

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may know about. The editor must depend on the parties interested to supply items for this page. Don't hesitate to send personals concerning yourself and your family, we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here if you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the office was informed of the item. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Meetings, or Societies, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 10 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, counting six words as a line. No advertisement less than 50c.

For sale—One 15 gallon steel cask, complete with tap, for only $3.00.

C. E. Allen of Hartland will cut hair for 25 cents. On Saturday for 35 cents. 16-c.

500 lb. Fairbanks-Morse Government tested platform scales are only $25.00 at Rigby's Hardware.

Miss Myrtle Trites of Caribou has returned to Hartland and has taken a position as stenographer with C. E. Rideout.

Another big pumpkin—It grew in Everett Green's garden at Foreston and weighed 46 pounds and measured 50x50 1/4 inches.

The Union Praying Band of Hartland will hold services at Cloverdale next Sunday at 10.30 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Britton announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Queenie V., to Mr. Gage M. Montgomery. The marriage to take place in the near future.

Mrs. Belle Hayward and her three children have returned to Hartland, Me., for a short time before leaving for her home in Scotland, where she intends to remain for an indefinite time.

Changes in the C., P. R. timetable which went into effect on Monday are as follows: The express coming north is due at 2 p.m., and the accommodation coming south is due at 10.35. These are the only changes.

John Murdoch brought to our office a sample cucumber of the variety grown in his garden. This one was 12 inches long and 10 1/4 inches in circumference and weighed 2 lbs., 13 ozs. It with three of its sisters weighed nine pounds.

A chapter of the I. O. D. E. is being organized in Hartland. Mrs. H. F. McLeod, Provincial Regent of the order met a number of ladies that are interested at the home of Mrs. S. S. Miller on Monday afternoon. There were about a dozen present and a charter is being sent for.

Rally Day was observed in the Methodist Sunday school as is usual every year. The special program for the day was carried out. Beside this the superintendent, Mr. Amasa Plummer, who attended the World's Sunday School Convention held in Glasgow in June, gave an account of the convention and a very interesting description of his travels in Europe.

One of the best pictures ever made, based on the heroism of firemen, will be shown at the Neighborhood Theatre Thursday. The Fox version of "Cupid's Fireman," from a story by Richard Harding Davis, tells a remarkable narrative and offers thrill after thrill from start to finish. Charles Jones and Marian Nixon have the leading roles and are supported by an excellent cast.

Rigby's Hardware for motor. oil.

Red Cross will meet tomorrow at 2.30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Currie.

Rev. P. J. Quigg is now holding special services in the Primitive Baptist church at Canterbury.

Mrs. G. L. Churchill of Woodstock was the guest several days last week of Mrs. William McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Flemming of Jasper are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a young son, born Sept. 30.

Take notice of the fine display of all-wool underwear, and fleece-lined, shown in the window of Hartland Clothing Store. 16-1c.

Miss Robina Sipprell, R. N., returned to Norfolk, Conn., Friday, having been called away sooner than she expected by the serious illness of her patient.

Mrs. Sandy Gould and daughter Etta, of Kingman, Me., were guests last week of Mrs. George Raymond and other friends at Middle Simonds and of Mrs. D. Shaw at Somerville.

Charles Palmer of Waterville is having a wonderful yield of potatoes. He is getting 180 barrels from the acre, and nine of these potatoes picked at random weighed 14 lbs. They are from certified seed.

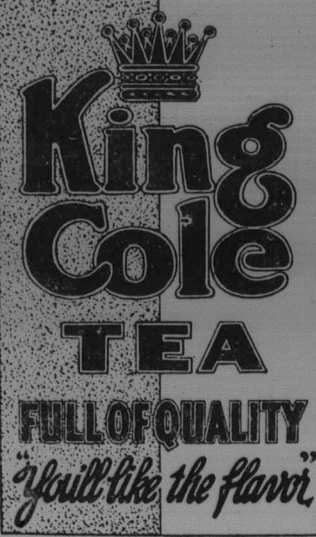

Yesterday at Beaufort the funeral took place of the two-year-old child of Hugh Lee. Services conducted by Rev. W. P. Haigh. The death occurred Sunday in the Fisher Memorial Hospital following an operation for appendicitis.

Rev. J. M. Mallory returned Tuesday from Yarmouth, N. S., after a short business trip in connection with the P. B. churches in that province. Mr. Mallory reports ideal weather, as well as an enjoyable and successful trip to and from the Land of Evangeline.

There is a powerful lesson for penny-pinching merchants who pay their workers so little that sometimes the latter are driven to steal, in Norma Talmadge's gripping photodrama, "Within the Law," which is the current cinema sensation at the Neighborhood theatre on Saturday.

On September 22 a number of the people of Stickney gathered at the home of Rev. H. V. and Mrs. Bragdon previous to their leaving to make their home in Woodstock. The evening was very enjoyably spent with music and singing, and a sumptuous buffet luncheon was served. Rev. and Mrs. Bragdon were presented with a nice purse of money. The presentation was made by Marvin Shaw to which Mr. Bragdon feelingly replied. Many expressed their regrets as to losing one that the tie of fellowship had bound so closely together for the past five years, and wished them success and happiness in their new home at Woodstock.

Rigby's for manilla clothesline rope.

Rev. Thos. and Mrs. Pierce visited their daughters in Woodstock several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Faulkner arrived home Tuesday. They had been spending the summer in Portland.

Rev. H. V. Bragdon has removed from Stickney and is now located at Upper Woodstock. Telephone 13-31.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Teddie arrived home Monday from Skiff Lake and St. John, where they had spent their honeymoon.

Rev. C. N. and Mrs. Barton of Mouth of Keswick were guests at the home of Mrs. Barton's father, A. F. Campbell, last week.

Evangelist F. W. Foster of Fort Fairfield will hold services on Sunday, Oct. 5, as follows: Mt. Pleasant, 10.30; Knowlesville, 2.30; Windsor, 7.30.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goulo of Havelock, N. B., were week-end guests of their daughter, Miss Annie Kingston, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor.

Postmaster J. E. MacCollum is confined to his bed with an attack of the old-fashioned gripe. Mrs. MacCollum who has been ill for a long time had a very bad turn on Sunday, but she is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foster of Bangor, who have been guests of Mr. Foster's sister, Mrs. A. L. Baird, Hartland, and other friends in Woodstock, have returned home. They came by car and have been having a most delightful time visiting at different places.

There is being held this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock a meeting in the town hall under the auspices of the Red Cross for the purpose of organizing Home Nursing Classes. Miss Hamilton of Toronto, the organizer in this work, is present and is giving an address. These classes are open for members of the Women's Institute or any other organization along these lines besides the Red Cross.

Rigby's Hardware for school supplies.

NOTICE TO ALL BAPTIST WOMEN OF CARLETON CO.

The Baptist women of the Maritime Provinces have pledged themselves to raise $50,000 for Acadia College to help train young men and women for some definite Christian work. Every Baptist woman will be canvassed and asked to contribute so be prepared with your gift. We have just one month in which to raise this amount. a central committee at Hartland already laying plans to take a census of the women of this district.

ON HOME NURSING TRIP

Miss R. E. Hamilton, R. N., Toronto organizer for home nursing classes for the Red Cross, is on another short tour in the province to visit various centres. She will be in Andover and Perth and will meet the members of the Kilburn branch of the Red Cross Society, and will go to Hartland and Woodstock, returning to St. John by way of Fredericton. In her trips through the province she has found the people eager for the opening of the home nursing classes, and greatly interested in the work of the society.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and relatives for the kindness shown us in our recent sad bereavement, also for the beautiful flowers and singing.

Mrs. Hanford Green and family. And sisters as follows: Mrs. George Shore Mrs. Henry Good Mrs. John Trafford Mrs. Watters Mrs. Thos. Bell.

PIANO FOR SALE

A piano for sale. Has had good care and is in the best of condition. Enquire at THE OBSERVER OFFICE.

WHY?

Mr. Merchant, WHY do you expect people to force their way into your store without an invitation? Why do you expect people to trade-at-home without the Invitation?

The Mail Order Houses spend Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars yearly asking people here and elsewhere to trade with them. They give a CONTINUAL INVITATION!

The Observer

is one of the best mediums in Northwestern New Brunswick through which to convey to the public

YOUR INVITATION

The Observer has proved its power to seel the goods, to buy the goods and even to get a man a wife!

The Observer has the Circulation. It can do the work if You Give It the Chance!

PEOPLE DESIRE TO BE INVITED!

THEATRE PROGRAMS

A WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION
Charles Jones in

Cupid's Fireman

with strong supporting cast. Also short subjects

HARTLAND, THURSDAY, OCT. 2
CENTREVILLE, SATURDAY, OCT. 4

A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION

Within the Law

featuring Norma Talmage, from Bayard Veiller's famous play, directed by Frank Lloyd
Also Larry Semon Comedy "Babes and Boobs"

HARTLAND, SATURDAY, OCT. 4
CENTREVILLE, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8