LIVER COMPLAINT.

The liver is the largest gland in the body; its office is to take from the blood the properties which form bile. When the liver is torpid and inflamed it cannot furnish bile to the bowels, causing them to become bound and constive. The symptoms are a feeling of fullness or weight in the right side, and shooting pains in the same region, pains between the shoulders, yellowness of the skin and eyes, bowels irregular, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, etc.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

are pleasant and easy to take, do not grip, weaken or sicken, never fail in their effects, and are by far the safest and quickest remedy for all diseases or disorders of the liver.

Price 25 cents, or 2 bottles for $1.00, all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MILLIONS OF CO-OPERATORS.

The co-operators of the British Isles number nearly 2,250,000. The capital invested in their societies, without counting reserves, has reached a total of more than £36,500,000, or more than $180,000,000. Their net profits for the year amounted to nearly £10,350,000. Their annual sale business of nearly £92,000,000, or $460,000,000, reminds me of the figures of the national budget, not to say of astronomical calculations.

They have stores by the thousand; they employ people by the hundred thousand; they own workshops and plantations, and are, generally, the most flourishing of national concerns. And, broadly speaking, they are all workingmen.

What a difference, says K. A. D. Whiteing, in the Youth's Companion, between all this and the first gathering of co-operators at Rochdale, in Lancashire, some sixty years ago, when the modern movement was first started! They met in a little shanty, which, in the extant picture of it, looks like something belonging to the file of the dawn of the race. They agreed to start a co-operative store and to raise the needful capital of £8 by subscription of two-pence and three pence a week.

A new co-operative store is now started with the greatest ease. The whole system of procedure is perfectly known, and at every stage of it there is full guidance in precedent. The people who want to open the store subscribe the capital in shares of from $5 to $20. No one person may hold more than $1,000 in shares. Any one may become a member on paying a small entrance fee; any one may purchase without being a member. Shareholders may put up their shares at the rate of three pence a week, or they may borrow the full sum required at moderate interest. The share, however, as such cannot earn more than 5 per cent. To get the full benefit of membership you must be a purchaser and divide profits.

The object of this is to keep the store a democratically managed concern and to save it from the tyranny of the capitalist. No matter what the amount of his investment, each member has only one vote in the management. Those who merely lend money to supply the capital—and this is sometimes done—have no controlling voice. They take their interest, and there is an end to it.

DOCTORS USING PATENT MEDICINES

The Honest Physician is Anxious to Cure and Uses the Best Available Remedies.

The proposed legislation through the Dominion Parliament for the regulation of the manufacture and sale of patent or proprietary medicines is of the utmost importance, and it is receiving a great deal of attention, not only by the proprietary medicine manufacturers, but also by the leading doctors and druggists. Every manufacturer of reliable and high class remedies welcomes the bill as a step in the right direction. The discussion has brought out the fact that the best physicians in Canada and on the continent approve of and prescribe Psychine in cases of the most difficult character. In a recent instance of very serious throat and lung trouble the patient had been using Psychine. Two leading United States specialists were consulted, in addition to two eminent Canadian physicians. Upon learning that the patient was using a sample of Psychine was taken and analyzed, with the result that the physicians advised its continuance. They prescribed no other medicine but Psychine, with the result that the patient has fully recovered and is a splendid walking and talking advertisement for the wonderful curative power of a remedy that will "stand up" before the keenest professional criticism and analysis. As a builder up of the system and restorer of all wasted conditions, Psychine has no equal, and the best and most earnest physicians recognize this fact.

"At the age of 25 my lungs were in a terrible state. I had a grippe the year before; it settled on my lungs and I kept steadily growing worse. I got down so low I was in bed for six weeks. I had a consultation of doctors, and they said they could do nothing more for me. Then I started to use Psychine. I took the medicine for more than a year. It certainly did wonders for me. I am now as strong as I was before my sickness."

MRS. H. ROYE, Morphet, Ont.

Psychine, pronounced Si-keen, is the greatest of tonics, building up the system, increasing the appetite, purifying the blood, aids digestion, and acts directly upon the throat and lungs, giving tone and vigor to the entire system. At all druggists, 50c. and $1.00. Dr. T. A. Sloum, Limited, 179 King Street West, Toronto.

DIES FOR BENEFACTOR.

Black Snake said to have Saved the life of a man who befriended it.

The following snake story comes from Arnaught township, Penn.—When Edward Houghton, of that township, was preparing late last fall to do some threshing he discovered a black snake coiled about the cylinder of the machine, the reptile being exhausted by its efforts to escape. Houghton found that one of the spikes of the cylinder had passed entirely through the snake's body and was holding it firmly to the cylinder. The moment the machine should start the helpless serpent would be torn to shreds.

Houghton was never in love with a snake and generally killed them where he came in contact with them, but the helpless condition of this one appealed to his sympathies and he liberated it, forgetting the incident and being none the wiser but it had probably died from its injuries.

A few days ago he was working at some machinery, and just as a wrench slipped from a bolt he was trying to loosen and threw him on the ground he heard the warning buzz of a rattler. Upon looking up the prostrate man saw the venomous ophidian's head within a few inches of his face and coiled ready to strike. He turned cold with horror, but before he could move a muscle there was swish through the air in the opposite direction and a large black snake twined itself in the coils of the rattler.

The rattler was short but terrible, and in a remarkably short space of time the rattler straightened out and gave up the ghost. The black snake made a feeble effort to reach Mr. Houghton's side, but was too weak, and in a few moments had succumbed to injuries sustained in the combat. Upon turning it over Houghton found that his ophidian preserver was the same snake he had befriended six months before, the marks of the injury being plainly visible.

The rattler was three feet six inches long and had twelve rattles and a button. Upon skinning it, he found that almost every bone in its body was broken.

Mr. Houghton will preserve the body of the black snake in alcohol as a memento of his kindness to the reptile and the latter gratitude in which life was the price paid.

Let me mail you free, to prove mer samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or the Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. "Troubles of the Stomach, Heart, or Kidneys," are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and the Kidneys as well have their controlling nerves. Weaken these and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. BAD OUTLOOK FOR MONTREAL

Montreal, May 20.—Montreal may lose some of its shipping owing to strike of longshoremen. Shipping companies today announced that they had made arrangements to make other ports, their port of lading. Other shippers refuse definite information but it is understood that Halifax, St. John, and Portland are three that will be most used in case strike continues to tie up the port. There is hope, however, for advertisement calling for men and 24 cents an hour increase has led to engagement of a good many more. C. P. R. announces that it has three hundred men at work and these are all they need. Reford and Co., have five ships in port, and are all being discharged a little, but the work is not satisfactory, and freight cars miles in length are awaiting discharge into vessels. Men met this morning again, as men, but not as a union. Only about ten per cent of the men are union men. They again decided to hold out for full five cents an hour. Warrants for 14 of the strikers were issued under city bylaw for breach of contract but none for breach of Lemieux Act.

ONE MILLION CHINESE ARE STARVING

Whole families dead Side by Side—Parents Sell their Children for a Meal

Boston, May 20.—"Not less than 1,000,000 people must die and it is not improbable that four times that number will starve," is the declaration contained in a report on the famine situation in China, made by Rev. John R. Hykas, agent of the American Bible Society at Shanghai. The report was made public last night. Mr. Hykas says that "with the food at present at hand and in sight the relief committee can keep 100,000 persons alive until the end of June, when it is hoped they will have at least a partial crop."

Mr. Hykas reports as follows: "The country has been denuded of every thing green. Roots of grass and weeds have been dug out of the frozen ground for food and the bark stripped from the trees and eagerly devoured. The more fortunate are able to buy bean-cake (ordinarily sold as a fertilizer), or a mixture of leaves and sweet potato vines, and for these they pay more than the price of the flour in normal years. Domestic animals, cats, dogs, donkeys and cattle, are devoured as soon as they die.

"Children are offered for sale or deserted by their parents and left to starve. A missionary reports a case where a little girl of ten or twelve years, was sold by her father for two bowls of rice. Others tell of parents deliberately throwing their children into the river, preferring to see them drown rather than suffer the pangs of slow starvation. Whole families have been found dead. The suffering are indescribable.

"A very conservative estimate of the population of the afflicted area is 15,000,000. The cause of the famine was excessive rains, which fell almost without intermission for nearly 100 days."

"Maritime" wire fences are stronger than ordinary wire fences. Made from High Carbon and Hard Drawn steel wire, specially imported from England on account of its superior galvanizing. "Maritime" fences are from 75% to 100% stronger than common wire fences. Sturdy enough and sufficiently high to hold the largest stock. "Maritime" wire fence is still woven small enough to keep in small animals.

The absolute regularity of the weaving, equally distributes any strain or pressure which may occur. "Maritime" wire fences are always taut.
