POPULAR STOCKS ARE DRIVEN DOWN

Pressure Is Brought to Bear When Grain Prices Break Sharply.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Oct. 7.—A sharp break in grain prices furnished bear traders with another excuse for an attack on the general list, many popular issues being driven down 1 to 3 points during the morning.

Heavy liquidation of the sugar shares was believed to reflect speculative disappointment over this year's earnings. Consolidated Gas of Baltimore, which has fluctuated rather erratically in recent sessions, and E. R. Kinney dropped 2¾, and numerous other specialties lost a point or so.

Selling of Southern Railway, which dropped 1 point to 65⅝, was inspired by the legal proceedings brought by certain preferred stockholders in an attempt to get more favorable dividend action. Nickel Plate broke 2½ points, and Atchison, Delaware and Hudson, and Gulf, Mobile and Northern preferred each fell back 1 point. Call money renewed at 2½ per cent.

There was a large attendance, and Mr. Wray is looking forward to having all the meetings of the branch this winter well attended, in view of the large increase in membership which has taken place within the last few months.

GOVT. SHOULD BE MASTER OF LAWS

R. L. Calder, K. C., Pleads For Practical Politics in Speech at Montreal.

"FILL THE EAST"

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, Oct. 6.—"I think the people of Canada might do many more foolish things than take such action as would let the government know that it is the servant of the law and not its master."

This was the declaration of R. L. Calder, K.C., crown prosecutor, in the course of an address delivered here this evening.

"Too many people in politics today," he continued, "are content to lash the rudder to the mast and let the ship of state go ahead, right or wrong. The first step in practical politics, as I see it," he said, "is to make all governments understand that they are servants of the people. My experience has been that the people are masters until they cast their ballots. After that they become mere servants, while their masters do not even try to do what they bound themselves to do."

Governments today, argued Mr. Calder, were carried on, not by kings, but by civil service. Mr. Calder discussed Canada's immigration policy, starting with Howe and the ideals of confederation, which he considered had led to the immigration problem, with the cultivation of the idea that Canada only began west of Fort William. He urged that it was a mistake to bring in Hebrideans, with their hereditary love of the sea, and plant them on the prairies.

They could be pumped in, but they could also go out, and so the whole thing would mean failure as far as the country was concerned. "If you want to make population," he said, "fill the east until it overflows into the west, and then you will get a population throughout the country that is used to our needs and can fill them."

YOUTH ACQUITTED ON MANSLAUGHTER

North Bay Jury Exonerates James Graham in Death of Montana Girl.

Canadian Press Despatch.

North Bay, Oct. 7.—After being out three hours, the jury in the case of James Graham, North Bay youth charged with manslaughter arising out of the death of Rosa Nadeau of Shelby, Montana, who was struck by his car on the Sturgeon Falls road some two months ago, brought in a verdict at 2 o'clock this morning of not guilty.

Evidence as to the speed of the Graham car and as to whether it had been racing a C. P. R. passenger train were conflicting. After the jury had been out a little over an hour the judge called the jurors back and said that if they were unable to agree he was prepared to discharge them and order a new trial, but sent them back for further deliberations, which resulted in the acquittal.

Curious Crowd Fooled By Wales

Plays Golf While People Linger About Hotel.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 7.—While crowds of people lingered about his hotel all day hoping to catch a glimpse of the heir to the British throne, the Prince of Wales was playing golf from an early hour until dusk in comparative solitude. Skipping unheralded from course to course, he kept the curious throngs guessing as to his whereabouts from the moment he left the hotel until his return in the evening.

His morning game was at Oak Bay with Major Z. Humphreys, a Victoria friend. In the afternoon it was a four-ball match, the prince again playing with Major Humphreys, their opponents being Captain Allan Lascelles and Sir Walter Peacock.

"All square" was the result of the morning singles, but in the afternoon the prince and Major Humphreys closed the contest on the fifteenth green with four up and three to play.
