Dropped Dead Before the Altar. OTTAWA, Feb. 2.—John Neveau, of Gatineau Point, dropped dead in the Ba-silica yesterday. He was about 60 years of age. Yesterday was the first Friday of the month and hence the sacrament was exposed in the church. It is the habit of Cathelies to visit the church on such oc-cusions and pray before the sacrament, There were about half a dozen worship-pers in the church when Neveau entered. If went to kneel in the aisle just beside bids up to February 4 for 63,000 net trans of coal for that road. This is the earliest of the large fuel contracts invited this season, and will have an important bear-ing on the price of coal.
