FORMER NEW YORK BANK CASHIER UNDER INDICTMENT WILL TURN STATE'S EVIDENCE Expected to Give Evidence When Cases Against Other Bankers Who Have Had Dealings With His Institution Are Brought to Trial—Charges of Larceny and Forgery Rest Against Him.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—It was stated tonight by one person interested in the prosecution that Arthur Campbell, former cashier of the Borough Bank, would appear as a witness for the state when cases against other bankers who have had dealings with the Borough Bank were brought to trial. Campbell, himself, is under indictment on two charges of grand larceny and one of forgery, and though these charges will be pressed, it was said that he would maintain that his questionable acts were committed at the dictation of his superiors and that he was only technically guilty.

Mrs. Stuart Says She Didn't Know What She Was Signing

B., which failed in 1904. The plaintiff says the money was left her by her father, and she signed papers brought by her husband without knowing what she signed or taking legal advice. CHRISTMAS CAROLS TO BE SUNG IN NEW YORK'S SCHOOLS AFTER ALL

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Christmas carols may still be sung and the anniversary observed along traditional lines in the public schools of this city concerned. Late today the board of education, without a dissenting voice, passed a resolution which places that body on record as not opposing the observance and leaves the matter to the judgment of individual superintendents. In fact, members of the board later declared that there had never been any intention of eliminating these programmes, and that the recent agitation had arisen from a misunderstanding.

TORONTO POLICE NOT ALARMED

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 27.—Notwithstanding the fact that several Toronto people during the last few months have received letters demanding money, with threats purporting to come from the "Black Hand" society, the Toronto police officials are convinced that these letters are silly hoaxes, and in one or two instances clumsy attempts at blackmail by petty criminals.

TRAP FOR THE SEA SERPENT BEING MADE

Norwegian Ready to Catch Him if Subsidized—Considerable Danger Attached

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The sea serpent has often been seen, but never yet captured. The way to confound sceptics who regard it only as a child's pipedream is therefore very simple. Capture one and give them proof positive. This idea has struck a Norwegian, who has come to the conclusion that the story of the sea serpent has been told too many times to be admitted without foundation. While admitting that "evidence" of the monster has not always agreed in every particular, he says that he believes there has been considerable conflict of testimony over the head and the whiskers, he points out that they all agree that it was a serpent and very large.

WILL SAIL DECEMBER 16TH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—"You can bet your North American life that the battleship fleet will sail from Hampton Roads on its voyage to the Pacific on the morning of December 16th. The vessels will get under way just as soon as I receive the president's orders to set sail."

In this characteristic manner, Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans answered the reports that there would be a delay in the departure of the fleet. It is possible that all the ships may not be assembled at Hampton Roads December 8, but there is no doubt in the admiral's mind that they will all be on hand when the sailing order is given on December 16.
