ntry are at the mercy of men who purpose of delib ng of the toil and torture from demolished. hich the Bridsh revenue is wrung. It is from According to some accounts during the insurfor wasteful expenditure or extravagant amounted to nearly 300 persons. tes. Public opinion has no control over but their estates. The responsibility is with the has always been sensitive to a firm and vigorour on of the public will. 'This is our safety. Men like Mr. Cabden, representing large constituences-and boldy expressing, whilst they arouse ablic opinion -are the true tribunes of the people. Mere intellectual dandies-like Disraeli-may Wood affect an indifference they do not feel-but such men as Richard Cobden are both representatives and exponents of the common sense of the country. Their power is not to be put down by adoxies-nor their influence diminished by ficial dogmatism. Their votes and voices may count but as units in divisions or debate .- but an earnest opposition from such sources has a meanno for Ministers which they neither under-rate or misinterpret. Time is needful to give material shape and effective organization to public opinion ; hut the searching investigation to which every presentation is hollow and utterly inadequate to a ing, and quitted Vienna this morning. dustry or intelligence can successfully enforce a fidence."

From the Morning Chronicle.

since we congratulated our countrymen on the majestic moral victory of Monday, have but given us a deeper sense of its transcendant value. We cannot call it a dear bought triumph, though of the Provincial Agricultural Association, lately We have inspected the bulwarks of public order Cobourg, in the Newcastle District, on the first ing. sought in national fidelity to moral laws-and October next. have found them, humanly speaking, in pregnable. The Premiums awarded at the two former ex-our national unity. We can still make sacrifices. short of seven hundred pounds. We are still a united people. We still hold fast Thus, Gentlemen, you wil see that nearly one wide, unsocial world of London, where the ties of are wholly dependent upon you. are seem so slender, and where next-door An application will be ages which every other effort ting on the mea e our national grandeur by the number of sary to be taken under existing circumstances. It we lavish upon the ostentatious and costly Prince Metternich has taken to his beels. It is play of our power in every quarter of the globe. said that his residence on the Rennweg has been numerous public Societies from w this class of legislators-unfortunately a very rection 19 persons were killed and 14 wounded. the ene that Ministers can obtain, at any time, According to others the number slain on the 13th and virtue in general.

On the 14th all the troops (says the Zeitungsnet representatives-they have no constituents halle of Berlin), received orders to quit the city. The "disgraced" Duke Albert was commander-Government-and Government in this country in-chief of the army. Ten students were villed the Hungarian Parliament. Couriers were regularly despatched to St. Petersburgh and the people were to be put down with the high hand. 'The Vienna Gazette on the 14th inst. contained the following official notification :--" The Privy State Chancellor Prince Metternich has resigned his office into the hands of his Majesty the Empe-

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Austrian Observer of the 14th contains the following account of the late occurrences at Vienna:-

"The tranquility of our capital was disturbed class must participate-artisan, mechanic, manudepartment of our expenditure will be subjected, vesterday ; but, thanks to the energetic interven- facturer, and merchant. is the sure herald of great reductions and economy tion of the burgesses and the inhabitants, it is in the fature management of our finances. There now re-established. His Imperial Majesty, inare many collateral consequences to grow out of the otherwise apparently hopeless prospect of the present session of Parliament. The spirit of the House of Commons has shown that the rich rule all citizens are invited to enrol themselves. M. for their own profit and purposes-that our re- de Metternich, ex-Chancellor, resigned last evenexpression of popular convictions-that troops have completely evacuated the city' which privileges must be curtailed, and a more effective is now entrusted to the guard of the inhabitants, lasting got enfranchisement of the people secured before in- in whom his Imperial Majesty places all his con- looked for.

The four-and-twenty hours that have elapsed To the President, Vice-Presidents, Directors, Secretaries and Members of the Agricultural Societies throughout the Province.

we won it at a cost which arithmetic knows not held at Toronto, an extract from the proceedings how to measure. That grand metropolitan de- of which is hereto appended, * you will observe claration of allegiance to the principles that make and keep England what it is, is worth its price. ed to address the Agriculturalists throughout the ed to address the Agriculturalists throughout the or to say whether you will observe your means, either public or private, to the sup-have a strong case for their justification; and we material conditions that underlie industrial pros- Institution has been recently passed, and that its history, you will ruin the prospects now openperity have been incalculably strengthened. We under its provisions, two exhibitions have been ing before you. know now, as we did not know before, how deeply held, -one in Toronto in October, 1846, and the and solidly are the foundations laid on which the second in Hamilton, in October last. It is also and in the fullest confidence of your support com-

-those true "national defences" which are to be Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday in Commerce and shopkeeping have not taken the hibitions, amounted to about twelve hundred manhood out of us; nor have the distractions of pounds; of this sum, nearly three hundred pounds business, and the divisions of party, and the hourly remain yet unpaid. The amount required for clash of interests and of classes, firittered away Premiums at the next exhibition, will fall little together-class to class, and to man-in the ada- thousand nounds will be required for the above mantine bonds of civic fellowship. Even in this purpose, and for this the Provincial Association power of man will fail to accom From such considerations have ocieties for advantages have been produced,factures, and for encouraging knowled ed in the benefits, and dependent o and the genius and abilities of its population. In proportion as we can raise amongst ourselves those necessaries which all demand, and such proportion will be our true happiness and in-work of supererogation to dwell upon that topic. From small beginnings, within the term of As we disclaim having any personal feeling of thousand pounds per annum has been made to aid in the formation and extension of District, County stitution. It remains, therefore, for you, Gentlemen, and Such a result I cannt by possibility anticipate,

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient humble servant.

ADAM FERGUSON. President of the Provincial Agricultural Association, C. W.

LATEST ENGLISH NEWS. By Telegraph, by the Britannia, ----- April 22 Latest English papers, ----- April 15

The Western Canadian.

LONDON, C. W., THURSDAY, MAY 11, 184

Arrival of the Britannia.

out of their own mouths." foring serious loss in the attack': but on this very and lucrative professions are open to their children ; xertion in Sir Charles Metcalle out of their own mouths." Thering serious loss in the attack : but on this very and luciative processions are open to their children ; The country has now placed hose men, thus stig-matized, where they were before. Who now is it is the duty of Government to look to this, and so many right ? The elections of 1844, by which he and to retain or dismiss him on grounds arising solely advantages have been produced, — protecties for promoting science and literature, arts and manu-factures, and for encouraging knowledge, industry, last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years, were carried in the name of the last four years

Associations may be classed those for the support of agriculture and manufactures. Now, as all are more or less intimately concernskill of out the interference of the Governor General, for the office he holds. But when we look at The Absolutists talk of proscription, because one of "The late Councillors are the Plaintiffs-Sir Charles fetter the human mind. An insignificant drop of those supplies which the more wealthy require, in Jury, and every reader is a Juryman."

To follow the metaphor, the jury on the first the human mind, on the application of truth, swain's pipe, and the cat. in the benefits arising from such institutions, every being once referred to.

ganization has indeed been going on in isolated follow others in the eager cry for his dismissal : situations within the Province; and although a as that is a subject which can only be properly combination and centralization of our energies, no lasting good to the Province at large need be public service. There are some questions on

The means for such a union have now been which a government require urging on the part Circular from the Hon. Adam Ferguson. afforded by the Act passed for the Incorporation of the Provincial Association; and a grant of five them. The reform press has done its duty in laying afforded by the Act passed for the Incorporation of the Press ; but we do not think this is one of facts before the electors, and they have done their and Township Societies; but no money has, as duty by returning men of their own unbiased yet, been appropriated for the support of this in- choice, and these have brought back the Lafontaine and Baldwin administration with triumph : and we may now safely leave to that administrainterested) to say whether you will apply part of tion those duties for which they are responsible. -The ephemeral loss is a perennial gain. Indus-try has been sorely mulcted, but all the moral and You are aware that an Act incorporating this withholding your aid at this critical junctare of equally good reasons if they do not. Though in equally good reasons if they do not. Though in France the Parisians were sanctioned by all France in overturning the monarchy, they were wisely resisted when they attempted to govern France wast fabric of our social state silently reposes. decided that the next exhibition shall be held in mit the interests of the Institution to your keep- by dictating to the Provisional Government. The press should learn a lesson from this, and keep within their province; and that is, not to urge too for his office, or not satisfactorily co-operative As far as we can learn any particulars in defence vehemently either appointments or dismissals, with them, let them try his successor. lest they expose themselves to the charge of dictating to a responsible administration. To refer to the merits of the question, we agree with the character is an indispensable qualification for the tem disqualifies him for that office.

profession open to aspiring youth of Canada ; while worthy of being put in the Commission of the Peace. Foremost among these Governor General, against a party, stigmatized as to mould, by means of national education or na- And this is the reward of the pioneers of the Canathe tillers of the soil, it behoves all to aid and and against a corrupt Ministry, who used all the what is now taking place in Germany, all our fears their party is dismissed from his office ; what, then, by the military. On the 14th perfect order preby the military. On the 14th perfect order pre-vaited in Vienna. No pillage. Business was wholly suspended on the Bourse on the 14th.— Prior to this movement in Vienna it is said that Metternich had determined upon the Jissolution of Metternich had determined upon the Jissolution of the case, page 14 of the Metcalfe defence :- one. Such will always be the effect of attempting to of the mass of the people : Canada can now be governed, and British connection perpetuated, but "The late Councillors are the Plainting-Sir Charles water, though encased in iron, will burst its prison Captain Graham, who seem to consult only their it must not be by keeping in office such men as on the application of heat; how much more will old despotic habits, the Articles of War, the Boat-

> Wealth, in whatever shape, must in Canada, trial were misdirected by the Judge, and at a sub- break through all political restriction sooner or The following are the principal facts of the case as an agricultural country, spring from the soil, and proceed from the skill and industry of the farmer; and to encourage that industry and de- new trial was granted. That new trial resulted Prussian system was, as we were led to believe, the month of June last, four persons, whose names velope that skill, such Societies as "The Pro- in a verdict for the plaintiffs; and Dr. Rverson's in perfect operation. And here, we cannot but at present we need not publish, were travelling vincial Agricultural Association" are formed, and defence on the first trial, had not the honor of remark that the Rev. Dr. Ryerson's continental from Hamilton to London, and they expected to travels were of great use to him, -a splendid puff; arrive at Woods' Hotel, in Burford, on Saturday facturer, and merchant. Experience has so fully proved the thout complish any great object, that it would some a work of superpropertion to dwell work that tanin and there (politically,) he has arrived at last. Dr. Ryerson came out in the character of Leonidas,—voluntarily as he said,—and offered to throw htmself into the Thormopyle of Death; and there (politically,) he has arrived at last. and customs ; its morals, and politics, by taking were arrested, and their teams seized, by a man named aboat twenty years, a partial and imperfect or opposition to the Rev. Dr., we are not tempted to extent presumed he did. What now is the case ? out any written authority, and whose design it was The recent events in Prussia prove that he had to take them to Woodstock. The party demanded no extensive practical knowledge; for if his to be taken before the nearest resident Magistrate Prussian system was calculated to create and pre- which Stephens refused, but afterwards submitte serve a permanent nationality, Germany could to. Before two Magistrates, Rounds and Whitehead. serve a permanent nationality, Germany could not be in the state in which it now is. For that Stephens, still having, as before stated, no written system has borne no other fruit than that of liberty. Stephens, still having, as before stated, no written authority from any Magistrate, took the party four-Either Dr. Ryerson knew nothing of the country teen miles farther to Woodstock. The Jackall he has presumed to report upon, with regard to brought them to his Lion, Captain Graham. Let education, or he has been a zealous reformer in the reader remember this was Sunday. At Wooddisguise, wishing to sow the same seeds of liberty stock they were taken to an Inn, and their teams in Canada, by transplanting the Prussian system taken out of their possession. They were then tried, if that could be a trial which consisted in If we may so presume, we would say to our making out the costs, without hearing the parties cotemporaries of the Reform press, let Doctor in their defence. This land pirate demanded NINE

Ryerson alone; leave him in the hands of a responsible administration ; let his qualifications be he would send them to Gaol, and that next day he fairly tested; let him not be dismissed till a better would sell their teams by auction, and keep them is secured. Agitate for the School Bill to be in Gaol till they were sold. They then submitted, made more liberal, and for the power of the paid the money, and demanded a receipt, specifying Superintendent to be confined solely to obedi- the amount paid, and for what purpose : this was ence to acts of Parliament. And if the present refused. The party were kept in custody twentyadministration do not find Dr. Ryerson competent uine hours.

of education.

to the merits of the question, we agree with the Examiner on two other points, viz :- That moral Ryerson; and while we condemn him as they If this were true, how did Graham and his Jackall office of Superintendent of Common Schools, and action they seem to insist upon. But we would these persecuted people in custody twenty-nine that Dr. Ryerson's partiality to the Prussian sys-School Act, a new Act altogether, if State edu- themselves in the same secular business.

proposing the healt Governor we have h threatened, that if they did not pay in ten minutes.

of Captain Graham, there were some goods in the We have been led to these remarks by the waggon, which gave some color to the charge that Press, who are for immediately cashiering Dr. the party were profaning the Sabbath day, by proceeding from Brantford to Burford, only two miles. do, we do not join them as to the immediate keep the Sabbath? Just notice it !-- they kept.

Report of t

On the evening of the of Oxford determine a dinner to the Hou friends of the cause w the purpose of bearing Stevenson, of the I preparing the "sprea in a most substantial was crowded. The three sides of a square table sat the Chair Esq., of Dereham. Hon. Francis Hincks and Messrs. Niles and the left by the Hon Hall, Esq., of Ingerso of Nissouri. Mr. Jo occupied the ends of t men. The whole arra affair, got up, we beli tion, and reflected g of Ingersoll and Bee mittee. On the removal of t The Queen. Dran Prince Albert and ! the usual honours. The Governor Gene The Chairman felt this toast. He con

The Hon. Francis tative. Mr. Hincks said to receive from the of their kindness an he had just witness day obtained a g arduously laboure the reward of that expected of the pro fore, it was absol enjoy the people's that their acts wou able eye, till a pro by their measures served. There is o notice, with ref Robert Baldwin to of York. That A temperate tone misconstrued by represented it as inasmuch as it wa opposed to the public offices, and and that it was in that Reformers n offices. From hi Mr. Baldwin, he v mind that Mr. Bal and his party wou making a clean political oppone as by oppression had proved thems And, indeed, the practice of prosen opponents did not tried friends. that example? Carroll, returned would take a very

if every vacancy

tried friends of R.

Riddell had said

County Superinter Hincks) would a nently qualified fo great difficulty he there were more I

there were offices

gentleman then

Tory proscription, Council, when th

And having remain at length on every hearty thanks.

would take leave

From the Chair-

Responded to by observed that it w modest one." (La

Tory Press, who

the Ministry, wo

that modesty un

becoming; but on

he would, howeve

it. The Ministry

sessed the confide the greatest faith General; and, th borne by themse

the Press as a fa

obtain a fair sha

England, think

great centre of interest was Ireland. It cannot the decision must be made.

news from England. Her arrival, as well as the that fixes the standard of character, when some previous mail, had been waited for with intense other ruling passion fully accounts for such neighbours rarely know each other's tames, it sion of the Legislature for a grant from the public needs but the first call of duty, and we come funds in aid of this important Institution, and it is together by the hundred thousand-each for all, confidently expected to be successful. But it and all for each. must be clearly understood that no part of this and all for each. It was a great day for London and for England. As a people we have been weighed in the balance, and not found wanting In the cheerful promptitude, the ungrudging willingness, the conscien-tious self-devotedness with which all classes have submitted to throw away a day's industry, and It is proper that you should be informed that, revolutions, need make us afraid.

State of Germany.

THE AUSTRIAN REVOLUTION.

clusively, an account of the overthrow of Prince held, but had fled. It is not to be wondered at that an old man, grown grey in shifts, fears, ba- of this Institution, which must, if supported, comtaken to his heels, when young French princes, deed be surprising, if on that account alone, I generals and warriors, at the very first brush of should not feel a great anxiety and lively interest something like danger to their precious per- in the success of our infant society. But being a 8008-

"Screamed and shouted-'Lost, lost, lost !"" and left young wives and young children to fight well as the science of Agriculture, in a part of for themselves

The Diet was opened in the usual form on the 13th, when a large number of students, headed by their professors, proceeded to the chamber, in order to present a petition in favor of various reforms. Immense crowds soon collected ; the military were called out; their muskets were loaded in presence of the people, and extraordinary measures were taken to prevent disturbance. Soon after the opening of the Diet, Prince fessions, it would indeed be strange, as it would Montecuoli and several of the deputies, accompanied by an immense crowd, proceeded to the palencourage that great class of the commu ace with the address. The crush was enormous. A great number of well-dressed people thronged should be permitted to languish for the hall where the Diet assembled. The peasanpecuniary sustenance. try were crowding the streets, anxious to learn, whether the constitution was ready." Towards evening affairs became alarming ; all the shops husbandry encounter great difficulties, if not direct clusion. were closed, the palace of the states was entered opposition, from those whose interest it is to supand ransacked, and the arsenals were literally beport them, and therefore work their way very sieged by the people. In the nick of time, howslowly; whereas innovations and improvement make popular concessions, not, however, before made in the mechanic and manufacturing departments are seized upon and turred to advantage as numerous persons were killed and wounded. The intelligence that Metternich had resigned; that soon as promulgated. The reason of this is obvious. Manufacturers, mechanics, mercantile men and the two unpopular archdukes, Lewis and Albert, various other classes, are generally residents of. had been disgraced-in other words, deprived of and congregated in, the towns and villages, and their functions ; that the Counts Kolowrath and have intercourse and interchange of sentiments, Montocuoli had been entrusted with the formation by reason of greater facilities than the farmers. of a new Ministry ; that liberty of the press had from their isolated position, can ever possess. We ordered to be organized-spread like wildfire, and must therefore, if we would improve our condition been conceded, and that a national guard had been either physically, morally, or mentally, remove alled forth the most extravagant demonstrations the obstacles by increased exertion, and determine of joy. On the night of the 13th and 14th Vito unite and make common cause with our brethand was brilliantly illuminated. I his posterior ren all over the world, in placing our profes upon a scientific foundation, by which, with far gurien Dist and the students in Vienna. The less labour and toil, we may expect to reap adresolution expressed by the former, to separate from Austria if certain demands for reform were . Notes from Minutes of Committee Meeting : and gave rise to a similarly energetic de-tion. The Emperor has given permission Resolved .-- That an appeal to the several Agricultur Societies of Western Canada be drawn up and circulate monstration. The Emparor has given permission to the students to take arms, with the view of preserving public tranquility; and has, moreover, appointed a committee, composed of the members of the states and of the class of citizens, for the discharge a novel harrassing, and perilous public in future, all sums of money, voted or otherwise, duty, we have the best of pledges for the per-petuity of that Providential guardian-ship which Societies throughout the Province, shall be apnever forsakes a nation that reverences moral law. plied solely to the payment of premiums; and With this in our hearts, not all the crash of fall- that the local expenses, for enclosures, erections ing thrones, nor the whirlwind roar of European of buildings and other necessary preparations, shall be borne by the inhabitants of the locality in Besides the sum necessary for the last men tioned purpose, which will not be less than £250, In the Daily News of Monday appeared, ex- to be raised by subscription in the vicinity of Cobourg, I am authorised to state that the several is true that seven days later may not have been government; putting in and out of offices their utmost opposition. Phillip Graham, of Woodstock, Placed, as I have the honour to be, at the head lancings, and intrigues, and lately, it is said, snub-mand an influence upon the destinies of Canada are therefore just as anxious as we were before saw contention of parties at every election will Peace, and consequently an Esquire and gentleman the Imperial family, should fairly have beyond that of any other Association, it would inthe arrival of the Britannia.

> practical farmer myself, and having spent nearly Extra, re-published in the present number. It out, a more extended liberality to their political for the last seven years, to teach him better. As last, at noon. There was a good attendance of half a century amidst the practical operations as

> be more general than is now reported. So far as this fact is substantiated, we may safely con-strengthened in public opinion. The partizans of Her Majesty's dominions which stands unsurpass ed for spirit, zeal and industry in the eause of husbandry, I cannot sufficiently express to you clude that there will be a large consumption of their political opponents fill almost nine tenths of he thinks that he is as invulnerable to punishment, taken £15 per acre all round, before the sale the deep solicitude with which I regard the dawn grain and produce in Europe, where, consequent- the public offices; consequently, the government as he is impervious to all proper feeling towards the commenced; but it will be seen that £28 per acre of a scientific system, which has done so much for the Farmers of the British Isles. of Canada cannot do amiss by putting in seed of incapacity without their opponents raising the cry hands. Amidst the various associations formed on every hand for the purpose of fostering and protecting the arts, sciences, and the numerous learned pro of a dear market in Europe. be disreputable to the people of this Province. this association, calculated as it is to support and affords conclusive evidence that up to the 22nd rage on the part of their political opponents when allords conclusive evidence that up to the 22nd rage on the part of their political opponents when ult. there was no apprehension that the political they are announced—a pelting storm of abuse where he ought to be—and that is, out of the first whom all others must look for the supply of food, commotions of Europe would affect the stability which they can only resist by having a strong of the Commission of the Peace. It has been one of the monarchy, or the supremacy of peace and case, in every instance, for the vindication of their of the most keenly felt grievances of the inhabitants It has been charged, and I fear with too much truth, upon Agriculturists, that improvements in order ; all our information encourages this on, acts.

The Chief Superintendent of Education.

No one can wonder at the zeal and perseve-no proscription. It will be hard, however, to republican sympathies, the most rigid ultra Tory rance with which some of the Reform journals raise the cry of proscription should Dr. Ryerson Magistrates were selected, as if the object had been Montreal. It brings before the public a subject pursue the subject of removing from office the be removed; for as in the case of the woman to cause the people to be disgusted with British of much importance at this time, and deserves present Chief Superintendent of Common Schools, with the seven husbands, so with Dr. Ryerson, connection, and forever to alienate them from that more than a passing notice. We shall give it We perfectly agree with our cotemporary the who can claim him ? Both parties have had him Crown for which their forefathers sacrificed both life our earliest attention. Examiner, that his appointment was a scandolous over and over agoin ; and it is very questionable and property. These grievances were the seeds of job,-the reward of his services for writing in fa- whether he has a party to own him, to make the Rebellion of 1837. In this respect, it is now vor of Lord Metcalfe's paternal despotism. And out a case of proscription.

notwithstanding the boasted solidity of his argu- Though it is our opinion that Dr. Ryerson has ments, his pompous threatenings and his plausible no claim whatever to the office he holds on politi- debt of lasting obligation, for their adventurous special pleadings, the very men whom he thus cal grounds, it is not improbable that he may conduct in settling in Canada, and making it by tried to write down are replaced in office with a have as good claims as many, in other respects. their labours what it now is, are yet nothing but greater majority than ever occurred before in the He is a native of Canada, and has some claim to simple yeomen, without the benefit of such an edu-weekly, letters should be posted at the London history of Canada. This, if nothing else sup- the attributes of patriotism; he is well known to cation for their children as would have been obtained Post Office on or before Sunday. All letters and

The Rev. Dr. had the assurance to say: (see may have had a predilection for promoting educa-Metcalfo defence No. 3, page 48)-" The reader tion, which may have prompted him to bid too men, and among the wealthiest of the people of session of the Magnetic Telegraph, and suffered no come will have seen that I have judged the accusers of high for office, and even to take it by storm, suf- that country; where a variety of public offices munications but such as they approved.

As to the moral character of the present occupresent state of the law there is no responsibility grievance as this, so far as it may be in their power, pant, we know perhaps as much as any of our of the Board of Education to the people; but if within twenty-four hours after ascertaining the truth cotemporaries; and we would advise them to be the head of the Education to the people; but if within twenty-four hours after ascertaining in the of the board of the Education of the people; but if within twenty-four hours after ascertaining in the ment even for that short time. ment even for that short time. less claims for office on this ground. Concerning a responsibility to the people would be assured, moral character there is much danger of delusion and consequently a proper and effective admini-Our Extra of Tuesday evening announced the and mistake. It is not one offence against the stration of the School Laws. arrival of the Britannia, with seven days later moral code, or occasional repetitions of offence,

The Woodstock Aristocracy.

We hate proscription, whether applied to indianxiety on this side of the Atlantic ; and the offences ; it is the habits of the person on which viduals, to classes, or to creeds. We admire British for £250. gentlemen just as much as the gentlemen of all be said that in respect to Ireland we are much The present ministry are strong in public other nations. Who can dispute that the qualities In the hurry of business we have omitted to relieved. The trials of the seditious leaders were opinion ; to continue so, they must be temperate, which go to make up that character, such as refinenotice, so early as/we ought, the return of Mr. which the exhibition for the time being shall be proceeding, but the remaining portion of intelli-and wise, in their administration ; they must have ment, unaffected courtesy to all, and a high sense ROBERT WILSON, after passing the necessary gence from Dublin is of too doubtful a character; a good cause for every act, arising out of the of honor and integrity, might be planted and inculif it does not increase our fears, it gives very present state of the country. The less they do, cated with great alvantage among all communities? of Toronto. We believe Mr. Wilson to be just little encouragement to hope; for the state of Ire-land, as reported up to the 15th April, was such to have effect, retrospectively, the better; by-gones must be bygones to some extent; and if Meternich, and of riots in Vienna. Later ac-counts show that the Austrian minister had not set the collorne, and New-counts show that the Austrian minister had not set the example? We are not going only fallen from the eminence he had so long that it is very difficult to conceive would con-tinue so many days without coming to a crisis. It had the words attributes of party the mushroom pretenders we shall ever direct our committed to his care.

sufficient for the maturing of Ireland's fate. We friends on party grounds alone ; and so the see- is a Captain in the Royal Navy, a Justice of the Sale of Park Lots in the vicinity of London. never stop. The present ministry can, with by law. But there is something else necessary The low Flats situated at the West end of the Scarcely any comment is necessary on other great advantage, commence the new, impartial to support the legal title. One would think that Town, were sold by auction by Mr. P. Bennett, subjects ; it will be sufficient to refer to our and business-like system ; and if even in carrying Captain Graham had received reprimands enough at Balkwill's Hotel, Dundas-street, on Monday There is war in Europe ; and probably it will opponents is manifested ; while these will have no long as the old Family Compact and their satellites buyers, many of whom were much surprised at ly, a less quantity will be raised. The Farmers cannot dismiss an individual for misconduct or unfortunate individuals who happen to fall into his was realized. Mr. B. performed his part with much gusto, and succeeded in provoking a spirited every description to the full extent of their means, of Proscription, as they have done in the case of If the following account be true, and we have it competition. The following were the prices in order to enable them to secure the advantage Mr. Ferres, in Lower Canada. We have good from one of the individuals of the party, after realized for the twenty lo's put up for sale :-reason to believe that several cases of dismissal allowing a reasonable discount for their justly Lots East of Wharncliffe Road, about three The English funds have rather improved, which will occur, and the ministry must expect a perfect irritated feeling, there are sufficient facts to make acres each.-Highest price, £39 per acre ; lowest. out a case against Graham, which we hope will, on £24.

> Lots West of Centre Street, about three acres each .- Highest price, £31 per acre ; lowest, £24. Lots East of Centre Street, from three to nine of this part of Canada, that in those very localities acres each :- Highest price, £51 per acre; That they will have such cases, and will not where the population was chiefly composed of iowest £25.

> > We have received a pamphlet, by "L." on the

The Canada Gazette, of May 6th, announces

State of Education, published by J. C. Becket committed to his care. the price realized per acre. It was stated in the room that the owner, J. Kent, Esg., would have been forced into of many of the u take that occasion to get Mr. Price vielded only to th t would give add There was not a the Administrati colleagues. (Hea Mr. Hincks pro Chairman and the He trusted that himself and the had been his ain ferent footing fro Cameron. What covering the fe (None.) He (M make himself a country, and with worthy Chairman lent representativ Mr. VanNorma pursued one tra such a triumph o afforded, was to I had gone through Our Guests. Warden of the that the Hon. 1 taught in a log took him back meet under a tr And another gen early settlers had recollected when the part of the return sincere th manner in which t Mr. J. Charles, brother Reformers o The Hon. M. C self a Lower Can and replied to this Without wishing friend, Mr. Niles, and without any undergone the ha body of Reforme history of the ca formars existed b tical existence ; of this occasion t Canada Reformers he could wish t understood by th liable to be misi libels on their on every occasion

That they will have such cases, and will not dismiss a single individual without, we have the fullest confidence; consequently, there will be down all republican affinitics, and suppressing all well known, the ignorant and tyrannical Govern- the appointment of Dr. Southwick as one of the ment of Canada of former days almost succeeded. Many of those families, to whom Canada owes a the Royal Mail Steamers which leave Halifax

Coroners of the London District. ENGLISH MAIL .- In order to be in time for

