A PSALM.

BY SARAH ANDERSON. By the highest Truth live ever, Which thy soul can apprehend;

On the turret-tower of Duty We may watch, with anxious breast,

Children sport, and mothers press them, Fathers gaze with loving eyes;

While we burn in joys to mingle, Shuts upon our loving plumes,

But for glory love surrounded To a lofty sense of Right,

For, as Fate the doors of mortals From the lives of all good men,

And a Golden Promise, shining From the lives of all good men,

That our soul's bent, steadfast, holy, Beat by Love, and Faith, and Will,

Breaking, meeting that resistance First into its warmth opposed,

And the brighter and the longer That the constant spirit glows,

Till at last a Dew is given, Looking from life's sunset core,

COFFEE AS A FERTILIZER.—The Medical Gazette.—good authority on such a subject says that such is the power of absorption by coffee that it is one of the most powerful means not only of rendering animal and vegetable life innocuous,

Too Much for the General.—Many persons who have visited the Presidential Mansion at Washington, will recollect Jenny Maher, who has been the gardener there for many years. General Jackson had heard rumors that Jenny was accustomed to get drunk, and he uninvited to the White House,

A FARMER WINDFALL.—An old man who, with his wife, had lived for many years in the Hospice des Vieillards, at Tours, purchased, four years ago, a pair of trousers from a soldier, and wore them until within the last few days.

GET READY TO GET "OUT OF IT!"—Why are you like Tom Moore? said Congo, shouting into Quace's ear.

PAUSE!—There come at times in our life, deep, still pauses, when we rest upon our full content, as a child lies down on the grass of a meadow, fearing nothing, desiring nothing, ceasing almost to think, and satisfied only to feel.

A GUY, while being measured for a pair of boots, observed, "Make them cover the calf." "Heaven!" exclaimed the astonished artist, surveying his customer from head to foot, "I have not leather enough."

A PERSON being asked what a ghost said to him, which he pretended to have seen, answered, "How should I know what he said! I am not skilled in the dead language."

SAID one gentleman of honor to another, "If you don't accept my challenge, I shall post you in the papers." "Go ahead," said the other, "I had rather fill a dozen papers than one coffin."

A POEM in a southern paper begins, "I've lived upon thy memory." That is about as bad as Jerry Bryant's boarding-house feed, where they had nothing for dinner, and had it warmed over for supper, and what was left served up next morning for breakfast.

To ascertain whether a woman is passionate or not, take a muddy dog into her parlour.

Trount we seem grieved at the shortness of life in general, we are wishing every period of it at an end. The minor longs to be of age, that to be a man of business, then to make an estate, then to arrive at honors, then to retire.

FATHERS are never treacherous—fat women are not sharp-tongued—fat boys are not mischievous—fat babies are always good—in fine, fat people are the kindest, and therefore the most popular.

THIS Institution will continue to be conducted on the same principles which have rendered it so generally popular, and secured for it such extensive patronage from almost every part of this Province. It has now been opened and in successful operation upwards of nine years.

The arrangements which were made to accomplish the important object for which it had been founded, were such as obtained for it from its very commencement, a very high position in the public estimation. And those upon whom the direction of its affairs has devolved, have been encouraged and stimulated, by its prosperity, to continued efforts to render it, in all its departments, ever increasingly efficient.

Every year in its history has consequently been marked by valuable additions to its educational facilities, and by more or less extensive general improvements throughout the Establishment.

The attention of young men and of parents and guardians of youth is, therefore, respectfully invited to it, as an Institution, where the advantages of a thorough intellectual training may be obtained in safety and comfort, and under most favourable circumstances.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION. Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. KIRKUS, Chemist, 7 Queen Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY. Sir—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She has been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the violence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation so in severity, that she was compelled to retire to bed, and was unable to bear up under it; she was induced to try your Pills, and she felt very far from after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she took only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but she, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favor of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND. Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Welch.

Margaret McConnel, sixteen years of age, residing at New Town, has been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period, she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she commenced to do, and in an incredibly short space of time they effected perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 54 YEARS OF AGE. From Messrs. Thos. & Son, Proprietors of the Egyptian Balm, who can reach for the following statement.—August 2, 1851. To Professor HOLLOWAY.

Sir—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 54 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now restored, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed) HENRY COE, North Street, York, Barbadoes.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT. Copy of a Letter addressed to J. E. Hyslop, Esq., Stoney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

Sir—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and that he would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as he felt he had nothing to lose, he commenced to take them, and in a few days he felt a considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required. (Signed) Wm. JONES, Proprietor of Holloway's Pills, 71, New South Wales.

WONDERFUL EFFICACY OF HOLLOWAY'S PILLS IN CASES OF DROPSY. Persons suffering from Dropsy, either about the turn of life, or at other times, should immediately have recourse to these Pills, as hundreds of persons are annually cured by their use, of this distressing complaint in its different stages, when all other means had failed.
