A Revolutionary Car for Every Owner

THE BROUGHAM

In literal sense, a revolutionary car! What other term could describe the Chrysler Six—a car that gives a high gear speed range of 2 to over 70 miles per hour—that weighs only 2705 pounds and yet can be driven in comfort 60 miles an hour on a cobbled street or a rutted road.

Never has there been a car within many hundreds of dollars of the Chrysler price, that could begin to do the things it does.

Never has there been a car that combined such startling performance with such economy of investment, maintenance and operation.

Armistice Day Celebrated by the Allied Countries

Irish Free State to Adopt Protective Tariff—British Artisans en Route to the Humber—Derelict Sighted May be Leif Ericsson.

REMEMBRANCE DAY AT LONDON.

LONDON, Nov. 11. Tens of thousands of people of London gathered to-day around the Cenotaph in sorrowful yet proud remembrance of their one million kin who died in the war that came to an end six years ago. Whitehall was thronged its entire length by subjects of the farflung British Empire, most of whom wore red poppies bought with pennies and pence to help the men who came away halt, lame and blind from the fields of Flanders and from other battlefields of the great war. At the core of the crowd stood the King. He and his two elder sons, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of York, placed wreaths at the foot of the Cenotaph. Just before Big Ben in his tower rising above the Houses of Parliament tolled the eleventh hour which ended the greatest of wars. On the echo of the tolling of the great bell there came a hushed silence, and for two minutes the crowds stood in reverent quietude. Throughout the British Isles the same two moments were given over to silent remembrance of the empire's dead.

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATED IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, Nov. 11. For the first time since the end of the war Armistice Day to-day was generally celebrated throughout the Free State with memorial demonstrations in Dublin and elsewhere. Tens of thousands of people were said, and the wearers included Republicans as well as Free State. The day's programme in Dublin included a parade of ex-Servicemen and placing of a wreath on a cross in College Green by General Hinkley, who commanded the 15th 16th Division. So dense was the crowd in College Green that the tramway traffic was suspended for more than an hour. Some members of the crowd carried Union Jacks and a Union Jack replaced the Free State Tri-color over the Bank of Ireland building, formerly the old House of Parliament. The Government offices suspended business during the ceremony.

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVED IN U.S.A.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11. The observance of Armistice Day was general throughout the United States to-day, the day being a legal holiday in some states while in others special ceremonies were carried out under the auspices of patriotic organizations. In Washington the day was marked by special ceremonies at the tomb of the unknown soldier in the Arlington National Cemetery. Thousands of persons joined the annual pilgrimage to the National Shrine led by President Coolidge and other high Government officials. A service in memory of Woodrow Wilson was held in the National Cathedral. The day was not a holiday in the capital.

FRENCH CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY.

PARIS, Nov. 11. Armistice Day this year is for the first time a full holiday in France. Although Parliament voted its legal holiday long ago, the application of the law has been suspended hitherto mainly for economic reasons, with business only interrupted for the one minute of silence. To-day everything is closed except places of amusement. The main feature of the celebration in Paris was at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in the Arc de Triomphe, with President Doumergue, Premier Herriot and his Cabinet, Marshals, Generals and members of the Diplomatic Service in attendance. Two hundred and fifty tattered flags of disbanded regiments were carried by reserve officers headed by General Gouraud and his staff from the Invalides to the Arc.

MONTREAL'S CENOTAPH UNVEILED.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11. ### PARIS BOURSE OBSERVES SILENCE.

PARIS, Nov. 11. The roaring Bourse silenced itself one minute at two o'clock this afternoon in observance of Armistice Day, as the exchange will be closed to-morrow. When the gong rang at two o'clock every hat came off and all the brokers faced the centre, many saluting. In the great echoing hall with 2000 excited, perspiring brokers and clerks present, there was heard only the click of the news cameras and one strangled cough. When business was resumed the brokers gave five minutes to cheering. They also hooted one of the busy photographers who had forgotten to take off his hat. The crowd promptly took it off for him. Many other Armistice ceremonies were held to-day, including the placing of a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier by a delegation from the Chamber of Deputies headed by President Painleve.

REORGANIZING LIBERAL PARTY.

LONDON, Nov. 10. Former Premier Asquith, leader of the Liberal Party, the losses of which in the recent elections have given grave concern to his supporters, said in an address at a luncheon to Liberal Members of Parliament to-day, that there was no use disguising the seriousness of the Party's set back. He asserted, however, that Liberalism was far from dead, and the incidentally revealed the fact that a small committee of experts was already working on a complete organization for the Party, which needed, he said, an overhauling from top to bottom. Mr.

Lloyd George who, since his retirement from the Premiership, has been associated with Mr. Asquith in the Party leadership, declared there was nothing in the situation which ought to dismay us. Meanwhile, he said, the Party had valuable work to do in the House of Commons. In connection with to-day's meeting it was reported in political circles in Liverpool that a seat in the House of Commons might be found for Mr. Asquith in Denbighshire.

MORE TROUBLE IN CHINA.

TIENTSIN, Nov. 10. The Chinese here expect hostilities between the Christian General, Fon Yu Hsiang, who is in control of Peking and Chang Tso Lin, the Manchurian War Lord. The city was thrown into a panic yesterday when an ammunition train caught fire and a series of explosions resulted, but prompt action enabled 210 of the 215 cars to be removed beyond the danger zone and the flames burned themselves out. There was one casualty and some damage. The fire broke out about 500 yards from the Central Station. The munitions had been left by Wu Pei Fu when he fled from this part of the country after a coup d'etat had ousted him from his position as head of the Peking Government army. The explosions caused a frantic exodus into the foreign concessions. Fon, who was erroneously reported here, had not arrived this evening. He was last reported at Yangtsuh, 21 miles to the west. Chang had passed thru Tangshan, 81 miles to the Northeast to-day, and was expected to reach Tientsin. An Allied train, bound for Peking was held at Kotsu where the Manchurian forces had gone. Feng Fu Shiang was reported to have ended the war with Manchuria when he seized Peking, set up a military regime and drove from power his former commander Wu Pei Fu, who has fled to Chetco. Later despatches said the Manchurian leader, Chang Tso Lin, had been invited to attend a peace conference in Peking. Feng and Chang joined in menacing from the east and west respectively the troops of General Wu, until these forces were disintegrated.

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 10. Slightly more than half as much wheat has been marketed by producers of the Prairie Provinces from August 1st to November 7th, of this year, as was marketed during the corresponding period of 1923. It was shown by figures here yesterday. For the present season the total by that date had reached 113,990,808 bushels. Last year it was 224,861,384 bushels. Explanation of wide difference is found in the fact that 1924 season was late and that after a belated start at harvesting and threshing operations were held up in all districts by bad weather for more than three weeks. The crop as a whole is much lighter than last year.
