R. depot, where a number of pieces will be rendered previous to the departure of the train, which leaves at 8:30. sault Case at the Police Court-

There was an unusually large crowd at the Police Court this morning, as there generally is when anything unusual is on the list. The announcement that the case in which Stephen A. Barnhart, of 195 Colborne street, is charged with an indecent assault on Paul, the 6-year-old boy of Israel Quick, painter, 190 Colborne street, would come up this morning, no doubt accounted for the fact. But they were doomed to disappointed, so far as hearing anything was concerned. When the rest of the business had been dispensed with the court room was cleared and only those directly interested were allowed to remain. -The Case Dismissed.

The little bcy was placed on the stand and first examined by Mr. Ed. Meredith, and first examined by Mr. Ed. Meredith ounsel for Barnhart.
