Surnames and Their Origin

STERLING.
Variations—Eastman, Origin—English, Geographical.
One of the family name of Sterling is up with that of our applied to silver, and acquired meanings. In middle ages, before the time of the sea-borne, the most intrepid of those who hailed from the "free cities" along what was the German seacoast. These were fealty to no king, or at least fealty for temporary periods, and they were virtual lords of their stations with their own trading colonies, and military defence. They trace back to various periods of conquest and colonization of the British Isles from the north of Ireland, virtually all of which took place prior to the fifth century A.D. The difference in the Gaelic of the Highlands and that of Ireland is more a difference of dialect than of language.
The family name in this group, like that of MacDougal, trace back to the given name of Dugal, from the Gaelic "dhu," meaning "dark," and "gall," for "stranger." In the very early period this was the Highlander's name for a man of the low country, but it very quickly became a given name. The family name of McCool was more anciently spelled "Makoul."

MacDOWELL.
Variations—MacDowell, Dowall, Dowell, MacDhoill, MacCoul, MacCool. Racial Origin—Scottish. Source—A given name.
This group of names constitutes a class of variations of the clan name of MacDougal, borne by one of the leading clans of Scotland and all of them occur as family names adopted by branches or sept of that clan. Certain of them, too, are not exclusively Scottish, but are to be found in Ireland as well.
That the same names should spring up independently in Scotland and Ireland, though in some cases from different sources, is not strange, for the bulk of the Scottish Highland clans trace back to various periods of conquest and colonization of the British Isles from the north of Ireland, virtually all of which took place prior to the fifth century A.D. The difference in the Gaelic of the Highlands and that of Ireland is more a difference of dialect than of language.

Message.
Outside my door, there waits for me,
Awake and newly wondering,
A day—that cries out to be lived,
What will it bring? What will it bring?

What if it have a touch of pain,
Pain is a part of daily living;
What if it give a headache or
Will need the glory of forgiving?

Not all days may be bright and sunny,
And for this untried one—I pray,
But this—that with sterner
I live it, be it grave or gay.
—George Elliston.

WHY RHEUMATISM OFTEN COMES BACK

The Usual Treatment Does Not Reach the Root of the Trouble.

Most treatments for rheumatism do no more than aim to keep down the poison in the blood and enable nature to overcome that particular attack. Then when the system becomes run-down from any cause the disease again gets the upper hand and it all has to be done over.

Sufferers from rheumatism who have found their condition unrelieved or actually growing worse while using other remedies, would do well to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The tonic treatment with this medicine has proved in thousands of cases that it builds up the blood to a point that it enables it to cast out the rheumatic poisons through the regular channels, the bowels, kidneys and the skin. When this is done rheumatism is banished, and as long as the blood is kept pure and rich the patient will be immune from attack. This is fully proved by the case of Mr. Samuel Zinck, Upper Blandford, N.S., who says: "For a long time I was a great sufferer from rheumatism which settled in my hip and down my leg to the knee. At times the pain was so great that I could not walk. I tried liniments and medicines but without getting more than mere temporary relief. Then one day a friend called with this trouble which was banished by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and urged me to try them. I did as advised and after using a few boxes there was no doubt they were helping me. Not only was the rheumatism disappearing, but my general health was improving. I continued the pills until I had taken about a dozen boxes, when every trace of the trouble had disappeared, and I have not felt a twinge of it since. I may add that my wife used these pills for a run-down condition with equally good results."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Vision on the Wall.

"The Holy Ghost said 'teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say,'" said Our Lord to his disciples once, and a striking fulfillment of that promise is found in the impressive experience of a famous living evangelist.

He was preaching in Liverpool to a congregation that packed the church to its utmost capacity. Suddenly in the midst of the sermon he stopped abruptly and said: "There is a man here who twelve years ago was sent to New Zealand. He was a drunkard, a gambler and a wife-beater. He returned from New Zealand last evening and has come to this church to-night. I have to tell him that his wife has forgiven him and that he should return to her as quickly as he can." Then the evangelist resumed his sermon. At the end of the service as he descended from the pulpit the vicar rushed up to him, and said excitedly: "How did you know about that man? It's true, doctor! And I packed him off to the colonies twelve years ago, and he is here to-night. It's true! How did you know about it?"

"All I can say," replied the preacher, "is that during my sermon I saw on the wall opposite to me a vision of the Mersey and a man embarking—then a map of New Zealand—then the Mersey again and a man coming ashore."

"How did you know it was twelve years ago or that the man was here?" "I can't tell you, I knew—that is all!"

Before that night was ended the man had given his heart to God and was speeding back to the wife he had so cruelly treated, that they might begin life again together. There is no doubt that there is a heightened consciousness frequently realized in the pulpit by saintly preachers that is a sound testimony to divine inspiration.

Killer Whales Battle Finback in Arctic as Explorer Watches

During one of Scott's Antarctic cruises to study the finback whales, the rare appearance of which in the waters near the Falkland Islands threatened the existence of the islanders, one of his assistants witnessed a stirring battle between a sixty-foot finback and a number of killer whales. The smaller species are armed with strong, sharp teeth, grow from twenty to thirty feet long and are exceedingly ferocious. They tear pieces of flesh a yard long from their larger adversary, slash its lips and enter its mouth, ripping out its tongue. The ocean's surface becomes red with blood over long stretches after such a conflict. The killer whale usually lives on smaller fish and remains around the mouths of rivers lying in wait for its prey, but occasionally is found miles out to sea, hunting and attacking the largest whales without fear. One scientist found parts of thirteen dolphins and fourteen other victims inside a killer seventeen feet long.

Cultivation of Music Taste.

That musical taste can be cultivated is proved by the many people who once were satisfied only with the lower forms of music and now are best pleased with the music that is really art. Doubtless, they all have had within themselves the capacity to respond to a good thing when they hear it. But people possess that faculty without knowing it, and hence the importance for every music lover of steady effort to appreciate the music that seems to be beyond him. Most of the time it only seems to be, and is not really beyond him. How best to make that effort? By hearing good music over and over again. It is the only way, and it is a sure way to cultivate musical taste.

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed. Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarnia, Ontario.—"After my girlie was born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand or walk without pains. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer any good for my household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was not in a fit condition at that time. My neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' I am sure it will do you good and will save those doctor's bills." So I was advised by my husband to try it after I told him about it. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as rooms were scarce at that time. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation, thanks to your medicine. I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to a few people I know and have told them the good it has done me. I know I feel and look a different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only too glad for those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me."—Mrs. ROBERT G. MACGREGOR, R. R. No. 2, Sarnia, Ontario.
A recent canvass of women users of the Vegetable Compound report 98 out of 100 received beneficial results. This is a remarkable proof of its merit. C.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS AN EXCELLENT REMEDY

For Any of the Many Minor Ailments of Infants and Young Children.

No mother can expect that her child will escape all the ills to which babyhood and childhood are subject, but she can do much to lessen their severity, and to make baby's battles for health easily won.

Nine-tenths of the minor ailments which afflict babyhood and childhood are caused by some derangement of the stomach and bowels. Regulate the stomach and bowels and these troubles will disappear. To do this nothing is so equal as Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which through their action on the stomach and bowels, never fail to banish constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fevers; expel worms and make the dreaded teething time easy.

Concerning Baby's Own Tablets Mrs. A. Koshan, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"Kindly send me your booklet, 'Care of Baby in Health and Sickness.' I have two little children four and a half and three years old and have used nothing else for them but Baby's Own Tablets. I think the Tablets are a wonderful medicine for little ones."

A Ruined Garden.

From a man as weak as I His life would be taken If ever his pride should die, That now is shaken.

I held your hand in my own In a moonlit garden How could a fool have known To sue for your pardon?

You offered your heart with tears, And I took it lightly I wonder amid my fears, If I heard rightly!

For now that I see how my will's Will work is done, discloses A ruin, wherein night spills Silver on fallen roses.

The strong and not the weak Can dare to be humble; The fool's hand goes to seek Your hand, lest he stumble.

Pity he pleads. Will you give Him, humbled, your kiss of pardon? And his pride, like the roses, will give Again in the garden.
