THE MARKETS

Although the rain has done considerable damage throughout the county the garden stuff has thrived through it all, and the local market has been stocked this year better than it has ever been. Fred Collins, a local gardener, says that he never saw a year that the markets have been better than this year.

The berry season is now about over. Red raspberries are already becoming very scarce, and cabbage is coming in quite freely now, as are also potatoes. Not much change is noticed in the prices. Eggs were offered in abundant quantities this morning, but no butter at all was offered.

Following is the full price list:

MUCH EXCITEMENT

All the excitement in the city yesterday seemed to centre in the vicinity of the Fifth street bridge. A house on a wagon pulled by several teams, under the direction of Bud Gibson, furnished fun during the afternoon, and at night the reported cry of "Man in the river," caused all kinds of a sensation. Yesterday Bud Gibson elevated one of the little ratty, along in splendid shape, till the chimney fouled the telegraph wires and the bricks rattled down. Caleb Montgomery was so interested in the operation that he didn't notice the disaster till one of the bricks caught him on the head and retired him to the bench for some minutes. One team got tangled in the telegraph pole and tried to pull it out by the roots. About this time Bud Gibson noticed that his team was pulling the whole house. Then Bud made an effort to stop his team, as he didn't want his powerful Clydes to do all the work, while the owners of the other horses drew the same money as he did. Finally the tangle was straightened out, and the little red house set into Chatham township.

Chief Holmes said this morning that he once was deluged with notices of bicycle thefts, but now it is watches that are being stolen, and every mail that brings notices of time pieces that have been taken without leave. This morning's mail brought in the operation of an American Waltham, Hunting case, gold movement, No. 1143521.

The name H. R. Ryan was engraved on the case. The other watch was on the stolen in Cleveland. It was a Hunt-stolen in Cleveland. It was a Hunt-stolen in Cleveland. It was a Hunt-stolen in Cleveland.

The monogram A. Boyd was on this watch.

GROWLER LOCALS.

The little German Band struck the city yesterday.

Sore heels started for the beet fields this morning.

That sea serpent cuts out all fish stories for the season.

We're waiting to hear of some school trustee going fishing and catching a sea lion or a cold.

FALSE ALARM

The cry of "man in the river!" aroused everybody who happened to be in the vicinity of the Fifth street bridge last evening about 10 o'clock and for 15 minutes there was a big crowd and lots of excitement. Fortunately the alarm proved a false one. Some boys sitting on the park saw some black object moving in the water. They were not quite sure whether it was Charlie Williams' sea serpent or the body of a man.

Finally the lad's imagination made out the figure of a man in the dark mass. One of the lads decided to keep it in sight while the other gave the alarm.

Officer Groves and Fireman Pritchard were sitting in front of the Garner Hotel when a boy came over. The men at once hurried over. The hook and ladder truck, with Chief Pritchard, Firemen Alex. Holmes, Hector Johnson, Jos. Side, and John Graham was soon at the scene of the supposed accident.

With the aid of the pike pole Officer Groves pulled the black thing that had been the cause of all the commotion to shore. It proved to be a sailing water soaked at one end and caused it to be mistaken for the body of a man.

BASEBALL

The Anchors and Draders played a three innings game last evening on the Draders, resulting in favor of the Draders by a score of 9 to 5.

Smith's double play, unassisted, was the only feature of the game. Joe Robert handled the indicator and gave splendid satisfaction.

Batteries, McGarry and Head for Anchors, Wilson and Pappet for Draders.

The score: Draders..... 9
 Anchors..... 5

The 24th Regiment Band and Grays played at six o'clock this evening and an exciting game is expected.

"Rube" Waddell has struck out 53 men in the last seven games.

The Boston Bloomer Girls will play the local baseball club here on Aug. the 9th.

SOMEWHAT SULTRY

The Planet received an interesting souvenir by mail this morning. It came, we suspect, from an esteemed citizen, who is now enjoying a well-earned summer vacation.

Like all other sagacious and progressive citizens, this gentleman arranged to have his copy of this great home journal forwarded to him every day at his summer home in Macatawa Park, leaving instructions to have it sent via Holland, Michigan.

These instructions were promptly transmitted from the Planet's circulation department, but the young compositor who superintended the mailing list evidently got a little tangled on the route—or was not sufficiently acquainted with the esteemed subscriber and his summer destination.

As a result, this great home journal arrived mauling address, carefully clipped from The Planet's wrapper, and reading boldly as follows:—

G—, J. S.
 Macatawa Park,
 Via Bell and Michigan.

All of which goes to show how a small space sometimes makes a— of a lot—well,
