

Aburn. We are glad to see Sam Marshall around again. The Methodist parsonage is being painted very nicely.

Mrs A. T. McDonald, returned home from Toronto, Tuesday last week. Robert and Teddy Jones, left last Monday morning for the Michigan lumberwoods.

Miss McDougall, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs A. T. McDonald of this place.

RENEWAL.—Last Thursday evening the team owned by John Pfeiffer, of Hullett, broke loose while Mr Pfeiffer was in the hotel on business, and got away. They started on the home stretch and kept the road for about sixty rods, when they turned off and ran against a telegraph pole, throwing it about 10 feet out of the ground. One of the horses stopped with the wagon, and the other started for home. Very little damage was done otherwise with the exception of the harness being broken badly.

The quarterly meeting in connection with the Methodist church was held at Donnybrook last week. Rev. Thos. Gee officiated and preached to a large and attentive congregation. The special services at Westfield are still in progress, and up to date about fifty have been forward as seekers of salvation, and great attention and interest seems to prevail at the entire service. The trustees have decided to build a new church one mile east of the old site. We congratulate them on the choice of location, as it is generally believed they are placing it where it will do most good.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—Last Thursday evening about sixty members of the Methodist congregation met at the church, when carriages were provided and a procession formed, which soon reached the residence of John Washington, and presented Miss Annie Washington, the organist of Auburn church, with a beautiful album and silver cake basket, and her sister, Miss E., a singer in the choir, with a magnificent hanging lamp. The newcomers were warmly welcomed by the family. The following address was then read by D. E. Munro, and was presented by Miss Susannah Blair: To the Misses A. & E. Washington.

DEAR YOUNG FRIENDS.—It is with deep regret we learn you intend shortly to remove from our community. We are deeply conscious that will sever to a great extent those ties formed and strengthened during many years of social and religious intercourse, during which time we have enjoyed together the privilege of hearing faithfully preached and sung the sublime truths of our glorious gospel laden with encouragement for our esteem and acknowledgment of the congregation's indebtedness to you for the faithful discharge of your onerous duties. And to your parents who have so many years loyally, liberally and intelligently supported the congregation at Manchester, who have been ready at all times to speak in their behalf and enterprises, we cheerfully say that as a congregation and community we have been blessed by having them dwell so long in our midst, and in saying farewell to them and to you we sincerely say: God bless you all.

Signed on behalf of the congregation: CHAS. SYMONS, JOHN HOAK. A suitable reply was made by Mr. Washington on behalf of his daughters, and the remainder of the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner in recreations of various kinds.

Benmiller. On Thursday last week Valentine Fisher received the very sad intelligence from the controller of the Northwest mounted police, Ottawa, that his son, Abraham Warner, had died of mountain fever, at Kootenai, British Columbia, that owing to the great distance of Kootenai from the main line of communication he had only received news of his death per telegram, and that further particulars would be forwarded as soon as received. Abraham Warner Fisher was a young man of exemplary Christian character and sterling integrity, and was loved and respected by all who knew him. The news of his death has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood, and the deepest sympathy for the bereaved family is felt by the whole community.

Fort Albert. Allie Hawkins, a twelve year old child of A. C. Hawkins, while playing on top of a straw stack had the misfortune to fall and break some of the bones of her left arm last week. She is doing as well as can be expected.

The proprietor of the Royal had an interview with P. M. Williams, in Goderich, on Monday. Result: fifty dollars or sixty days; fourteen days to ponder over it.

The work at the harbor has been delayed for some time, owing to the want of a pile driver. The parties who have the contract for building Fellow's bridge, and who were to have that job completed by the 1st of October, at present hold the pile driver until they get the piling in connection with their contract finished. They haven't commenced work yet.

RAILWAY NOTES.—W. T. Jennings, C. P. R. engineer, paid our town a visit last week. He seemed highly delighted with the general appearance of the place, and will no doubt report to his company the desirability of making Port Albert the terminus of the Wingham branch. We understand that while on his way higher he was interviewed at Goderich by some of the railway agitators of that town, but could give them no consolation whatever, nor any reason to hope for any further railway facilities through his Co. We are very sorry for this as Goderich is a very pretty town, and deserves a better fate than what seems to be in store for it. Besides, we have no doubt its people would give Port Albert a helping hand were we in a like position. Yes, we are very sorry, indeed.

Dungannon. On Thursday last Inspector Paisley visited our village. He is determined to carry out and enforce the Scott Act. He committed to jail a hotel keeper of this village, David Elanigan, for an infraction of the Scott Act.

On the same day Mr. Washington Auckland, while in the woods in search of trees for ornament to transplant, having climbed a sapling, it fell with him, by which he fractured two of his ribs. The Doctor states that he is not seriously hurt, and will be all right in the course of a couple of weeks.

The Methodist brethren have commenced revival meetings, which are being well attended and appreciated.

Rev. D. G. Cameron, of Erskine church, gave a very interesting, instructive and practical discourse on temperance and the Scott Act, which will probably result in good.

Our enterprising lumber manufacturer is busily engaged in improving the appearance of the village by removing a building from the Main-st. on to his farm, which, when placed and fitted up, will make a comfortable outbuilding for stock.

Collector R. H. Anderson is on the track. Ratepayers should take note.

We are sorry to state that one of our respectable young men, Joseph Strothers, is leaving this vicinity for some years. He intends going to Australia by way of California, and starts on Wednesday, the 9th November. We wish him success, and hope he may be spared to return to his home in due time.

Leeburn. Miss Annie Chishelm, has removed in Goderich.

Mrs. Toley, of Kintail, enjoyed a pleasant visit to friends here.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Mr. Wilson, formerly of Kingston, and a fellow student of the Rev. Dr. Ure in his College days, preached here last Sunday. He has been engaged to assist here for a time and will give a lecture the date of which will be given on Sunday.

The rising 'hopefuls in our hamlet kept hallow'een in due form. The red gait of E. P. Shaw was hung up in a tall tree, and Mr. Oxley did some climbing to get it down; Alex. Clinton's gate was snugly hid under a culvert and found by a Dunlop sufferer who was hunting for a missing gate of his own. Mr. Foley had a big hunt for his; as also J. O. Stewart and H. Chislow; other tricks to numerous to mention, were also perpetrated.

With regret we notice of late that many of the young men of this neighborhood have formed a habit of meeting night of gathering on the stoop of the hall and engaging in loud and boisterous talkings tainted with phases of vulgar unity for the ears of passers-by, particularly ladies, who have complained to me of it. Also that some of the boys have made it a special duty to ring the bells of the church while the prayer-meeting is going on. The offenders names are withheld, and we hope the boys will discontinue these practices, and not in future let an item of this kind appear accompanied with their names.

Dunlop. PERSONAL.—Micheal Finland, fr-m near Kingsbridge, gave our busy burg a visit last week, being the guest of our Irishman, with whom he had quite a chat over the Land League and Home Rule.

"SKIP"—This is the name of a new trotter purchased by the Laird of Lansdowne farm, which he intends to get racing trim for the spring races. Already he thinks it can leave all the nags in Leeburn far in the rear.

PERSONAL.—Our townsman, A. C. McDonald, was in Clinton, attending the meeting of the Presbytery in the interest of the call extended by the Leeburn church to the Rev. J. Simpson, of Bruce field.

J. M. Williams, with his cousin, F. W. Hyndman, of Ayr, Scotland, were the guests of J. Eason, Bayfield, last week. They also visited relatives at Exeter.

Our jovial Jack McAlister, the architect's busy foreman, was up from Stratford last week under the weather with a sore hand, the lotions and skillful care of our sick committee sent him back to Stratford.

HALLOW'EN.—Some of those stupid customs that mark it yearly were duly observed by the mischievous urchie's of the burg, who annoyed one or two of our residents by playing tick-tack on their window panes with a long string, which was answered by the owner with several shots from his gun. The plov of A. Allen's foreman was neatly put away in a fence corner, giving Mallough and hour or so tedious tramp hunting it while his wife team watched him. It William's farm gate was found stowed away in a cedar swamp the boys compassed him a little by grubbing a stump and throwing it on top of it. We think Sir John and Oliver should pass laws to end such silly stupid practices.

Come to the bridal chamber. Death's' Come to the bridal chamber when she's dead. For the first time, her first-born's breath. And that's a terrible!

The untimely death which annually carries off thousands of human beings in the prime of youth, is indeed terrible. The first approach of consumptions insidious, and the sufferer himself is most unconscious of its approach. One of the most alarming symptoms of this dread disease is, in fact, the ineradicable hope, which lurks in the heart of the victim, preventing him from taking timely steps to arrest the malady. That it can be arrested in its earlier stages is beyond question, as there are hundreds of well-authenticated cases where Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has effected a complete cure.
