"THORNS AND ORANGE BLOSSOMS."

Brisco Opera House to-night.
"Thorns and Orange Blossoms" has been dramatized by Lem B. Parker, and is among the attractions exploited by Rowland & Clifford. The dramatization of this popular novel is new, and surely was a happy inspiration of the playwright, as its presentation by a good company has won the hearty approval of the audiences everywhere. "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" as a novel is a beautiful story and has been so widely read and re-read by lovers of a sweet story that comments on the production of "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" on the stage are superfluous. The play abounds in pathos and mirth, and the actors who assume the roles in this pretty play are well fitted to their parts and certainly do justice to their respective roles.

"My Wife's Family," a sparkling musical farce comedy, the work of Stephens and Linton, will be the attraction at the Brisco Opera House Tuesday, March 5th. The comedy is in three acts of uproarious fun, music and amusing entertainment furnished by clever comedians, pretty girls, who are allotted many catchy and dancing numbers, that are sure to bring home to the audience the fact that a play that is clean, wholesome, and being devoid of all horse play and suggestiveness too often found in the lighted forms of entertainment offered to the theatre-going public. A number of interesting and novel vaudeville specialties are introduced during the action of the play by various members of the company. The company presenting "My Wife's Family" was selected for each person's natural ability to assume the various characters assigned to them, with the result—one of the best drilled organizations on the road to-day. Clever comedians, and

NOTED MAN DEAD

Famous Founder of the Order of Foresters Passes Away At Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., March 4.—Hon. Dr. Oronhyatekha of Toronto died at the Desoto Hotel, in this city, at 5.20 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

His death was due to heart failure, from which, it was stated, he had been a sufferer for about ten years.

His body will be sent immediately to Toronto for burial, leaving here early to-day.

At the bedside of Dr. Oronhyatekha at the time of his death were his private secretary, W. W. Dunlop of Toronto, and A. E. Stevenson of Port Huron, Mich., assistant general manager of the Independent Order of Foresters, of which Dr. Oronhyatekha was supreme chief ranger.

Dr. Oronhyatekha's son, Dr. Ackland Oronhyatekha of Toronto, who had been notified of his father's critical condition, has started south from Toronto. He will probably meet the remains en route.

Dr. Oronhyatekha arrived in Savannah in the latter part of January, coming in the hope that his health would be benefited. He seemed to rally at times, and recently gave out an interview, in which he expressed the belief that the climate would prove beneficial.

Dr. Oronhyatekha is survived by his son and daughter, Mrs. Percy Johnson of Deseronto, and it is probable that his remains will be interred in that place by the side of those of his wife, who died several years ago.

While in Savannah, Dr. Oronhyatekha received the very best medical attention. It was not until Thursday that his condition became serious. He was reported to be dying Friday, so that the end Saturday afternoon was not unexpected.

Dr. Oronhyatekha was a prominent member of the Order of Foresters, of which Dr. Oronhyatekha was supreme chief ranger.

Dr. Oronhyatekha's son, Dr. Ackland Oronhyatekha of Toronto, who had been notified of his father's critical condition, has started south from Toronto. He will probably meet the remains en route.
