The following convincing expressions from prominent and progressive people are kindly given us for publication for the benefit of humanity

Mr. George P. Goodale,

Secretary of Detroit Free Press, writes :

Detroit, Mich., May 2, 1897. By means of the Oxydonor I was magically cured of a severe case of Spinal Neurasthenia from which I suffered painfully, and after years of failure by zealous and affectionate friends in the medical faculty.

Oxydonor is the chiefest single blessing with which I have made acquaintance on this earth, and I would not voluntarily forego its benefits for a deed in fee simple of Greater Naw York Feithfully yours New York. Faithfully yours, GEORGE P. GOODALE.

J. Crawford Bradlee, M.D.

34 Wynard Square, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia, November 21, 1898.

DR. H. SANCHE, Dear Sir, -I may say that the severe tests to which I have subjected the Oxydonor and Animator No. 4, leave no room for doubt as to their therapeutic value, and so thoroughly satisfied am I (after seventeen months' practi-cal trial in my practice in a wide range of dis-eases) that I am prepared to abandon all other forms of treatment, electric and otherwise, in favor of your system. DR. H. SANCHE, favor of your system. J. CRAWFORD BRADLEE.

Former United States Consul Writes : Hamilton, Ont., Canada, Sept. 2, 1896 It is to me a serious deprivation to be with out the Oxydonor even one day. C. F. MACDONALD, U.S. Consul

Rev. Isaac Naylor,

The Noted English Evangelist, writes : The Noted English Evangenet, writes : The Oxydonor had a marvellous influence over me. With incredible quickness it brought me round, substituting strength for weakness, vigor for languor, ease for pain, and health for sickness. I shall take an Oxydonor back to England with me, and shall feel it a duty to recommend it to my friends. (REV.) ISAAC NAYLOR, Island View, Hornsea, near Hull, England.

Hay Fever.

McMaster Hall, Toronto, Ont. Nov. 24, 1898

The night I had the Oxydonor applied to me was the first night in three weeks that I had been able to sleep. Three days later the hay fever entirely left me. I will recommend those suffering from hay fever to try Oxydonor WM. H. WALKER.

Sciatica, Erysipelas.

Thessalon, On'., March, 7, 1899. I have much pleasure in testifying to the worth of your Oxydonor, No 2. 1 had been suffering untold agonies from sciatica, and purchased one of your valuable instruments, and I have here inversion even the and I have been improving ever since. The Oxydonor also cured one of my children of erysipelas.

That this or that might be, But never tries his mettle, Is the boy that's bound to see His plans all come to failure. His hopes end in defeat ; For that's what comes when wishing And working fail to meet.

The boy who wishes this thing Or that thing with a will, That spurs him on to action, And keeps him trying still When efforts meet with failure, Will some day surely win; For he works out what he wishes. And that's where "luck" comes in !

The "luck" that I believe in Is that which comes with work, And no one ever finds it Who's content to wish and shirk, The men the world call "lucky' Will tell you, every one. That success comes not by wishing, But by hard work bravely done.

STAYING POWER.

Delsie Downes stood on the corner of the road, at the turnpike, waiting for the four o'clock stage to pass. When the old stage-driver the city and get a situation. I reined up his horses to take in his won't stay and be imposed upon passenger, a surprised look came another hour;' but when I began over his face. As he took Delsie's valise in his hand and held the Mandy would do without me, for stage door for her to get in, he nobody else would go there and asked, "Going visiting, Delsie?"

"I don't know, Mr. Davis, just where I shall fetch up, I've started for the city. I've made up my mind that it is time for me to start for somewhere. The truth is, I can't stand Aunt 'Mandy's aggravating ways another hour."

The driver kept drumming on the dashboard with the end of his whip handle while Delsie was talking. When she finished he said: "But what's your Aunt 'Mandy going to do without you?"

"That's her lookout, Mr. Davis, She never appeared to appreciate anything I ever did for her. didn't mind the work; I could get on with that well enough; but she is so unreasonable and fussy that she keeps me stirred up all the while. I want to go and work somewhere where folks are pleasant. Many times I've gone upstairs and picked up my things and said to myself, 'Now I'll go to to pick up, I'd wonder what Aunt put up with her ways. Then I'd There were no other passengers make up my mind to try and bear home from college with the prize, has done the best she could for left, taken on bad, when Delsie?"

"She didn't know it, Mr. Davis. I'm so tender-hearted, that if I told her I was really going, and she made a fuss, I'd be just foolish enough to take off my things and stay.'

"You've done first-rate for the old lady, Delsie. All the folks in town will agree to that."

"Why didn't any of them say so when they came in and knew 1 was tired? When anybody is trying to stand up under a crushing load, it would lighten it a great came in and gave a lift by a few words of encouragement. TIGHT BINDING

maybe, if I have a chance, I can do something, too, and come back to this town and surprise folks. That man who lectured at the school-house last winter talked about going to work and finding out what there is in us; what strength of character we have, and what we are capable of doing."

"Well, now, Delsie, let me tell you that it ain't half so hard to march behind the music as it is to trudge along without any tune, It takes lots more Christian grace to put up with an aggravating old body like your Aunt 'Mandy, than deal, I'm thinking, if somebody it does to go out to work where other folks are stirring about lively. We all get tumbled up and down in our minds sometimes. John Bunyan says he did, and he was about as good a man as we've heard tell of.
