

P. U. Hold Annual Meeting.

The adjourned meeting of the Truckers' Protective Union was held in the Longshoremen's Hall last night. The meeting was in good financial condition. During the year it was pleased to remove two of our members, Bro. Biddiscombe and Bro. Williams and also the wife of Bro. Conolly. A vote of thanks was passed to the Employers Association, also the different newspapers and Mr. W. J. Higgins, for his kindness and advice in all occasions when needed by the union. The election of officers then took place. Mr. A. B. Bastow being appointed Chairman for the coming year, the election carried out in a most satisfactory way, resulting as follows:—President—Mr. John Barter, re-elected. Vice-President—Dennis Fitzgerald, re-elected. Ass. Vice-President—Kenneth Stamp, re-elected. Treasurer and Asst. Treasurer—Moses O'Neil and Peter Joy, re-elected. Secretary—John Rice, re-elected. Committee—Geo. England, re-elected. Committee—Chas. Lester, Wm. J. Higgins, H. Dunn, and Peter Joy, re-elected.

After addresses had been made by the officers elected for the coming year, the Chairman, Mr. Bastow, as Secretary of the Union for the past year, in a trying year owing to the scarcity of labor and the high cost of hay, harness and horse-shoeing.

In Memoriam.

He Giveth His Beloved Sleep. There passed behind the veil on Friday, 21st inst., Mary, beloved wife of Mr. J. A. Whitman, merchant and of this town. Many will mourn the passing of this esteemed lady; she will be missed, for she was an exemplary type of mother, and a woman who means so much to a family. She possessed the crown of character and her one aim in life seemed to be "to stoop down and lift a little higher; to fearlessly speak the words which bear witness to righteousness, truth and purity; patiently to do the deeds which strengthen and kindle hope in all walks of life; and generously to lend a hand to those trying to climb up, and in any other way that by her efforts some good would be done." In the Methodist Church she labored faithfully and well, being a valued member of the Ladies' Aid and Choir, until some months ago, when she was taken ill, and to which affliction she finally succumbed; but she worked to the Master's vineyard till the evening of her life was spent, and, although her spirit has taken its flight to another clime, the influence of her Christian life will still live on and serve as a working effect, for who can estimate the value of the influence of a good life? Truly we can say, "She has an inspiration."

Mr. Whitman was a husband, two daughters, Mrs. Trickey, of Toronto, and Mrs. A. Webster, of Halifax; and a large circle of friends to whom he extended our condolences in this sad hour. The funeral service, which was held at the Methodist Church yesterday (Sunday) afternoon, was attended by all classes and creeds, despite the unfavorable weather, and was conducted by Rev. W. H. Browning, assisted by Rev. F. S. Coffin, of St. Andrew's Church. The anthem, "Only Remembered," was very appropriate and impressive. Very touching and very beautifully rendered by the choir, and again at the graveside, the message of hope, "Blessed Land" was sung in a very effective manner by the choir. Thus she was laid to rest, in sure and certain hope of the reward of the just.

The bird-like voice of the choir, singing an ever-lasting song "Around the Tree of Life."

Who Invented the Telephone?

The first patent for a practical telephone was granted to Alexander Graham Bell by the United States patent office in 1876, but Bell had a close rival for the honors in Elisha Gray of Boston, whose caveat for the invention "to transmit the tone of the human voice through a telegraphic circuit" was filed a few hours after the Bell application for a patent. Gray had described his invention in a paper communicated the previous year to the American Electrical Society.

The Gray and Bell telephones were similar in many particulars, but after a memorable litigation the honor was awarded by the courts to Professor Bell. Gray contributed many other important inventions to mankind.

Self Interviewed.

NEW JOURNALISTIC FEAT. With modesty but few are blessed. But he who's just come from the West Has last than any whom I know. His Christian name will rhyme with "blow."

With a contemporaneous pages An interview with himself he stages And there depicts with many a boast Conditions on the South West Coast.

He to himself says, (wondrous sight), "The South West Coast is quite all right."

"That fishermen want regulations is part of this man's wild narrations indeed, the traveller was told A lot of fish was left unsold Because the rules were taken off. Our caps to him we all should doff."

"And is the Government supported By the West Coast?" Our friend retorted. "I won't deny it." To himself, "I won't deny it." And this with other foolish things This wondrous scribe at our heads blazes.

But now the real truth we glean. He didn't go West of Lamaline.

B. I. S.—There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary in the Club Rooms on Wednesday, October 26th, at 8.15 p.m. A large attendance is requested as business of importance will be discussed. ELIZABETH H. PEDIGREW, Hon. Secretary. Oct. 24, 21.

"The Confession."

"The Confession," by James Hallett Reid, which enjoyed a successful run at the Broadway Bijou Theatre, New York City, will be seen at the Casino Theatre to-night.

"The Confession" dares to tell the truth, and in its telling unfolds a dramatic story of power, strength and literary merit. It uses for its theme a vital subject, a priest's duty to his church versus his duty to the state; in fact it is a story which runs the gamut of every human emotion and yet in Mr. Reid's manuscript there is not a line that would offend the most sensitive. No more absorbing tragedy has ever been conceived, no greater stage picture and lesson presented.

The author, James Hallett Reid is the possessor of flattering testimonials on the play from thousands of persons that have witnessed the production, some of which he prizes most highly. The one appealing to St. John's Newfoundland patrons most is that of the late lamented Archbishop Howley, who a few years ago witnessed the play at Montreal. Others are from the Vicar General of the Archdiocese of New York, J. J. Guerin, late Mayor of Montreal, etc. This play was seen here in a moving picture at the Majestic Theatre a couple of years ago, but tonight will witness its dramatization at the Casino.

Change Your Eyebrows.

Do you like your eyebrows? If you don't you may now have them changed. Eyebrow transformation is as painful as it is novel. But it is the latest beauty craze among certain women, chiefly cinema actresses.

How is it done? First of all the shape of the face is taken into consideration, the eyes are measured for correct setting, with regard to greater prominence, and operations are begun. The correct shape of the brow is pencilled, and the surplus hairs are "plucked out."

A beauty expert declares it is "just as easy as plucking a fowl." Brick's Tasteless can be purchased at Jas. Wiseman's, Post Carriers' Hill. Price $1.20 per tin. Postage 20c. extra.—sep15, 21.

New Battle of Foxtrap.

Comle Opera Scene in Court. A delightful opera bouffe was staged in the Magistrate's Court to-day when John Christopher, a resident of Foxtrap, charged Isaac Kennedy and five members of the Porter family, including three women, with assault.

The case was undoubtedly the funniest heard in the Court for many years. Plaintiff's counsel, in opening the case, said that this was reminiscent of one heard before Judge Prowse over what is known as the "Battle of Foxtrap." In the present case he declared that all the defendants engaged his client in mortal combat and for some time a battle royal ensued.

John Christopher, the plaintiff, said that at 5 p.m. one evening he went to the house of his sister-in-law to remove her furniture. He was met by Isaac Kennedy who asked what he was doing. Witness replied, "what odds is it to you?" Kennedy thereupon told him to get off the place, and witness took off his coat to him, saying that there was nobody there who could put him off the police.

Kennedy and he next came to grips and as they did so, Clan Porter came along in strength, and, according to Christopher, attacked him, making good use of their hands in place of broad swords. Lorenzo Porter, a benevolent neutral, interfered in witness favor.

Counsel to Witness: "Did the ladies hurt you?" Witness: "The lightest thing they could do was to scratch and claw me." Judge: "Very ladylike, eh?" Isaac Kennedy and the other defendants were called, all denying the assault. One man gave a very realistic representation of the plaintiff on the war path. One of the ladies declared she was able to make good use of her hands when necessary. After all the voluble witnesses had been examined, the case was dismissed.

Cancer Week.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—As Newfoundland representative of the American Society for the control of Cancer, I am asked to send out some literature as published by the Society, and would like to make known to your readers, that it is not an appeal for funds, but a genuine attempt to lessen the mortality from Cancer. The Society emphasizes the fact that Cancer begins locally, is not inherited, and not communicable, but can often be cured by surgical measures if assistance is looked for early enough.

This week has been appointed by the Society as "Cancer Week" throughout the United States, Canada and Newfoundland, during which an attempt will be made to make known some vital facts about Cancer. Yours truly, N. S. FRASER. St. John's, Oct. 24th.

Spencer Club Sale. In our report of the Sale of Work last week we inadvertently omitted to mention that there was an extra choice stall there where fancy and plain work was sold, presided over by Mrs. Sterling Fraser, Hon. President and founded of the Club. Mrs. Macgregor and Miss Findlater. The Stall was prettily decorated in Spencerian colours, light and dark blue. Their stock was sold and added considerably to the proceeds. In the Pantry Stall we unfortunately overlooked mentioning the name of Mrs. Gladstone Tessler who assisted Mrs. Sidney Bursell and Mrs. Emma Baird. Their results were wonderful for an afternoon sale.

Large Shipments.

Two large steamers are now on their way to market loaded with fish. The S. S. Godounov sailed early this morning for the Mediterranean, taking 5,087 packages containing 19,425½ qtls. fish. S.S. Hop has cleared also, and sailed this forenoon. She has on board 5,888 packages containing 24,075½ qtls. fish. The ships were loaded by Harvey & Co. from various shippers. Another large ship, the S.S. Gosnia, has left England and is due here next week to load for the Newfoundland Shipping Co. This ship will take some 7,500 casks or 30,000 qtls.

Fish Advanced.

Owing to a great deal of competition between local buyers the price of Shore fish has steadily advanced. It is said that $7.50 per cask has been paid by one firm for a quantity of well made fish. Labrador fish however seems to stand firm at $4.50 and there is not much likelihood of any advance.

Train Notes.

Yesterday's outgoing express arrived at Bishop's Falls on time. The incoming express with the Kyle's mails and passengers left Port aux Basques on time.

The Trepassay train left on time. The Carbonear local arrived at St. John's on time.

The weather along the line this morning was dull. Strong N.E. winds were blowing and in places, it was snowing. The temperature ranged from 10 to 35 degrees.

Lobelia From Labrador.

CAPTAIN REPORTS STORMY WEATHER.

S. S. Lobelia, Capt. Taylor, arrived from Labrador last night, after landing the Labrador crews at various points in Conception Bay. The ship brought up about 450 passengers, taking them from Indian Harbor, Holton, Long Island and Indian Tickle. Capt. Taylor reports that there was one steamer loading at Comfort Right and one vessel at Dark Tickle, but she was likely finished. Practically all the fish have gone off the coast except small lots being picked up by traders. Winter has set in north, and with the exception of a few fine days the weather has been cold and stormy. Very little herring have been packed. Perry at Battle Harbor being the only one who has put up any quantity; he has about 100 barrels. When the Lobelia was on the way south she passed through numerous schools of herring, particularly between Battle Island and Belle Isle. On the passage north the Lobelia met very stormy weather, and on Sunday, Oct. 9th, she was obliged to leave to. The steam steering gear gave out and hand gear had to be used. The accident happened when in the vicinity of the Funchal. A seaman named Quibb was also injured and had to be landed at Twillingate, where he received medical attendance. It is likely that the Lobelia will now be cleaned up and put into winter quarters.

Beware of Fifteen and Forty-five.

The chance of death during the first four years of life are nearly equal to the chances of all the following seventy years. That is to say, one year of a child's life before attaining the age of four, is as dangerous as seventeen years afterwards.

Before the fifth year is reached, seven boys die to every six girls. From the fifth to the thirty-fourth years the death of males and females are about equal, but thereafter the deaths of men are again in bigger proportion than those of women.

If a child can live till it leaves the nursery it has a chance of growing up; a mortality of seventy under four dropping at once to six when over four. A human being never again enters such a fatal period as the nursery until he is over seventy-four years of age. And why? Because in infancy, when the child can do nothing in the way of self-preservation, ignorance, carelessness, and wrong neglect reign supreme, and the results are deadly.

There is no doubt that the period from the time growth ends till old age begins—a time of some thirty years or so—should be one of specially good health, the organism being free from diseases of growth or degeneration. The two changes in life at about fifteen and forty-five are times when some special care is often needed with regard to health.

But if, during these thirty years, health is firmly established as a habit, the last period of life need not be feared.

Road Under Contract.

WORK STARTED AT COLINET.

The contract for the work on the Colinet Road has been awarded to George Lannon, of Placentia, and work was commenced nearly a fortnight ago. About 200 men are at present employed, but before long it is probable that 500 men will be given work. Arrangements are being made for the work to begin at both ends of the road and it is hoped that given suitable weather conditions, the contract will be completed before the end of the season. The distance to be covered is 30 miles and there is already a cart track through it which will have to be enlarged and re-made. The bridge over Rocky River will not be built this year but will probably be constructed next spring. The structure will be of reinforced concrete.
