

The ADVERTISER'S PICTORIAL PAGE

The King's yacht Britannia lining up for the race with Mrs. Workman's Nyria. The Britannia won by seven minutes.

What is believed to be the largest searchlight in the world has just been completed and will be used as a beacon light for ships passing through the Golden Gate. It may be seen at a distance of twelve miles.

A jolly party of canny Scots listen to the wail of the bagpipes, which are being energetically played by a robust member of the bathing party.

General Plutarco Calles, secretary of the interior and prime minister in the Obregon government, who seems to be the popular choice of the Labor party for the office of president of Mexico.

She is Miss Marguerite Evans, whose perfect "50" form won for her the undisputed title of champion heavyweight bathing beauty in a recent contest.

Pierret, famous Italian dancer, shakes a high-priced hoof on the beach at Allassio, on the Ligurian Riviera, clad in gorgeous stream line pyjamas.

Photo shows members of the Royal Ulster Constabulary, who were decorated by the King at the latest investiture held at Buckingham Palace.

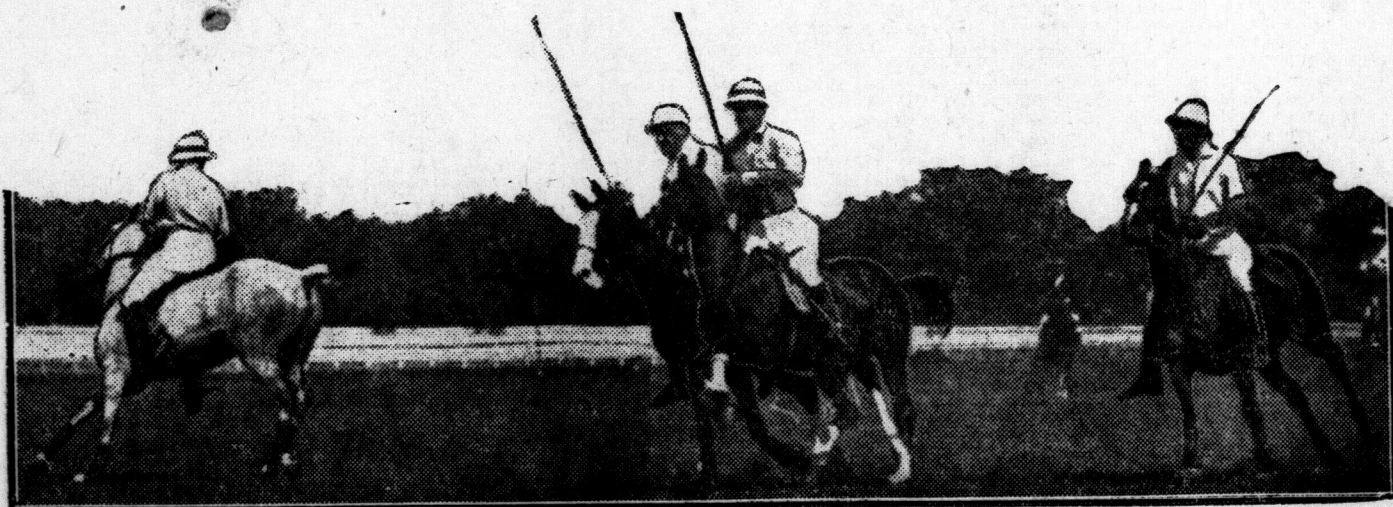

This advanced fall model is made of very heavy tan material with horizontal and vertical dark brown stripes and displays the short cape.

Lolus Ruis believes that she is one of the most beautiful women in Spain. She will be given a chance to compete in a national beauty contest.

Dr. Victor Balthazar, the eminent French criminologist, who has acquired a world-wide reputation as an expert in unraveling knotty problems connected with crime. He has made a special study of the hairs of man and animals.

A hard try for a goal during a recent polo match between Eglinton and Toronto.

An international flavor has been added to the Atlantic City beauty pageant this year. The first to arrive on the field is Princess Tomi Miura of Japan.

Mrs. R. C. Clayton, covered tennis court champion of England, arrives from Europe with her mascot dog to meet American players.

An interesting photograph of President Coolidge showing him driving a hay wagon on his father's farm at Plymouth, Vermont, two days before the late president's death.

Princess Olga, eldest daughter of Prince Nicholas of Greece, who, according to latest reports, is engaged to marry Prince Paul of Serbia.

The latest photograph of Princess Durri-Chehvar Sultan, daughter of the Turkish Sultan, Abdul Medjid Effendi.

One of the chief aims of the Fascisti government in Italy is to increase the agricultural production. Famous Trappist monks are setting an example by offering their services for agricultural work.