Napoleon Direct raced in front in each heat of the free-for-all pace, but the second was in 2:00.4, St. Frisco was not forced to beat 2:06.4 during the Capital City stake trot.

GOVERNMENT MAY STOP RACE TRACK CHARTERS

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—It is understood that the Government is being strongly urged to introduce legislation to do away with the multiplicity of race tracks in Canada, with their attendant betting conditions. Under the law a charter can only be obtained by act of Parliament, but the promoters found a way to get around this by reviving old charters that had been in operation for years. It is probable that the legislation will be aimed at this practice.

EXTRA HEATS IN EVERY EVENT AT MARSHALL

Nineteen Heats Necessary Yesterday to Complete Bill—Petrena Wins Feature.

KING MUST LISTEN TO PEOPLE'S VOICE OR REVOLT STARTS

Venezelos Has Practically Announced Intention to Lead.

IS WAITING FOR ACTION

Sees Nothing But Loss for Greece in Present Situation.

MILAN, via London, Sept. 22.—A Saloniki dispatch to the Secolo says:

"A conspiracy to kill Eleutherios Venezelos has been discovered, with the result that the guard of Cretanos about his house has been augmented, and his movements accompanied by the former premier when he goes out."

"Two lines of trenches have been built around King Constantine's palace, which is constantly guarded by large forces."

ATHENS, Sept. 20.—Via London, Sept. 21.—Eleutherios Venezelos, the former premier and Cretan statesman, was asked today as to the truth underlying the repeated reports that he is going to Saloniki to put himself at the head of a temporary revolutionary government, and in reply he declared to the Canadian Press:

"I cannot answer now. I must wait a brief time yet and see what the Government proposes to do before deciding on the course it will be best to adopt in the event that Greece does not enter the war."

"As I said on August 2, if the king will not hear the voice of the people, we must ourselves devise what it is best to do. I do not know what that will be, but a long continuation of the present situation would be intolerable. Already we have suffered all the agonies of war, while remaining neutral."

Army Already Bitten.

"We have had ten months of mobilization, with all the consequent hardships to the families of the men mobilized, while both Balkan wars only included thirteen months, with greater funds available for the relief of the families of the soldiers. Our boundaries have been invaded; towns, crops and farms have been destroyed, and all horrors enacted. We have had all the financial burdens of war and the cost of maintaining a useless mobilization. The morale of the army, which three years ago was at the topmost pitch, has been destroyed by inaction and is now completely gone. Then we have a victorious, now we have a beaten, army."

"We have even over an entire army corps of Greeks held prisoners of war in a foreign country, and already we have paid the Bulgars an immense war indemnity, amounting, in military equipment, property destroyed and loot of Greek cities occupied, to over $40,000,000. And, finally, we are perhaps on the verge of making now, at last, that war which we have not fought, but have paid for in blood, tears and treasure."

"And if Greece does not enter the war?" he was asked.

"If the Germans-Bulgars are successful," replied Mr. Venezelos, "certainly all of Macedonia is lost to us. You have seen what the Germano-Bulgar guarantees are worth in their written pledge that they would not occupy Kavala, Drama or Seres."

"If the Entente Allies are victorious, as I profoundly believe they will be, we risk, first, a separate peace between the Allies and the Bulgars, whereby the latter may be permitted to retain the Greek territory they have occupied, with the consent of Greece."

"Or, in the event of a complete allied conquest of Bulgaria, why should the Serbs, for example, return to us, who have not kept our treaty alliance with them, and their allies have taken from us, who gave them up unresistingly, but which would then have been reconquered?"

"If the Teutons win."

"If the Germano-Bulgars are successful," replied Mr. Venezelos, "certainly all of Macedonia is lost to us. You have seen what the Germano-Bulgar guarantees are worth in their written
