LATEST
From the Front.*11.00 A.M.*THE DUSSELDORF RAID.

LONDON, To-day.
The Secretary to the Admiralty announces that Squadron Commander Grey reports that as authorized by the Admiralty, the British submarine, H. M. S. L. 10, under the command of Lieut. S. H. Sigge, a successful attack on Dusseldorf airship shed, Lieut. Mark's bombs dropped from a height of 500 feet, hit the shed, went through the roof and destroyed a Zeppelin. The flames were observed 500 feet high, the result of the lighting of the gas of an airship. All those officers are safe but their aeroplanes have been lost. Fear would appear to have been in every respect remarkable, having regard to the distance of over one hundred miles they penetrated into the country held by the enemy, and to the fact that the previous attack had put the enemy on their guard and enabled them to mount anti-aircraft guns.

HAS ANTWERP FALLEN?

LONDON, To-day.
The Morning Post says it has been informed on good authority that Antwerp has fallen. The official Press Bureau says it is unable to confirm the foregoing. The Belgian Minister to Great Britain has received no confirmation of the report. Stubborn fighting is proceeding before Antwerp fortifications, says the Daily Mail's Ostend correspondent, telegraphing on Friday. Four assaults have been repulsed at No. 4 fort at Vieux Dieu.

Warmth and Light Weight

A good combination in Blankets.

Riverside Blankets

have solved the problem of how to obtain warmth without weight. They are made from selected wools only. Hard wearing qualities guaranteed. See that there is a "Riverside" label on the next pair you buy.

Officers of enlistment are already pouring into Ottawa from all parts of Canada. The British Government is sending to Canada special officers to superintend the purchase of equipment.

NOVA SCOTIA OFFERS $100,000.

LONDON, To-day.
The Government of Nova Scotia has cabled an offer of $100,000 to be used by the Imperial Government for the relief of National distress caused by the war. Nova Scotia has already offered a supply of coal but as its transport involved certain loss in view of resources in England, it was decided to change the form of the Province's generosity. It is understood that the money will be handed to the Local Government Board which is looking after all relief departments.

NOON.*SHIPPING BLOWN UP.

LONDON, To-day.
An Amsterdam despatch to the Reuters Telegram Company says that two German merchant ships, including a large number of steamers, have been blown up in Port Antwerp.

CAPTURE INNER FORTS.

LONDON, To-day.
A despatch from Amsterdam to the Reuters dated Friday night says, during yesterday's bombardment of Antwerp, some shells exploded on the roof of the prison. The warden immediately liberated the prisoners. From Missetrecht comes news that 3,000 Germans are approaching Antwerp from Liege. A fugitive member of the Red Cross stated that the fighting still continues.

GERMANS HOPE TO RETAIN ANTWERP.

LONDON, To-day.
The Times military correspondent commenting on the situation at Antwerp says: Permanent forts in an exposed situation stand no chance against modern artillery. If German forces hold Antwerp later and we attack it, the result will be the same as the capture of Antwerp by the Germans. It will have an effect which cannot be denied upon opinion, but the city even if converted into a German first class fortress will bring the Germans little advantage, for the Scheldt cannot be used for naval purposes. Germany doubtless hopes to retain Antwerp when peace comes, but there is no chance that this dream will be realized.

RUSSIANS REPULSED.

LONDON, To-day.
An Athens despatch to the Daily News states that the German Colonel Von Geck has arrived at Damascus and has taken over the direction of the General staff of the Assyrian troops. He is also recruiting Bedouins. At the front at Wierballen, Russian Poland, "Russians finally have decided to take the offensive. The Germans, heretofore, have often complained that enemy though twice stronger refused to leave their trenches, but for the last three nights the Russians have attacked along the entire front extending 60 miles from about Wilno, North of Augustowa, to a point below Lyck, East Prussia. The attacks were repulsed however. The Russians losing heavily while German losses are light. The Russians had just begun an attack upon the German left wing, but it was quickly repulsed, the fighting lasting about 30 minutes. The Russian artillery which evidently has been reinforced by heavy artillery from Kovno, has done well, but often their shells fell short of the position of the German artillery. Damage has been done everywhere in the country in which fighting has been raging and several villages have been burned.

2 P.M.*ANTWERP OCCUPIED.

LONDON, To-day.
An official Berlin despatch confirms the report that Antwerp has been occupied.

LONDON, To-day.
A despatch to the Daily Mail from Ostend says: "The Germans, have blown up all the bridges between Ghent and Ingelmunster and have destroyed the railway station at Vivessele; Ingelmunster, a town of 10,000 inhabitants, is on the railway line between Ghent and Courtrai."

AMSTERDAM, To-day.
According to a Rosendael correspondent of the Handelsblad, the Germans entered Antwerp through a suburb of Berchem. The correspondent received news from an officer who transported the wounded soldiers to their Holland homes.

LONDON, To-day.
An official announcement of the fall of Antwerp was given out at the German General Headquarters last night and transmitted here via Marconi Wireless says: "This forenoon several forts of the inner line of the fortifications of Antwerp have fallen. The town since midday has been in our possession. The Commander of the garrison evacuated fortifications. Only a few forts are still occupied by army and this is without influence on our position in Antwerp."

ANTWERP EVACUATED.

LONDON, To-day.
The British War office announces Antwerp was evacuated by the Belgians yesterday.

M.*INHABITANTS CALM.

LONDON, To-day.
The Chronicle states that the Germans have entered Antwerp and that the inhabitants are calm.

EXPECTING WAR FROM PORTUGAL.

LONDON, To-day.
In a despatch from Amsterdam, the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the Bureau of Weinsahr a semi-official news agency, asserted that the declaration of war on Germany by Portugal is expected in Berlin at any moment.

SURRENDERED ON FRIDAY AT 2.30 P.M.

THE HAGUE, To-day.
Antwerp surrendered to the Germans at 2.30 p.m. on Friday, October 9th. The war flag was removed from the Cathedral and the white flag raised in its place at 9 a.m. The actual surrender took place 5 and a half hours later. It is declared here that the Cathedral of Notre Dame has not been damaged. The Germans delivered one of their last furious attacks between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning. The Belgians resisted them valiantly in their trenches and the desperate fighting resulted in heavy losses on both sides. During all Friday night, Zeppelin airships directed the firing of the German heavy artillery.

Official.*OFFICIAL MESSAGE TO GOVERNOR

The Governor.
Newfoundland.
The War Office announces that Belgian forces evacuated Antwerp yesterday. The Admiralty announces Commander Spencer Grey, Lieut. E. L. Manu and Seppie attacked the Dusseldorf airship shed with bombs and destroyed a Zeppelin. All three officers are safe, but the aeroplane is lost. Signed, HARCOURT.

The roll-call at Saturday last, Oct. 9, was an event and one of the most in our local history. Such an event takes place in Newfoundland, and never call ticked off.

It was the roll-call of our sons, who, call of duty, volunteered for the foreign field. We were, and what if them we cannot but thoughts must have them, and ten that have been suppress they were brave, and leads they answered they stood "at attention" of their regiment.

Last man had been last response given at "attention," and command they began. They had heard the "march" often before, a command as that on command which real active service.

The sight which they marched along, enthusiasm, was inspiring that abandonment was belongs to young men those in the full blood display. Every eye
