

GOETZ HAD TO PAY $50

For Keeping Bar Open to Accommodate Warden's Guests.

John Nevilles Acquitted of Charge of Stealing Scrap.

Wages and Other Cases Before the Police Magistrate.

John Nevilles, who was committed for trial on Friday on the charge of stealing copper wire, for which offence three men have been sent down, was up at the Police Court this morning on a charge of stealing several bags of scrap and rubbers, but was acquitted, as there was no evidence to convict him. Mr. Starrett, watchman at the Steel & Iron Company, said that he saw a man on Sept. 17, late at night, carrying some bags from the G. T. R. yards, and he later saw Nevilles standing near the bags, and spoke to him, but Nevilles made a threat to knock his block off. He could not say that Nevilles was the man who carried the bags. Goldberg, scrap dealer, told of missing the bags from a car, and Constable Campbell told of recovering them, but nothing more could be found to connect Nevilles with the case, and he was acquitted. George S. Kerr appeared for him.

A. A. Goetz, Franklin House, was up on the charge of keeping his bar open after hours, and pleaded guilty through George S. Kerr. Mr. Kerr said it was his client's first offence, and that he kept the bar open for the Warden's guests to get their horse checks after the banquet, and several others drifted in. The Magistrate fined Goetz $50.

Charles Jones, 243 Catharine street north, had a racket on the market on Saturday afternoon with a colored man, and it ended up with the latter being knocked through a door in a store. Constable Brannon arrested Jones and had a tussle with him and William Bedell, 36 York street, but with a little kindly advice for the constable, he was released, and the men were fined $5 and $10 respectively this morning, pleading guilty to the charges of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer.

It took "the whole lot of men" to put James Cuddy, Woodburn, out of the Dominion Hotel on Saturday night, the Magistrate was told, and he broke a window and assaulted William Hunter while going out. It cost him $5 this morning.

Harry Cummings was up on this day one month ago, and told to appear to go to jail, after pleading guilty to stealing $15 from his boarding house mistress, came up to do with him, as it was fully expected that he would take the hint and "vamoose." He was further remanded, to come when called upon for sentence.

William Belack was sued by J. McNair, Mountain top, for $10.25 wages. Belack contested the claim, and said that he owed the complainant only $5, and he put in receipts to prove this. McNair and his wife said that they had neither of them signed receipts for more than $11, and that $10.25 was due. The Magistrate suggested that both sides bring witnesses to-morrow, as he looked as if there was a forgery some place. McNair some time ago appeared in court against some Italians who lived in the same house as he did on the mountain. McNair and his wife kept the court in roars of laughter at the expense of the defendant, and J. W. (who claims he paid the disputed $5.25).

H. Hennessey and Geo. Brand were each fined $5 for being drunk on Sunday. G. W. Brock and Frances Bond were each fined $2 for being drunk on Saturday.

HAD A BANQUET.

Honored the Manager of Hamilton Steamboat Company.

The Steamer Macassa, of the Hamilton Steamboat Company's line, completed the most successful season in the history of the company Saturday night. The Canada Railway New Co., the caterers of the line who so successfully conducted the lunch counter, news stands and dining rooms, on the Modjeska and Macassa this year, tendered a banquet to the officers and employees of the company. It was very well carried out in the officers' mess, where all the officers of the steamers and staff of the Toronto and Hamilton offices were present. A pleasant feature of the occasion was a presentation of a handsome travelling bag by the employees to their popular Manager, Mr. Bishop, who in a few well chosen words expressed his thanks. After doing justice to the good things provided, and after the usual speech making, the event concluded about midnight with the singing "God Save the King."

PRICE OF BASKETS.

Fruit and Vegetable Growers Object to Increase.

At the annual meeting of the Hamilton branch of the Ontario Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Association held here on Saturday afternoon considerable feeling over the increase made in the price of baskets was shown. Last year the growers paid from $2 to $4 per thousand for them and next year they will cost $5. The growers, however, say they have an offer from one firm to supply baskets at a cheaper figure than was paid for them this year.

The auditors' report showed a balance of $135, and the local branch has a membership of 55. Arrangements will be made for a series of horticultural lectures.

Officers were elected for the year as follows:

President—R. H. Lewis, Barton.
Vice-President—W. W. Drummond, Millgrove.
Secretary—Thomas Tregunno, Bartonville.

R. H. Lewis and W. E. Emery, Aldershot, were appointed representatives to the Ontario Association.

Resides the officers the Executive Committee consists of William H. Smith, John Lewis and John Burton, for Ancaster Township; W. A. Emory, Wm. Herod, the Plains and Burlington; George Arvey, Frank Crookwaite, Bartonville; E. J. Mahoney, Andrew Weir, Barton.

A special meeting will be held shortly to discuss the question of fixing the price for tomatoes.

"THE FINEST."

Great Attractions at Britannia Rink This Week.

The management of the Britannia Amusement Company's mammoth roller skating rink, Barton street east, has secured at considerable expense for the amusement of patrons the world's famous fancy roller skaters, Prof. Chas. Tyler, assisted by Miss Bessie Berton, who will appear each evening and Wednesday and Saturday afternoons in their refined and skilful society sketched entitled the Professor and the Matinee Girl. Prof. Tyler and Miss Berton are accompanied by the little 13 year old wonder, Miss Minnie Ridley, champion girl speed skater of Canada. This little wonder will meet all comers in trials of speed. During the week extra hand numbers will be added for the convenience of patrons. Arrangements have been made with the street railway for special cars after each session.

THE REVIVAL MOVEMENT.

SPLendid MASS MEETING IN Wesley on Saturday.

Large and Enthusiastic Meetings Yesterday—Bands of Converts Visiting Other Churches.

Saturday's revival mass meeting at Wesley Church will go down in history as one of the greatest in this city up to the present time. Of course the interested parties hope for a greater, or many greater ones, in the near future. Those who have been following the progress of the revivals in the east and west are confident that they see that it is going to affect the whole city, and perhaps spread further than that. Saturday's meeting was a very important step in this direction. How important remains to be seen. All who were present felt that it was a wonderful and powerful meeting, and that God sent His power down, and not only filled the speakers, but the listeners, too, and many went away with a different opinion of God's wonderful power than they ever had before.

Mr. Frank Cooke was chairman, and around him were grouped many of the Protestant ministers of this city. Evangelists Turk and McHardy, who have been working in the east and west respectively, joined forces, as did their workers, who marched from their respective ends of the city to the central rendezvous. The men from the east marched about 90 strong, while their brothers from the west, though not as strong in numbers, were every whit as jubilant and earnest. Nor was this all. The sister workers, like their brothers, formed in line and marched to the church.

Evangelist McHardy had the first part of the allotted time, and he gave a very powerful and impressive address. He spoke of the Christian's need of Christ, if he would win others, and gave many illustrations to show how Christians had tried to win others to the faith, and themselves, and had failed, but trusting in God, and asking for His help, they had better success.

Then came Evangelist Turk. "It makes my heart overflow every time I see these boys. I love every one of them," were the first words of the fatherly man who has won his way into the heart of every convert in the east end, and whose words have sunk deep under the waistcoats of many unconverted ones. He went on to say that he thought Mr. McHardy's very forceful sermon had had its effect, that so far as preaching was concerned, they had been "nuff said." What was needed, he said, was the testimonies of those who had recently been converted, so he called for any who were so brimful of God's love that they had to tell others about it to stand up and testify. Men who had been drunkards, bachelors, gamblers, pretending Christians, and along the line, stood up to tell of the happiness they had received when they found Christ. The workers dispersed after the meeting, going to their respective homes to gather again at 7.15 for an open air service, and then a fellowship meeting in the Y. M. C. A.

Sunday morning the boys went to their own churches, but met again at the men's meeting at 4 p. m., led by Evangelist Turk, in the Barton Street Methodist Church. It had been arranged for a deputations of about twelve men to go about two miles back over the mountain, where a revival has been going on, but this engagement was cancelled, as the other end because of bad roads. So the boys took their lunches to the Y. M. C. A., had coffee there, and then, after their prayer-meeting, started for Emerald Street, where they were to meet at 7.15. There they were instrumental in bringing about a dozen to Christ, so the revival is only starting.

Next Monday evening some of them—now numbering over a hundred—will be helping carry on the good work in Bennett's Theatre.

It is stated that the east end movement was started by one young man in the cotton mill asking his mate to go to church with him. His mate went, heard the gospel of Jesus Christ, and believed. He then went to his brother, and so he spoke to his brother. And so it grew, week after week, until the band, as they call themselves, visited Zion Tabernacle and organized a band there. This band grew, and last Saturday they joined forces in Wesley Church. Last night the band started another spark in Emerald Street Church, and hope it is going to flare up.

The after meeting in Barton Street Methodist Church was well attended, and quite a number were converted, and others asked to be prayed for. The main features of the evening were the testimonies of those who had been converted, week to week, at Barton Street Church, and the balance of the week in Y. M. C. A. building.

ALEX. LAIRD,
General Manager.

The Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Bank will be held on Tuesday, the 14th day of January, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon.

The Times is satisfied that the above statement of the Canadian Bank of Commerce of the business done for the year ending the 30th November of the year is one that will make pleasant reading at this season of the year for the many shareholders as well as for all those in any way connected with the management of this old-established and well-known Canadian bank. This financial statement which the General Manager, Mr. Laird, and the directors, have been able to make, shows careful management on their part with judicious handling of the funds, and is also an evidence that Canada is still enjoying a period of good times. It will be seen by referring to the statement that the net profits for the year, after providing for all bad and doubtful debts, amounted to the handsome sum of $1,762,349.67. Something to be proud of. A balance of $675,912 was carried forward. Notes of the bank in circulation $80,235,769, and deposits bearing interest, $66,089,786, are two items which show the extent of the bank's business. Stability is also shown in the $10,000,000 capital paid up, and the $5,000,000 reserve. Among the assets are nearly six million dollars in the shape of coin and bullion, and over five millions in Dominion notes. The bank had at the date of the report the large sum of over twelve million dollars out on call and short loans, a most profitable part of the business, and money easily obtainable on short notice. The total assets reached to nearly a hundred and fourteen million dollars, entailing an immense responsibility on the part of the bank, which it seems to have no difficulty in shouldering, judging from its past history, and the good account it has been able to give of itself and its business from year to year, and none better than that of the year just closed. The Times congratulates directors, managers and shareholders on the prosperity of the bank's affairs, and wishes that the year on which it has recently entered may be as successful as was the past one.

BLACK KNIGHT AT BENNETT'S.

TWO LARGE TEMPERANCE MEETINGS HELD YESTERDAY.

During the Afternoon and Evening 176 Men Signed the Pledge—Mr. Turk Next Sunday.

Last year at the temperance meetings in Association Hall it was found that the best drawing card of the whole season was Rev. J. H. Hector, the Black Knight. In engaging him for Bennett's Theatre the Executive determined to put on two meetings, afternoon and evening.

At every meeting yet held in the theatre hundreds have been turned away, and it has come to be understood that no one getting there after 8 o'clock will have a chance even of standing room. The Executive determined to affect the attendance at the evening services in the churches, and can only hope that those who flock to the place before 8 o'clock represent the non-church-going element.

Yesterday afternoon the main floor was filled and about half the balcony. W. M. McMillan presided. G. W. Carey led the congregational singing. Rev. J. Henderson offered prayer. Solos were given by Wm. Holland and Mr. Franklin. Mr. Hector took as his subject, "Slavery Past and Slavery To-Day." He described the great convulsion in the United States resulting in the overthrow of negro slavery, and then showed in what manner intemperance may be regarded as its present parallel. His address was exceedingly forcible, pungent and at times humorous. The number of pledges taken at the close was greater than that at any previous meeting.

In the evening the theatre was completely filled long before 8 o'clock, and multitudes were turned away. Dr. Wm. Crawford presided. H. A. Martin led in the congregational singing. Duets were given by Madame Egbert and Wm. Holland. Mr. Hector drew a picture of an imaginary conference between Satan and his principal adjutants, his Satanic Majesty sent, in succession, deputations to visit the politicians, ordinary ministers of the Gospel, dignified prelates, medical doctors, and male officers. To politicians they were to say that prohibition must be opposed because it would break up the parties. To the ordinary ministers they were to say that wine is a good creature of God, and that moderation was the thing aimed at not abstinence. To prelates, like Bishop Potter, of New York, they were to suggest the starting of saloons under church coun-

With two other boys he was trying to cross on the thin ice of the river when it broke under him and let him through.

PETE VINEGAR

Was the "Sweet Thing" in Jumping Race on Saturday.

New Orleans, Dec. 8.—The Cypress Handicap, the feature of yesterday's card at City Park, was an easy victory for Plantland, at 5 to 1 in the betting. The steeplechase was won by Pete Vinegar, after a close finish with Magie.

The first disqualification of the meeting occurred in the second race, when the third from Lague, a mare, had Nutter in the saddle and when showing the way with a comfortable margin, the filly swerved badly in the last twenty yards, interfering with Lague, who was unable to get official action. The judges suspended Nutter for rough riding for three days. Sally Preston won the fifth race, leading from end to end.

SADDLE AND SULKY.

The racing activity of New Orleans is transferred to-day to the Fair grounds track, which will be the scene for the next two weeks.

The inquiry into the identity of a horse called Boston Globe, Meryman and other names, and owned by a Montrealer named Legace, has been continued by the National Trotting Association.

Peter Kelly, the jockey, had a narrow escape from instant death the other day at New Orleans, when his mount, Mazie O'Neill, fell shortly after the start, and directly in front of the grand stand. The boy was picked up unconscious, but recovered, and escaped with a broken collar bone.

For racing Northern Star under the name of Star S. R. Clarke, of Flower-town, Pa., who called himself "an inexperienced farmer boy," was suspended by the Board of Review of the National Trotting Association until the winning of the horse were returned and the recording fee for changing the name paid in.

RAIDED BY NIGHT-RIDERS.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Held Up by a Large Mob.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Dec. 7.—Five hundred "night riders," masked and heavily armed, marched into Hopkinsville early to-day and destroyed property valued at over $200,000, while citizens in terror of their lives fled even to open their windows. The police, fire department, telephone and telegraph offices, and even the railroad stations, were in possession of a wild mob, shooting right and left, flames from burning buildings mean-while lighting up the city and the surrounding country until it seemed that the whole town was ablaze.

Only two men were injured, one of them being Lindsay Mitchell, a tobacco buyer, who was severely beaten with switches and clubs, and the other, a bricklayer, who was shot in the back while trying to move his train from the path of the flames. Three large tobacco warehouses were burned to the ground, while the entire glass front of the Hopkinsville Kentuckian was destroyed. This paper has been severe in its condemnation of the "night riders." There is besides scarcely a house in the business part of the city that did not suffer somewhat from the rain of bullets.
