...Gospel Temperance meetings, conducted by members of the W. C. T. U. are held every Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, in the vestry of the Methodist church. All are welcome.

Here and There.

The following significant message has been received at Headquartens. President World's W. C. T. U., The Yem

We join prayers and influence to your, to avert greatest calamity possible to the world, a var between nations in whose history is involved the highest hopes of humanity. God grant we may ata united everywhere. LADY HENRY SOMERSET.

The National Congress of Colored Women which met in Atlanta; Ga, December 27, and continued in session over Sunday, is remarkable as being the first of its kind in the history of this country. Representative colored women from eighteen different states were in attendance and a permanent organization was effected with Mrs Lucy Thurman, W. C. T. U. National superintendent of work among colored people, as president. The topics discussed prove that the was effected with Mrs Lucy Thurman, W. O. T. U. National superintendent of work among colored people, as president. The topics discussed prove that the power which evolves the "new woman" tusing the term in its best sense) is no respecter of color. Among the speakers were. Mrs Booker T. Washington and Mrs F. E. W. Harper. Frederick Douglas memorial services were held on Sunday afternoon, at which Mrs Fanny Williams, of Chicago, was the chief speaker.

Roman Catholic young women of Danbury, Conn., have formed a society of members piedged not to marry a man who is not a strict abstainer. The only wonder is that this measure of self-presection is not carried out by young women of common sense in every line of life. They should no more run the risk of marrying a drinking man than they regularly.
