A most contemptible trick was perthe supporters of Mr. MacLaren. It is well known that Rev. Father O'Neill, of Kinkora, refused to take any part in the elections, and he was more than surprised to learn that a letter bearing his signature had been circulated through the adjoining township of Logan, instructing Catholics how to vote. The forgery was a clumsy one, but it was a case requiring more cheek than brains, and it worked well. Dr. Gray's Hair Tonic and Dandruff Laren. The document was used where it was likely to do most good, and fugitives, women and children. There are 5,000 at Gonia and 7,000 at Point Plata. The women are so weakened by exposure and lack of food that they can no longer suckle their children, who are dying by the hundreds. M. Scouloudi says that Americans are the only people who cannot be suspected of having any ulterior motives, therefore the only people who can undertake this great humanitarian work without exciting jealousy and disagreement. It may be called to mind that in 1868 Admiral Farragut took care of the women and children under similar circumstances, when Mr. Seward was Secretary of State. When remonstrated with on that occasion by anti-Pacha Mr. Marris, the United States Minister at Constantinople made the noble reply: "When we Americans undertake an act of humanity we don't ask the advice of anyone."
