The Funeral Service Conducted Before Great Crowd at the Army Headquarters

London, Aug. 25.—Great crowds gathered outside Congress Hall all day, hoping to view the body of the late Salvationist leader, General William Booth, which for the past two days has been lying in state. The body, however, had been removed over-night to the general's private room, and the hall was used for the regular Salvation Army services.

over-night to the general's private room, and the hall was used for the regular Salvation Army services.

A wreath sent by Queen Mother Alexandra was laid at General Booth's bier yesterday. The inscription read:

"To the memory of General Booth, to whom this whole nation owes an eternal debt of gratitude for the services rendered to suffering humanity. (Signed)

"ALEXANDRA."

The hall was filled to its capacity of 2,000 persons at each of the three services. Of the fioral tributes massed on the platform those of Queen Mother Alexandra and Emperor William were the most notable. The British and foreign flags and the decorations on the walls of the hall had not been removed.

Commissioners Whitmore, Railton and Lawley conducted the services and the famous silver brand from the staff college played the hymns. All the preaching dealt with the life of the late general, and was composed largely of reminiscences by the commissioners.

In view of the fact, Mr. Taft, continues, that the Panama Canal is being constructed by the United States wholly at its own cost, upon territory ceded to it by the republic of Panama for that purpose, and that unless it for that purpose, and that unless it has restricted itself, the United States enjoys absolute rights of ownership and control, including the right to allow its own commerce the use of the

An Absurd Conclusion, The President argues that if there is nothing in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty preventing Great Britain and the other nations from extending favors to their shipping using the canat, and if there is nothing that gives the United States any supervision over or right to com-plain of such action, "then the British protest leads to the absurd conclusion that this Government in constructing

One of Canada's strongest arguments against any discrimination in favor of American shipping is that the United States vessels have free use of the Dominion's expensive canal system on the great lakes, and an even greater American than Canadian tonnage passes through the Soo, has always scrupulously observed treaty rights on the lakes.
