Ceylon Tea is not only a stimulating beverage. but highly nourishing to those of weak digestion. Sold only in sealed lead packets. By all grocers,

Given the Gold Medal and Highest Award at St. Louis.

The dawn crept through the window and found Harold Faradeane still pacing to and fro. Later the morning grew rosy and bright and soft with the breath of early summer, and as he rode up the lane the rays of sunlight pierced the intervals of the pines, and fell slantwise upon his handsome face and short, wiry hair. It was a morning when one is tempted to join in the concert of the birds; but there was no sign of lightness of heart in the pale face, and a shadow as of coming pain was on the dark eyes. He rode up to the Grange gates, and was passing through when he saw a form, closely wrapped in Shetland shawl, half-sitting, lying on the rustic seat beside the lodge porch. It was Bessie. At sight of him a delicate rose tint suffused her face, and a swift change, as if one of the rays of sunlight had touched them, flew Harold Faradeane pulled up the high-bred horse and slipped from the sad-"I'm glad to see you out, Miss Bessie," he said. "You are looking your old self again; but you must take sir," said Bessie, with the slight, little pant in her voice which always came there when she spoke to him. "Quite

"But you are not to be reckless, all the same," he said. "For instance, keep that nice shawl more closely round you," and he drew it together. Bessie's face grew red, and stifled a little sigh that was like the quiver of a leaf stirred by the wind, as his hands touched her. 'You are very good to me, sir," she said in a very low voice. "Yes, it is a nice shawl, isn't it? It is one of dear Miss Olivia's. She brought it down to me this morning, and put it round me with her own, dear hands. His own hands fell from the shawl, and his eyes dropped "That was kind of her," he said, al-

"Kind! Why, she is all kindness, she and you, Mr. Faradeane." He smiled absently.

more than that, Bessie. And Miss Vangone back to the house?" she was going into the Spinney-the wood, you know, sir.' She paused a moment, looking wistfully at him, and with the quick intuition which was a never-ceasing subject

She colored, and plucked at the fringe "I don't think she was quite happy this morning Mr. Faradeane." he said, slowly.

of Bertie's admiration, he said:

"Not happy!" "Well, I think, I am sure she had been crying. She was so pale and—and sad. And besides," naively, "I know for certain she had been crying, because she smiled and tried to laugh; and I could-could-"

"Hear the tears in her voice," he said, more to himself than the girl. Bessie nodded quickly.

"Yes, that's the words, sir; and it seems so—so dreadful to me that Miss Olivia should have any trouble; it's just as if an angel were to cry," and her own eyes grew dim.
"I understand," he said. He stood for a moment looking down at the path, and flicking his leg with his riding-whip; then he said, "And Miss Vanley went to the wood, Bessie?" 'Yes, sir," she replied; "and oh, Mr. Faradeane, if you-She stopped abashed. "Well?" he asked, with a faint

"I was going to say, only I'm afraid, if you'd only go and find her and talk to her. She thinks so much of you-" She stopped again, for the smile had suddenly vanished from his face. "That's nonsense, Bessie," he said.

Take No Risk

Further Developments May Prove Fatal-There Is Cure for You In

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP of LINSEED and TURPENTINE

If you could depend on a cold passing off of its own accord it would be all very well to let it run its course.

Consumption and pneumonia always have their beginnings in a cold. every cold you will never be a victim of Kenny was on his way home about welcome addition to the places of these or other fatal lung troubles.

Kenny was on his way home about welcome addition to the places of amusement for those who don't apprethese or other fatal lung troubles.

Did you ever wait to think of it

Turpentine is best known on account able in appearance and fairly well-coughs and colds, throat irritation and the many diseases of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs it has made an enviable reputation for reliability. Pleasant to take, thorough and far-

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle.

"Oh, throw him out, too," said one of the crowd, and a dozen or more started toward him. Kenny led with his right and then turned loose some astonishing upper-cuts and cross jabs. In less time than it takes to tell it six of the crowd were down and out and the rest had fallen back in amazement.

The projected electric railway up Mount Blanc is to be completed within six years.

•••••• as it happens, I want to see Miss Vanley, and I'll go and find her."
"Yes, sir," said the girl, humbly. Are-are you angry with me?" and er lips quivered piteously. 'Angry with you, my dear child!' he exclaimed, reassuringly, and he patted her arm under the thick shawl. paused almost imperceptibly—"but you must not talk such nonsense as that Miss Vanley thinks much or at all of

"But she does!" interrupted Bessie, eagerly. "If you only heard her—" "I mustn't hear you any longer, you foolish child, or I shall miss Miss Van-

And with another gentle and-to Bessie-forgiving touch, he turned and rode towards the wood. All through the night Olivia had lain awake, tossing to and fro, like a soul struggling in chains. The scene with Bartley Bradstone seemed like a hideous dream, from which, try as she would, she could not awake.

That he should have dared to tell her that he loved her, have asked her be his wife, was torture enough to her proud, maiden spirit; but that her father should be in his toils, and his happiness and even life-for she knew that Bartley Bradstone spoke only the truth when he said that to leave the Grange would mean death to the squire -was an agony almost insupportable.

At any time in the past the idea of accepting him would have been repugnant; but now, since the last few days, she shrank from the prospect with an absolute lothing. She rose, pale and weakened, bewildered; she felt she could not meet her father that morning. She dreaded to hear even Bartley Bradstone's name. And yet what escape was there for her? If what he had said were true, he held her in an iron thrall. For her father she would sacrifice anything—life itself. But she must have time to think, time to realize must pass; time to learn how to school her voice and conceal the agony that racked her. Taking up her hat, and telling the footman that her father was not to wait breakfast for her, she went out, caring nothing about the direction she she wandered aimlessly on to the woods and throw herself down on the heney, of Cobourg, was badly cut in thick undergrowth in an abandon of

She - she Bartley Bradstone's wife; she could not endure the sight of his face, she upon whose ear his very voice and laugh jarred! It was terrible; and yet-and yet there was no other 'I'm afraid I'm made of something way of saving her father, whom she loved with a passionate devotion. Her hot hands clasped each other forcely y has been here, has she? Has she her cheek burned as if she could almost feel the outrage of the man's he was going into the Spinney—the kiss; then the paroxysm passed, and left her pale and wan and weary, and she lay with her head against a tree and her hands lying loosely in her lap, lovelier in her exhaustion than in her passionate indignation. And it was at this moment that Harold Faradeane, leading his horse up the narrow footpath, came upon her. For a moment she did not hear the sound of the horse's feet upon the thick undergrowth of moss and bracken; then seemed as if she felt the dark, sad eyes fixed upon her, for she turned her head and her pale, lovely face growing warmer, rose to her feet, putting her hand to her brow with a half-startled gesture. He tossed the bridle over the horse' neck, and came towards her; and as being Bartley Bradstone's wife seem ed more terrible now than it had done a few weeks ago; knew by the sudden leap of her heart, the swift rush of her young blood through all her veins at the sight of this other man!

"I'm afraid I startled you," he said as he took her hand; it burned and throbbed like an imprisoned bird in his firm grasp. "Miss Bessie told me I should find you here, for I was lucky enough to hit upon the right path. What a delightful spot you have chosen! A perfect dryads' nook," he added, round slowly.

She put her hands to her face and smoothed her hair, with one of those delicate, little touches, peculiar to her, and stopped for her hat, which she had tossed aside, but he was quicker, and

[To be Continued.]

YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS At New Orleans-Far East, 7 to 5; to 5; Edith May, 4 to 1; St. Sever, 13

THE RING. AN ABRUPT ENDING.
Philadelphia, Jan. 10.—The bout between "Buddy" Ryan, of Chicago, and Fred
Douglass, of Savannah, which was sched-

Douglass, of Savannah, which was scheduled to go six rounds last night at the Washington Sporting Club, was abruptly ended at the conclusion of the fourth round through a mistake made by one of Douglass' seconds. The men had been putting up a good fight until the fourth round, when Ryan assumed the aggressive and sent the southern man to his corner in a groggy condition. By mistake a second threw ammonia water in his face, thinking it was water. Douglass was temporarily blinded. His condition was such that it was impossible for him to continue the bout.

FLOORED SIX AT ONCE. New York, Jan. 9. - "Yank" Kenny, the sparring partner of Jim Jef-fries, the champion pugilist, turned Good Samaritan Saturday and landed in a Brooklyn station, but was released today in time to start west and join Jeffries at Sioux City, the court con-Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and and a man about 60 years old, respectinto the place to get a drink; several of a crowd of youths in the saloon began to jeer him and when he remonstrated they grabbed him and threw

- state of the section of the sectio

RAMBLERS

the Junior Hortons at Jubilee Rink.

That intermediate hockey in London is, as it should be, much faster than the junior class, was demonstrated last night at the Jubilee Rink, when the Ramblers defeated the Hortons by a score of 12 to 2. The Hortons did not have their regular team on the ice or the score might have changed materially.

The Hortons lacked the combination that the Ramblers showed, and at times the playing was very one-sided. "Why should I be angry? But"-he McMahen, McLennan and the other forwards played splendidly, and the defense men made good rushes from time to time. The score at half time stood 5 to 2. In the second period the Ramblers shot many goals. The game was a good workout for both teams, however, as things were mixed up often. The line-up: Ramblers.

> McGuffin Point .. A. Carrothers Gauthier.....Cover McMahen.....Center Livingstone Smith.....Left wingGraham Underhill......Right wing Taggie McLennan.....Rover

Stevens......Goal

Ingersoll-Goal, Cross; point, Moore; over, Clark; forwards, Ramsay, Kelly, Grimsby, Ont., Jan. 9. - Grimsby defeated Hamilton here tonight in a very hard game of hockey in the intermedia ate series, O. H. A. Score, 10 to 9.

Goderich, Ont., Jan. 9. - The game tonight between Clinton and Goderich, intermediate series, O. H. A., resulted the awful ordeal through which she in an easy victory for the home team, Score at half time, 12 to 2 in favor of Goderich. Total score, 21 to 5.

Belleville, Ont., Jan. 9. - Belleville and Cobourg, O. H. A. junior teams, played here tonight, the locals winshould take, and after leaving Bessie 4 to 1, but in the second half the home ning by 11 to 3. Half-time score was heney, of Cobourg, was badly cut in the first half and had to retire, Pepper

Galt, Jan. 9.-Galt lost to Ingersoll 3 to 1. The game was not a first-class being 1 to 1 in their favor at half time. turned the table and notched three. while the locals failed to tally. The

WOODSTOCK EASY

BADLY DEFEATED

by Fifty Shots to the St. Thomas Club.

A severe defeat was administered to six rinks of the Thistle Club curlers at St. Thomas yesterday, only one of the rinks—that skipped by S. D. Swift—being successful, it winning from a strong St. Thomas four by eight shots. There were a number of old-time skips on London's side, and how they lost to St. Thomas is a mystery. The score: St. Thomas. A. N. C. Black, London Thistles. W. W. Thompson, H. C. McBride, R. Burkholder, Tillmann, Talbot..... Ranahan, S. McNee, W. Gleyer N. Wheeler, W. Graham, harles King,

J. Lamb,
E. Sterling,
V. R. Miller. D. Christmas. S. O. Perry, George Ellison, J. M. Glenn.... E. Ponsford, A. McCorkell, J. Walker. . H. Ward, . H. Ward, . Finchamp, . M. R. Graham . J. Clark, V. Bartlett, Rivard. '. Sutherland.

Reynolds

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 9. - The first Broomfield, Pickard and Wright, nockey match of the season took place here tonight between the Frontenacs and Smith's Falls in the senior O. H. Woolson and Barrow, Referee-"Cully" Farnsworth, Wood-A. series. Score: Frontenacs 1, Smith's > Port Hope, Ont., Jan. 9. - A wellcontested game in the O. H. A. junior series was played here tonight between Peterboro and the Second Ontarios, resulting in a victory for the home team by a score of 2 to 1.

> The Hortons go to Simcoe tonight to play the junior team of that place. A fast team will be taken down.

Next Thursday night, Jan. 12, St. Marys O. H. A. Hockey Club plays in Ailsa Craig. Immediately following this game the Lucan Club will play the Ail-

STRONG TALK.

Berlin, Ont., Jan. 9. - An important statement has been made of special interest to those who play both hockey P. A., is secretary-treasurer of the W. here tonight in an O. H. A. game by F. A. and of the Ontario Association amateurism. He thinks not a single departure for Port Arthur. In the second half, however, the visitors | hockey player should be allowed to play football in any recognized association. Galt-Goal, Herriott; point, Dennis: he is innnocent of professional taint," cover, McNally; forwards, Grummett, said Mr. Forsyth, he did so Olivia knew why the idea of Oxford County Town Juniors Clubbed By Chinese Boxers and Outclassed -Ailsa Craig Wins Game.

FOR STRATFORD

The Stratford Juniors went to Woodfrom the Woodstock seyen. Killer playtalking to her to give her time to re-cover from her surprise, and looking was 4 to 0 and 9 to 2 at the conclusion. Harry Peel, of London, made an excellent referee. The line-up: Stratford-Goal, Rankin; point, Roberts; coverpoint, Baker; forwards, Mc-

Callum, Davidson, Killer and Hamil-Woodstock-Goal, Childs; point, Merrigold; coverpoint, Leva Mathews; forwards, Tree, A. Mathews, Dingwall and

At St. Marys last night the Ailsa Merry Acrobat, 12 to 1; Florentine, 2 Craig seven defeated the home team by a score of 5 to 3. In the first half, the score stood 3 to 3, and in the second the Craigites forged ahead and secured two more points. The game was clean and fast. Referee Jack Brown, of London, gave the best of satisfaction. The line-up:

St. Marys - Goal, Tracey; point, Hutching; coverpoint, Morrison; right, Hutchings; left, Stricker; center, Pee-Ailsa Craig-Goal, Alexander; point, Alexander; coverpoint, Parker; right, Cossie; left, White; center, McDonald;

LONDON'S COLISEUM

Gigantic New Place of Amusement for British Metropolis.

London, Jan. 9. - Close to Trafalgar Square a great building has just been completed, which is called "The Coliseum," and was opened before Christmas sidering his actions justifiable. While as a popular place of entertainment, doing his 'Christian act' "Yank" inci-If you take prompt means of curing dentally floored six men with his fists. many of its features is likely to be a street, Brooklyn. Just then the front ciate problem plays and are sick of door of the saloon was thrown open the music halls, whose programmes are often in questionable taste. "The Colof its extraordinary control over croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and severe chest colds.

As a means of overcoming ordinary able in appearance and fairly well-dressed, was roughly ejected by half a dozen young fellows. Kenny said ne asked the man what the trouble was, and was told by him that he had gone with the wholesome amusement of the with the wholesome amusement of the people, As a palace it is a marvel both outside and inside, and it covers some 40 acres of ground, Every seat will be booked. Prices from sixpence Pleasant to take, thorough and farreaching in action, and certain in its beneficial results, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine should have a place in every house as a safeguard against consumption and other fatal There will be four performances daily

WORLD'S CHAMPION GLOBE-TROTTER

African Savages But He Kept On.

London, Jan. 9.-There are globestock last night, and did not have great trotters innumerable, but the term is difficulty in defeating their opponents. elastic, and there are few who really The good combination of the visitors have trotted the globe-that is to say, practically allowed them to run away gone round it on foot. This distinction, however, belongs to Mr. George M. Schilling. Seven years ago, as the result of a bet of $5,000, he set out from New York clad in a paper suit, and without a cent in his pocket.

Unfortunately, the send-off was marred by a somewhat amusing incident. A military band had been engaged to play the adventurer out of the city. In consequence of the warm weather they refused to turn out at the last minute. A few trumpeters streets they soon found themselves in thrust upon him. the lock-up, and had to pay a fine as

New York within seven years. Food had defied medical skill. among English-speaking people the lecturing on his experiences and by selling picture-postcards of son that he was the first European to walk through Japan he was kept under police escort all the way, being passed on from town to town. The Japanese amused him. Even in the inland villages he found them zealous students of the English language. Naturally they improved the occasion by learning all they could from him, Have an Easy Time With Six Rinks of Thistles Lost of ten wished he had been a dumb man. However, he had little reason to complain, since they were exceedingly hospitable to him wherever he went, so hospitable, indeed that all the while he was in their country he did not equire money.

The state of the s

From Japan he went to China. The curious Chinaman gave him a somewhat flattering reception, pestering him with little attentions. Wherever he went a great crowd followed, and at night they lay down at the door of his dwelling. On the occasion of his visit the Boxer rising was just being settled. This caused him trouble, as the natives suspected him. On one occasion he was clubbed and left for

He then crossed into India, where the dog which had followed him all the way from New York died. Later on he arrived in South Africa in time to see the finish of the Boer war. His intention was to tramp through the continent, and come out at Cairo. But on arriving at Uganda the authorities discouraged him, and he made for the The natives threatened him so that his life was in continual dan-ger, and he had practically to fight his way out of the country. He worked his way along the coast into Egypt and later to Turkey. There he again had the misfortune to come on the scene of warfare. The Armenian trouble was at its height, and the Turks suspecting that Mr. Schilling had other motives for being in their country than merely to walk through it, cast him into prison. In spite of protests they kept him under lock and key for some months, with the result that he had to give up all hope of getting to the end of his walk within the time limit. Consequently he lost the

For the last two years the "Onearmed Athlete,' as he calls himself, has been leisurely pottering about

CRONSTADT IS RUSSIAN MECCA

Father John Draws Pilgrims by the Thousands to the City.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 10. - One of the most noted figures in Russia just now is Father John of Cronstadt. High and low regard him as a latter-day saint, and marvelous stories are told of his miraculous powers. Before going to war or engaging in a great undertaking and Association football, D. Forsyth, it is the ambition of his countrymen to seek a blessing from the noted priest. 3 to 1. The game was not a first-class exhibition, little combination being played by either side. Galt had the played in Ontario today is professional, better of it in the first half the george that the george is a constant of the second in the played in Ontario today is professional, sacred picture carried by the ill-fated It will be rememberd that it was Father John who blessed the ikon or though masquerading under a guise of Admiral Makaroff at the time of his Father John was born on Nov. 1 1829, in the village of Surskoye, in "I am going so far as to bring in a the Government of Archangel. Since game was free from roughness, not a single player being penalized. Farns- associations to bar from playing the Dec. 25, 1855, he has been attached to the Andreas Cathedral in the famous worth, of Woodstock, refereed and game of football any and every hockey failed to catch many off-sides. The player in the O. H. A. or other association, unless he can show positively that three men who may be said really to the men who men who interest the outside world-they are the Czar, Tolstoi and Father John, each of whom represents a section of Russian society. The Czar is held in awe; Tolstoi, "crying in the wilderness" on behalf of the moujiks, is loved by them and loathed by the bureaucracy; Father John is reverenced and adored by he masses, who have unbounded faith his alleged powers of healing the sick and of performing miracles of var-

The mind of the moujik offered a peculiarly fruitful ground for the first seeds of the belief in the priest's miraculous powers. Inheriting the accumulated superstition of ages and being under the pastoral care of a priesthood whose enlightenment is scarcely superior to that of its flocks and whose fitful activity is confined to instilling nto its followers "the letter that killeth," the peasantry heralded Father

John as a saint. During the last quarter of a century Cronstadt has become the Mecca toward which the steps of the faithful are turned; the port has taken the place held so long by "Mother Moscow" and "Holy Kieff." Through the dusty ways of summer and across the dreary plains of snow in the long winter pilgrims beg their toilsome way to Cronstadt from the furthest corners of the empire. years the stream of pilgrims has been a nuisance to the town, but the authorities could not interfere through were hastily gathered together to do fear of arousing popular indignation. honor to the occasion, but as they To the credit of the simple priest it were not licensed to perform in the may be said that this fame has been

A few cases in which recovery was the penalty of their enthusiasm.

Mr. Schilling's object was to walk round the world, calling at all the fame as being able to heal the sick and principal towns, and to be back in give sight to the blind in cases which and clothing he had to find as best masses the fame of Father John passed The only conditions laid quickly and easily to the official classes. down to him were that he must not and thus he is summoned alike to the beg or borrow. As soon as he was palace of the rich and to the peasant's out of New York money was practi-hut to aid in the fight against death. cally thrown at him, and he was en-abled to shed his paper suit for more comfortable wear. Whenever he came which he devotes to charity and to adventurer contrived to earn a liveli- building churches and shrines. So large is the stream of the pilgrims that hostelries abound for housing them, These hostelries exploit the devout in every After crossing America he shipped conceivable manner. The portraits of to Austria. From thence he crossed the Cronstadt priest are to be seen on to New Zealand, then back to Australia, and on to Japan. For the reasian.

AND MARCH

Bottle Purity Carling's Ale bottles are chemically cleansed and thoroughly disinfected by special Every bottle is carefully inspected and passed upon by an expert before being used When filled the bottles are corked air-tight and placed in cold storage where the Ale is aged six months before being placed on the market. Ask for Carling's Ale-accept no other because no other is quite so good Carling's Ale The Ale that's Always Pure

The Clothing Event of the Season.

Oak Hall's Winter Sale.

COMMENCING tomorrow (Wednesday), January 11th, and ending Saturday night, January 28th, at 10 p.m., a little over two weeks, and every day chuck full of bargains. It is not because of our charitable disposition that we sell Clothing at greatly reduced prices during January-every January-just as regularly as that month comes round.

We simply pursue what we have proved to be a sensible business policy-clear all this season's goods this season so that next season we'll only have next season's goods to show you. In former sales you have got bargains of which you speak with pleasure today. This sale will be no exception. We intend to make this the greatest opportunity you have ever had of buying the best readyto-wear clothing in the city at bargain prices.

Big Winter Sale Men's Overcoats

These include all the most up-to-date and stylish coats of the season, in plain black, plain gray, mixed tweeds, some vertical pockets, some plain pockets; some with half belts, some with plain backs. Every coat our own manufacture, and every coat carries our guarantee. Here are a few quotations to give you some idea of the Big Reductions in Overcoats.

O
gular	pri	ce.	Sale price.
$7	50		$4 95
$10	00		$7 95
$12	CO		$9 95
$14	00		$10 95
$15	00		$12 95
$18	00		$14 95

Men's and Young Men's Suits.

Here you will find a magnificent choice of our handsome and stylish Canadian and Imported Mixed Tweeds, Cassimers and Cheviots, supplemented by some short lots which have just arrived from our factory, are brand new and have not before been offered to the public.

Sizes Men's Suits, 36 to 44.

Sizes Young Men's Suits, 31 to 35.$5 75 Sovereign Brand Suits. $16 00$13 95 $18 50$14 95

Men's Trousers.

A splendid choice here for the working-man who wants a good heavy strong tweed or a still finer and more dressy article, or for those who want the most dressy, in fine Imported Tweeds and Worsteds, our own

nake and perfect-fitting	g.
Regular price.		Sale price.
$1 35 and $1 65	.	$1 00
$1 75
$2 50	·· ····
$3 00		$2 25
$3 25		$2 65
$4 25		$3 25
$5 50		$4 00

We have not space here to tell you of the Boys' and Children's Overcoats and Suits Only to say that this department will show just as big reductions during the sale.

REMEMBER .- In our clothing sales everything is reduced except such things as Overalls, Boys' Knickers, etc., which are always at sale prices. Of course oddments and broken lots get the deepest cuts. They must be cleared out.

LISTEN -- No goods sent on approval during this sale. Terms spot cash or C. O. D. By leaving a deposit, goods may be secured for 30 days.

154 Dundas St.

WM. GIBSON,