And now the High Church dig-BELCHER'S FARMERS ALMANAC.--Mean to be thoroughly emancipa.ed from arch- Prof. Townsend's latest Book. It is splendid ly got up in all materials of printing and binding. His subject is divided into, " The Field - The Defeat, -The Triumph, -The King." The first is a fine treatise on the stellar worlds

the second relates to the ravages of sin, graphically illustrated by instances like that of Judas; the third is a victory over sin's conse doubted whether any more grave and de. quences, as in the case of Job, and the last has been witnessed in our time. It is a all conquest is obtained.

far more serious act than any mere preach- The volume is one of the Professor's best. ing or joining in prayer in congregations Mr. Gossip of Halifax has it on sale. It may not belonging to our communion." In- also be obtained through the Wesleyan Book deed ! joining in prayer with non-Anglican room. congregations is a serious offence, is it?

THE Western Chronicle, of Kentville, come before the public with great promise. Its leaders indicate considerable originality and this style: "We can only offer to our spirit, and its local items are prepared with brethren across the Atlantic our apologies prudence and tact. We give it a hearty wel-

WE are sending Catalogues of our Books to person of any account at home. It may the several Ministers. Will they please give be as well to explain to them that persons one to each Sunday School Superintendent?

HANTSPORT FANCY OSALE AND

MR. EDITOR,-Allow me through your columns to give notice, that the ladies of the Methodist congregation at Hantsport intend holding their Annual Social, to include a Tea Meeting, a Fancy Sale and R. freshment, &c., great qualities-are seldom men of much influence. But if the Archbishop of Canterbury is personally not a very great personage, the Dean of that city is infinitely in the basement of the church, on Wednesday less. It is understood, in England at least. the 17th inst., or, if that day should be unfavorthat the sole reasons for his promotion was able, on the day following. On the Fanery to rescue his chair at the University from tables will be offered a variety of useful and the contempt which, with all his undoubt- ornamenta articles, suitable for Christmas prethe contempt which, with all his undoubt-ed Syriac learning, his incapacity had brought upon it. As for Mr. Freemantle, ment Tables will be loaded with good c er. it is hardly possible to conceive a smaller Doors open at 2 p. m. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock, and from that hour during the dignitary.

Is not all this amazing? The Pharisees evening. Admission 10 cents, Tea 30 cents. of old made crimes of praiseworthy acts, if It is expected that excursion tickets will be issued at the Railway Stations at one fare. good these happened to disagree with their petty for trat and tollowing day. traditions, and rejected men whom Christ took to his heart. Our modern Churchmen Hantsport Dec. 6, 1873.

Ninety-three who have left the Connex

I view the Connexion as retrograding

T. RUMP.

in England with very great titles are often very small men. Thus, although the Primatial sees are with us very high dignities. the actual holders of them-chosen as they generally are for their conspicuous want of

