GATES' ACADIAN LINIMENT

For Internal and External Use.

A few drops in a cup of hot water, well sweetened, makes a pleasant drink and is the best remedy for COUGHS AND COLDS.

After a cold winter's drive, a seat by the fire and a cup thus prepared will be highly prized.

As an application for cuts, bruises, sore throat, croup, burns, headache, rheumatism, etc., Gates' Acadian Liniment is the Best Because Strongest.

Hence a certain quantity lasts longer than of other Liniments beside giving better satisfaction. It will also remove the "black and blue" from bruises when other Liniments fail.

It is equally useful for Horses, and hundreds of stables and liverymen keep it constantly on hand, for scratches, sprains, swellings, coughs, distemper and other ailments of their horses and cattle. For colic 1-2 of a bottle given in a bottle of milk or water is a speedy and positive cure.

Athletes have found Gates' Acadian Liniment excellent for a rub down. It is sold everywhere, at 25 cts. in 6-oz. bottles, each fitted with a rubber cork to preserve all the strength.

Salvation Army Praise

"I feel it my duty to testify to the benefit I have received from the use of Psychine. While travelling in New Ontario conducting special meetings I contracted a very bad cold, which gradually developed into Bronchitis of the worst form. I was advised to try Psychine, which I did, and after using but a few bottles I was completely restored to health. I recommend this wonderful remedy to sufferers from Bronchitis and other troubles."

Later: "I wish to add that my voice, since using Psychine, is stronger and has much more carrying power than it had before I had bronchitis, and the vocal chords do not tire with speaking."

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NOR. W. WEST.

Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub Agency for the district in which the land is situated. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1). At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2). A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3). If the father (or mother if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4). The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5). A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

TORN TO PIECES

BY TIMBER WOLVES

WINNIPEG, Thursday. — A Galician boy named Goggie was torn to pieces by timber wolves near Fulton Mills, eighteen miles north of Canora, Sask. The boy was playing near his father's cabin. The victim's cries attracted assistance, but before the pack could be driven off the boy's body was incinerated in a horrible manner. Wolves are very numerous and ravenous this year.

One topic of conversation has ousted all others in the German capital—everybody is talking about the beauty of the Englishwoman.

The exhibition of old English portrait painters now being held here set the ball rolling, and the newspapers did the rest.

Amid a chorus of praises and compliments one hears the question: "How does she come to be so beautiful?" and the generally accepted solution to the problem is that the climate and the wholesome food are responsible for the charm of her complexion, while an outdoor life and liking for sport give sweep to her figure and grace to her movements.

One writer indulges in reminiscences of the little red house on the fringe of the wood and the green lawn in front of it, on which the women are playing tennis.

Their movements are so free and easy, their limbs and joints so flexible, their nerves so calm and their muscles so strong that the onlooker sees but the poetry of motion.

This "tennis girl" he tells his readers, may be a poor typewriter girl or the daughter of a duchess.

Then he recalls the sunny May in a country lane and his meeting there a lady in a dogcart, driving a smart pony with the comfort and ease of a trainer and the grace of a queen.

He reviews the sportsman and the woman who thinks nothing of a long cross-country tramp in the forenoon, and who may be seen in Bond street, in the afternoon one of the fashionable throng, or indulging in a little flirtation with an immaculately dressed admirer in one of the fashionable tea shops.

This adaptability and many-sidedness of her life is another thing which excites the German's wonder and admiration. He cannot understand how she can be equally a lady in the saddle or in the drawing room.

He might even wish to marry her if she would love him, but he is afraid she would prove somewhat expensive.

Yet his experience of young wives who have lived in the colonies makes him modify this view somewhat.

They have learned, he remembers, to endure hardships side by side with their husbands, and they have come home as tender and womanly as though they had never known a danger nor borne the heat of the tropical day.

Nay, their experience has made them say, more womanly, for it has melted the icy crust and the cool distance which English ladies always observe in the society of men.

One shadow creeps into the beautiful picture. The frauenrechtlerin, or suffragette is a type of English lady entirely beyond the German's comprehension.

NOW IS BEST

TIME TO TAKE.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to cure almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach.

While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug store of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

The Moncton fireman are to get an increase of ten dollars per year.

The St. John master painters having refused to grant the journeymen the extra 25 cents per day they asked the men went on strike Wednesday morning. The present wage of the painters is $2.25 and $2.50 is being asked.

The committee appointed recently to look into the question of cheaper school books, have written to Gage & Co., of Toronto, asking them to cut the prices for New Brunswick so as to make them equal with those paid in Ontario. Upon the answer received to this request depends further action which may be taken.
