ATHENS, ONT., NOV. 3, 1891.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen—Local Announcements Briefly Right Down.

Have you seen the $5.00 Salettes at G. W. Beach's?

The rate of taxation in Kempsville is 26 mills on the dollar.

W. G. Parish will pay cash for 100 cords white ash bolts.

Go to G. W. Beach's for the celebrated Josephine Kid Gloves.

Mr. N. C. Williams' livery stable is now ornamented with a handsome sign.

Mrs. Betts returned on Thursday last from Deseronto where she had been on a visit to friends.

Ion. C. F. Fraser's health is not good, and he is about going to California for the winter. Mrs. and Miss Fraser will accompany him.

A court for the revision of the voters list for Ross' Town and Elect will be held in the town hall at 7.30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 13th.

You can buy a one hundred piece colored dinner set for $7.50 at the China Hall, Brockville, T. W. Dennis, opposite Central Hotel, Main St. 28-29

Orders received at Ross' photo gallery Athens, for sheet music, music books and everything in the musical line. Liberal terms to music teachers.

Thursday next will be the anniversary of the discovery of the Gunpowder Plot. Preparations for its celebration are being made in several localities in Leeds Co.

Violins, accordions, concertinas, guitars, banjos, mouth organs, Jew's harps, flutes, fife and violin, guitar and harp strings, violin bridges and bows kept in stock at Ross' photo gallery, Central Block, Athens.

Mr. R. O. Horner closed a period of five weeks labor in Wolford, near Irish Creek, on Sunday last. He is said to have been much more kindly treated than during his former visit. This week his tent is being moved to Frankville.

Yesterday Mrs. R. D. Judson was so unfortunate as to fall from the platform of a clothes-reel and severely injure her knee. Her medical attendant speaks hopefully of the injury not proving dangerous.

Two straight goals and a doubtful third were registered against the Athens football team in their match with Brockville Coll. Inst. club on the grounds of the latter on Saturday. We don't wish to appear to be making excuses, but the Athens team was certainly greatly handicapped by the absence of four of their best players. Should a return match be kicked the game will be looked forward to with great interest.

Consult your own interests by giving me a call if you want to purchase a piano, organ or sewing machine. I am sole agent for the district for Canada's high class piano, the Mason & Risch, also the Mason & Risch vocalion, the great modern musical achievement, suitable for parlors, halls and churches, and the renowned D. W. Karn & Co. organ. Satisfaction guaranteed with regard to quality and price. I have a number of second hand instruments for sale cheap on very easy terms.—Jas. Ross, Photo Gallery, Athens.

Blacksmithing.

A. James has leased the premises formerly occupied by Abel Stearns for a term of three years and has engaged the services of a first-class blacksmith. All his work is guaranteed and will be cheap as the cheapest. Special attention will be devoted to horse-shoeing. Mr. James is well known to the people of this section as an energetic, reliable business man and his shop can be counted on to do good work. Give him a call.

Brockville Cheese Board

The Brockville Cheese Board had its last meeting for the season on Thursday last. The cheese offered totalled 3,523 boxes, two-thirds of which were white. The highest offer was 9 1/2¢ and this was for colored goods. The salesmen declined to sell at this figure, and so the board closed with out a single box changing hands.

Just before the close of the board, Sec. Treas. C. J. Gilroy read an address (which was accompanied by a purse of money) to ex-President R. G. Murphy, to which Mr. Murphy made a suitable acknowledgement. A vote of thanks was then tendered to President Singleton, who closed his reply by extending an invitation to all present to dine with him at the St. Lawrence Hall. Accordingly there was a great gathering of those interested in the important cheese industry of this section in the spacious dining room of the hall at 9 o'clock when ex-President M. K. Everitt took the chair. The customary remarks were proposed and ably responded to, and thus passed away very pleasantly the closing hours of the last business day of the Cheese Board for 1891.

On Sunday evening Rev. J. Grenfell preached a sermon on "Boodlers" in the Methodist church to a large congregation. His discourse stripped boodling of such little concealment and justification as partisans in Ontario and Quebec are prone to accord it, and showed conclusively that stealing from the public treasury is just as bad as stealing from an individual. The stand that many ministers have taken on this question, and their eloquent words of condemnation will do much towards stemming the tide of corruption that seems to be flooding our fair Dominion.

We are pleased to republish the following from the Winnipeg Free Press, and congratulate Mr. Fisher on his preference: "In the transfer Mr. C. D. Fisher from the agency of this station to a more lucrative position at Moose Jaw, the C. P. R. has given to the people of Saskatchewan and neighboring places a grievance that not even the recent liberal reduction in freight rates from Winnipeg will remove. Mr. Fisher, besides being a thoroughly competent station agent, possessed personal qualities that made him a favorite with all classes, and it will be difficult for the company to find another who will enjoy in so large a measure both the confidence and esteem of the general public as he did.

There are a large number of counterfeit fifty cent pieces in circulation in Kingston and storekeepers are being deceived every day. The counterfeit is a splendid one, bearing date of 1890. One who analyzed and found to be made of aluminum, which gives it a splendid ring. It is short in weight by twenty-six grains.

A Halloween party was held on Friday evening, which was conducted in a somewhat novel manner. The young men assembled at a certain house, the identity of which was unknown to the young ladies, who were supposed to hunt till they found it. Of course the hunt was successful, but the game was not found till several houses had been visited.

XGanano had a sensation last week, the facts being, as told by the Record, that Wm. Corby, suspecting his wife to be too intimate with a bachelor storekeeper, watched her on Sunday evening and discovered her in the merchant's private quarters, and shooting through the door nearly made an end of him, the latter going through his shirt collar and making a flesh wound in his neck.

Last week Mrs. Chamberlain and Miss Jennie Hartwell returned from their trip to Toronto and Parry Sound. While in Toronto at the residence of Dr. Chamberlain, Mrs. Chamberlain celebrated the anniversary of her 87th year. The trip from Toronto to the Sound is a long day's journey and we congratulate Mrs. Chamberlain on having stood it so well, and upon her safe return to Athens.

On Sunday evening Rev. J. Grenfell preached a sermon on "Boodlers" in the Methodist church to a large congregation. His discourse stripped boodling of such little concealment and justification as partisans in Ontario and Quebec are prone to accord it, and showed conclusively that stealing from the public treasury is just as bad as stealing from an individual. The stand that many ministers have taken on this question, and their eloquent words of condemnation will do much towards stemming the tide of corruption that seems to be flooding our fair Dominion.

too died Monday night. M. B. Ballantyne lost one Saturday night that had worked that day. At present there are no other cases in town.

On Wednesday last a warrant was placed in the hands of Constable Brown for the apprehension of Geo. Barnes, a charge of assault having been made against him by Samuel Danby before Geo. P. Wight, Esq., J. P. The warrant was promptly executed and "Tony" shortly appeared before the door of W. P. Wight, Esq., just here the trouble commenced. While the constable was unlocking the door the prisoner was meditating deeply, and suddenly made a bolt for fresh air and freedom. The constable gave chase and a lively race ensued, but Tony proved to be somewhat of a sprinter, and soon left the constable, the cooler, and law and order far in the rear. But the race was not always to the swift, and it proved in this case. The constable, thinking that the bird would return to its nest, continued on to Guelzers' Junction, only to find that the prisoner had not yet arrived. He was releasing somewhat discomfited when the unmistakable tones of Tony's voice came to him from a wayside dwelling. He effected the recapture of his prisoner and this time presented him with a pair of handcuffs. He was placed behind the bars without further mishap, and in the morning was brought before Justice Wight and Cawley. The assault took place in Barnes' house concerning which the evidence differed very materially in such an extent, in fact, that the magistrates disagreed, and the evidence has been sent to the County Crown Attorney for his verdict.
