FURNACES

The season is here for Furnace Work and I invite inspection of this one.

We guarantee every furnace and ask no pay till spring, which gives the entire winter to try it.

Give me a call and get prices. Stoves at a very close price.

W. F. EARL,

ATHENS

PHILIPPSVILLE.

Messrs. Brown and Fisher of Athens passed through this town, going west on a business trip last week. Potato raisers are adopting all manner of ways to get their tubers out of the ground. Some with horse hoes, some with plow, some with spring-toothed seeders, and others dig them out the old-fashioned way with the shovel, with their T.C.U.

The farmers are gathering their roots. The drouth has had a serious effect on their growth. Very little plowing done yet—the ground is too dry. H. Haskins has traded off his old traction engine and has a new one, with all the latest improvements. Mrs. D. Phillips is very poorly.

Mrs. H. Cameron had a turn for the worse a few days ago and is very weak. She does not complain of any pain, just a breaking down of the system. W. H. Ludbrook met with an accident two weeks ago by his horse getting frightened and running away. He is not able to get on his feet yet through the injury to his shoulder. He had just got to work from letting his finger come in contact with the buzz saw a few weeks ago.

The wedding last week of Miss Cassie Warren to Elisha Steyens of Forfar and their wedding trip out north is the topic of conversation just now. The wedding reception at the home of the groom was an elaborate affair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davison, Miss Edith and Master Glen Davison of Brockville are visiting at Mrs. Davison's father's. They came out by the overland express.

Mr. Geo. Hopkins of Brockville is at the home of Miss Amanda Alguire, and old acquaintance.

J. P. Dunham is expected home this week to let his farm to some one. Report says that one of his sisters will reside at his home and the other will make her home at Mrs. Myles Lockwood's.

SEELEY'S BAY. MONDAY, Oct. 25th.—W. J. Berry has the frame erected and enclosed of his new blacksmith shop. Gilbert & Son's new show-room building is well advanced to completion.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Chapman have been visiting friends at Perth the past few days.

Mr. A. Neil has finished burning another large kiln of brick and tile, the third one for this season.

Mr. C. E. Wells, our new baker, has moved his family from Delta and gone to housekeeping.

P. W. Young has recovered from his accident and is able to attend to his business as usual.

The new brick residence of Dr. Gardner is completed.

Mr. Sharpton of Gananoque has secured the contract of carrying the mails from Seeley's Bay and Gananoque, three times per week each way, and will enter on his duties on Nov. 1st.

Mr. H. E. Gage, harness maker, removed last Wednesday into the house owned and formerly occupied by Mr. O. R. Hawkins as a store and dwelling house. He will be pleased to have all his old customers with a lot of new ones call on him at his new place.

was created among the residents of our hamlet on Wednesday morning last, when Miss Jessie Foley and Mr. D. Young of Perth followed were seen driving out in bridal array. Although the event was not altogether unexpected, it appears that but few were on the alert for the sudden pair of wedding bells. The truth of the matter revealed the fact that they had daily started for Brockville where the nuptial knot was to be tied. Your correspondent joins with their friends in wishing them a long life of double happiness and that their united path of industry and economy may, through the blessing of heaven, be rewarded with the riches of life; for it is not the imposing majesty of a sumptuous mansion, nor the hollow glare of gaudy furniture, nor the showy display of diamonds, that makes the happiness of home, but rather the steady exercise of holier charities that soothe earth's sorrows and builds the nest of peace, love, and true enjoyment, which renders sacred the bosom of home.

NEWBORN

MONDAY, Oct. 25th.—The roads are excellent at present. Dr. R. H. Fisher of Athens, formerly of this place, started for home today. The Dr. had a narrow escape a few days ago. When driving his horse out of the yard of the Ontario House, the horse made several plunges, throwing him out. The horse ran down the street and upset the rig, breaking it in several places. The horse was captured and brought back safely.

A number of our young men wheeled to Westport on Sunday. Among them were Messrs. E. W. Pinkerton, G. E. Foster, E. J. Lyons, J. C. Eaton, W. I. Hare, F. C. McNally, R. J. Field, and G. S. Washburn. All report good wheeling.

Mr. Eddie Pinkerton has had the misfortune to break a second front rim to his Cleveland motor.

Mr. E. Chamberlain is on the happy list. It's a boy.

A land owner will be given here in the near future. Revival services are being started here today in the Methodist church. Services will be held twice each day.

Mr. Chas. Lambert of Westport was here today. Charlie is always welcome.

Mr. J. H. Lyons spent Sunday in Delta. Prof. T. P. Kelly is home on a visit this week. He is going to England in the near future.

West Leeds Teachers.

At the annual meeting of the West Leeds Teachers' Association, held at Westport on the 16th and 17th, the following officers were elected: President—Wm. Johnston, M.A. Vice-President—Miss Hinecock. Sec.-Treas.—Mr. Cook. Committee—Messrs. Foster, Parmenter, and Stevens, Messrs. McGuire and Hanna. Delegate to Ontario Association—Mr. Linklater. Auditor—Mr. McColloch.

A Lesson to Young Men.

Whether or not the clerk Ponton, accused of the sensational robbery of the Japanese bank, is guilty, remains to be seen. But one fact stands out in bold relief. It is that the bank manager and the expert police authorities suspected him of the crime from the first, basing their opinion on the fact that he was a young man who was in receipt of a fair salary, yet was living like a miser, and was a borrower, secretly, of bank funds. Here is a hint to other young men in like positions of trust. Let them live within their income, and a month later this warning will be less likely to be tempted to take that which does not belong to them. They will enjoy the respect of their fellows, and will not, if innocent, be likely to be under suspicion when crime is perpetrated in their neighborhood.—London Advertiser.

To Kill Cows. J. S. McCallum, M.D., writing to the Rideau Record, says: I have often heard it said that it is almost impossible to eradicate cow grass (Trifolium repens). Last year I had a couple of acres near my residence that was very full of it, and I determined to get rid of it if possible. The following plan was adopted. Last fall I had the ground ploughed as usual, and early this spring the ground became quite green with the weed. I then had it ploughed under, and a month later this was repeated. At the end of another month, or towards the end of June, I intended ploughing it again, but instead had it very thoroughly harrowed with the spring-toothed harrow, and immediately thereafter I sowed it with wheat. Crop turned out fairly well. Have since had the stubble ploughed and have not been able to discover a live cow grass root. I was on the theory that the root can live if deprived of its top for any great length of time. The season was favorable, as the buckwheat grew very rapidly, thus thoroughly completing the work by smothering out the grass.

The Midnight Sun. The Klondyke Midnight Sun is published at Dawson City, and is a very interesting publication. Price per copy $4.00 or $20.00 per year. In speaking of its new price the Sun says: "The Midnight Sun will hereafter be printed on its own new mammoth printing press, driven by gasoline engine of 16 horsepower. This press and engine has just been built for us by Sandow Smith, our popular blacksmith."

As soon as our red ink, ordered last fall, arrives from San Francisco, we shall print a colored supplement for our Sunday night edition. No expense will be spared to make the Midnight Sun the finest example of advanced journalism north of Galveston.

We are confident that in a few weeks we can offer our readers the full reports of the Associated Press. We note with interest the experiments now being made in telegraphing without wires, and we are already fixing up a receiving station on our roof garden to catch all the late news that may float in the upper air currents. These waves of electrical intelligence will probably have to be tapped out before they can be understood and translated, but we have provided for this by connecting a large coil of wire with our electrical receiving apparatus.

The Midnight Sun is determined to publish all the news that is fit to print and a great deal more.

Notwithstanding predictions to the contrary, the potato crop of this section appears to have been fully up to the average. Choice tubers were sold here last week at 25c per bushel.

A Westport man, who describes himself as an old-fashioned and well-to-do, advertises in the Mirror for a helpmate, who must be fair, not too stout, and fond of music. This is a snip, but don't all speak at once.

Mr. P. J. Shiel of Lyndhurst, general merchant, has announced a grand military opening for Saturday, Oct. 30th, and Monday, Nov. 1st. He has with him a first-class military band and a large and fashionable display may be anticipated.

The name of "Indian Oil," one of the leading proprietary medicines put up by Messrs. J. P. Lamb & Son, has been changed to Poashontas Oil. For the latter name and the trade mark, the name of "Indian Oil" is a copy-righted name. Of course, the character of the Oil remains the same as before.

We have made arrangements by which we are able to offer the Weekly Globe and the Reporter from now until January, 1898, for only $1.50. Of course, this small sum must be paid in advance, and in the case of old subscribers all arrears must be paid in full before advantage can be taken of this offer.

On Tuesday of last week, Mr. Herb. Breese of Newboro, died in Syracuse, N.Y., aged about 25 years. The remains accompanied by his brother, who is in business there, and his mother, were conveyed to Newboro by train. The family, who are widely known in this county, have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

A western newspaper publisher expresses our sentiments in the following request:—Persons knowing themselves indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. And those indebted to this office and not knowing it are requested to call and find out. Those knowing themselves indebted and not wishing to call, are requested to stay in one place long enough for us to call on them. All those who are indebted are requested to call and get indebted.

The Presbyterian church at Morton is growing. At a recent communion service four members were added to the church—Misses Minnie Roddick and Helena Sheffield and Messrs. J. Roanoke and R. H. Somerville. A. C. Cameron, of Athens, his text being Romans, 1 ch., 16th verse. Two children were baptized in the morning at D. H. Manvel's and six in the evening at F. Taber's. Mr. McIntyre, our new pastor, is in charge of the work there this summer.

The shoe-making business carried on by Mr. Wm. Davis having developed very rapidly of late, he last week completed articles by which he takes into partnership a man of experience and ability, Mr. S. Tannin of North Hallowell, and the new firm are now prepared to execute expeditiously and well all orders entrusted with them. They will shortly place in stock a choice and complete line of factory made boots and shoes. In the meantime, they make their best to the public as skilled makers and repairers, and solicit increased patronage.

A few days ago Mrs. Thomas Kerr at Grandby received the sad news that her brother, Mr. Cope of Vancouver, B.C., had been drowned while en route to the Klondyke. He started with a number of others for the gold fields all being well provided and equipped for the journey. They were engaged in crossing a mountain stream when the accident occurred. All had been taken safely over except one, and Mr. Cope was the only one to be lost. The animal lost its footing and fell into the swift current, dragging Mr. Cope with it, and both passed under the ice and beyond the reach of aid.

The date for the annual commencement exercises in connection with the Athens High School has been fixed for Nov. 19th. Rev. W. T. Herdridge of Ottawa, the eminent English scholar and lecturer, will be present and deliver an address. A choice musical and literary programme is being prepared.

Mr. Harper, Elbe Mills, last week, in forty-eight hours, burned out several hundred stumps and roots, all clean, thus fitting 20 to 30 acres of new land for the plow, from which he hopes to get a fine crop of corn and potatoes. Hundreds of stumps on fire at one time forced an old fashioned night scene not often brought to view nowadays.

It is said that when the bicycle was first introduced in India it was not at all an uncommon thing for natives to fall down and worship it. But then even in our own enlightened land, it is not a rare thing for people to fall down before the bicycle, although it cannot with truth be said, if one may judge from their language, that they worship it.

In a game of Rugby football played in Brockville on Saturday last between the local team and the Kingston and the Island City team, the visitors were defeated by 25 points to 6. Several Athenians witnessed the match and it was a very exciting game. Mr. A. E. Fisher, a village, a great admirer of Rugby, was chosen as one of the touchline judges.

A few days ago Brockville constables arrested at his home in Augusta a young man named Samuel James Hanna, charged with seducing Celestia Corvill, under sixteen years of age and daughter of David Corvill of the same township. The prisoner was brought before Police Magistrate Dawson and remanded until the prosecution is ready to proceed with the case. The warrant was sworn out by the complainant, Miss Corvill.

Rev. A. C. Croves of Toronto, general secretary of Epworth League work, delivered an address in the Methodist church on Monday evening before a large audience, composed principally of young people. His words were very encouraging to the Leaguers and to all engaged in Sabbath school work. He received a hearty welcome. The family, who are widely known in this county, have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

Mr. A. James presided over the meeting.

For the first time in twenty years, according to the Times, Mr. G. R. Griffin of Brockville returned home last week from Charleston, S.C., with an empty coat. He said "the fish would not bite," and that statement explains the poor luck of scores of other fishermen as well as his own.

The salmon have been on the shoals for some time, but the catch has been phenomenally small. A well known oarsman last week saw several schools with about a dozen in each and trailed before them a tempting minnow, without result—greatly to the regret of the fisherman, who was in the habit of catching on a goot thing when he sees it is probably due to the fact that the unusually warm weather has brought to the shoals immense numbers of small fry upon which they are feeding.

Good Roads.

The proposed visit of Mr. A. W. Campbell, provincial road instructor, to this district has aroused a great deal of interest in the subject. His dates are given as follows:—Malborough, Monday, Nov. 8, at 3 p.m.; Brockville, Tuesday, all day, address in Victoria Hall in the evening; Athens, Wednesday, all day, address at 2 p.m. in the township hall; Smith's Falls, Thursday, Perth, Friday.

Village Council Meeting.

The Athens municipal council met on Tuesday evening for the appointment of a collector and the transaction of general business.

On motion, the by-law for the appointment of a collector of taxes was introduced, duly read, and passed. Mr. Joseph Kerr receiving the appointment at a salary of $11.

On motion, Chief of Police McLean was requested to pay in to the treasurer all moneys collected by him, and by second resolution he was requested to at once make a thorough inspection of the village in his capacity as fire inspector.

On motion, the clerk was granted a month's leave of absence, he having furnished an acceptable substitute.

On motion, the sum of $25 was placed in the hands of the charity committee.

Council adjourned.

B. LOVERNE, Village Clerk.

New Lot of Shingles—very cheap.—Athens Lumber Yard.

Mr. Cyrus Trickey, who has spent the past summer in Moscow, Asia, has returned to Athens.

A swinging sofa, the latest contrivance for parlor use. It has all the advantages of a hammock, without its perils. Engaged lovers who use it never "fall out."

A movement has been made towards preparing the ground for the skating rink. The indications at present are that Mr. John Malvern will conduct the rink himself this season.

The British Government has decided to give medals to all who took part in the expedition against the Fenian raiders in 1866 and also to those who took part in the Red River expedition.

Those who practice illegal fishing at Charleston Lake this season have to keep a sharp look-out to avoid detection, as Inspector Hicks is receiving the voluntary aid of a large number of Charletonites who are anxious to preserve the fishing.

Two Ottawa drug clerks, with more hardihood than sense, started on a wager to see which of them could swallow the greatest number of a certain pill. One of them got 75 down. A doctor was called in and with difficulty saved both their lives.

Rugby football is proving very popular with the young stalwarts of Athens, and the practices are well attended.

Rugby, usually known as a catching game, says that this village contains material for a good team and it is now probable that a date will be arranged with Gananoque.

The Ontario Government has decided that all who labor in Canadian lumber camps must be Canadians, and that pupils must be purchased in Canada. This clause has been added to the alien labor regulations to meet the demand of the country for retaliation on the Americans.

A morning or so ago a cheese maker in a fact ry not far distant from Kingston was surprised at finding a minnow in the can sent by a certain patron. Instead of informing on the farmer the cheese maker merely intimated that in the future the patron had better strain the milk after having watered it.

Mr. C. C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, says that for some years skimmed milk has been used instead of water for the purpose of mixing with lime for whitewash at the Agricultural College, Guelph. It has been found that whitewash made in this way has wearing qualities almost equal to paint, and that it does not brush off as the ordinary wash is apt to do.

The question of manufacturing cheese in Canada through the month of November was considered at a general meeting of the Montreal Butcher and Cheese Association held recently. It has been decided that the cheese is harmful to the trade and is looked down upon in the English market. It kills the chance of getting good prices for prime cheese which may perhaps have been made in August and held through the Autumn months.

CHANTY

TUESDAY, Oct. 26.—The revival services here continue yet. There is a very large attendance.

H. C. Smith is moving this week to his farm in Plum Hollow. Mr. Smith and family will be much missed. Some of the neighbors gave them a farewell supper on Saturday night.

Miss Mattie Ripley, Westport, is the guest of Mrs. E. W. Shelton and other friends.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. B. Fowler and also to Mr. and Mrs. W. Young upon the arrival of a daughter to each.

MALLORETOWN

Dr. Beaman spent Monday last with his mother at Centerville, Ont.

Mr. Leman Guild has taken up his abode in the Methodist church on Monday last week. He has a position in the Whig office.

Mr. John Brown of Riverside lost five stacks of hay by bush fires.

Mr. Sarah Mulholland of Galt, Ont., is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Miss Martha Shaw of Brockville was the guest of Robert Noonan last week.

Mr. John C. Waterous and wife of Waterous Bay spent Sunday last at W. I. Mallory's.

When you see a man that is ready to mount the Temperance house or the Patron's horse, or any other horse that comes in his reach, you will always find such a man worth watching, for he is sure to have some selfish motive in view.

According to our commercial advisers from New York, the business situation is fairly satisfactory, though not as good as was expected in many lines. Collections are reported as "tight" in several directions. There is an advance in glass, window glass and hard. Prospects are generally encouraging.

The Spanish Cabinet is said to be divided as to the attitude it should assume towards the United States.

The international sailing conference, in which Great Britain declined to take part, opened at Washington.

The Chief Minister William at Wiesbaden, and was very cordially received. After luncheon the Earl returned to Darmstadt.

It is understood that the Spanish Government will protest against filibustering expeditions from the United States, and will hold that Government responsible for a breach of international law.

The Madrid Imperial, protesting against filibustering parties for Cuba from the United States, says it is impossible for Spain to submit to such humiliations. The Government must act with energy towards Washington.

The Great English Remedy.

Do people buy Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to any other,—in fact almost to the exclusion of all others?

They know from actual use that Hood's is the best, i.e., it cures when others fail. Hood's Sarsaparilla is still made under the personal supervision of the distinguished pharmacist who originated it.

The question of best is just as positively decided in favor of Hood's as the question of comparative value.

Another thing: Every advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla is true, is honest.
