DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, April 2.—The Press Democrat Santa Rosa, California, in a long article published about the death of the late Dr. William J. E. Dawson, whose surviving wife was formerly Miss Eugene Shaw, of Dalhousie, N. B., states that Dr. Shaw was a man of splendid parts. He was a distinguished alienest and his opinion was eagerly sought all over the country. He was an eminent scholar. He was genile, unassuming and big hearted, and his kindness made him friends with everybody. As he had gone smilingly through life, so he closed his book with a smile, a book illuminated with page after page of kind words and good deeds that are now a starry bathway of shining remembrance. To all his fourteen hundred inmates of the Sonoma State Home Dr. Dawson was friend indeed. It was said, and truthfully said that he could call nearly every one of them by name. His genial smile inspired confidence in the children and they loved him, the older inmates, would run after him to receive his kindly pat on the head and his greeting. Dr. Dawson was a true christian man. He never spoke ill of anyone, and gave everybody a chance. His rule was kindness. His aim in the Sonoma State Home was to make the children as happy as passible. And he insisted on kindness to the mentally benighted ones under his charge at all times.

Dr. Dawson was seventy-two years of age and was a native of Canada. He is survived by a very devoted wife by two sons and two daughters. The sons are Dr. William Dawson, a well known St. Francisco physician; Edgar Dawson, also of the bay city; the daughters Miss Ida Dawson and Miss Evelyn Dawson of Eldridge.

The funeral of the much beloved head of the Sonoma State Home took place on Wednesday, March 6th under Masonic auspices in the quietude of the little churchyard in Sta Helena his mortal remains were laid to rest beside the grave of a daughter he had loved long since and lost awhile.

From many old Restigouche friends the tendercst sympathy goes out to Mrs. Dawson and to the other members of the family in their sad bereavement.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Dalhousie are delighted with their sale of Home Cooling, Pastry, etc., which was held on Saturday evening. Proceeds $61.

A very successful Whist Party and Sale of Baskets was held this week in the Arseneault Hall at Upper Charlo. Proceeds for the R. C. building church fund, amount realized $86.

The news published recently in our local press that Margaret Grant MacWhirter of New Richmond, who is a native of Dalhousie, is shortly to publish her book, entitled "Treasure Trove in Gaspe" will be received with delight by many, especially by those who read her writings in the past, such as "The Bobolink's Biscuit" a tale of the prairie which appeared in The Canadian Countryman, April, 18, 1914; "On The Stampede", which was published in the Journal of Agriculture and Horticulture, July, 1st, 1913 and "The Cruise of the Vising" from St. John, N. B., to New Richmond, P. Q., which appeared in Rod and Gun, June 1913.

Mr. T. R. McEvoy, son of M. McEvoy, the manager of the Sydney Lumber Co's. business at Dalhousie, arrived here last week to spend the Easter vacation at his home. He has been heartily congratulated on the success of the team of which he was the head, from the St. Francis Xavier College, of Antigouish, which met the U. N. B. team in the opera house in Fredericton on the evening of the 28th March in the annual debate. The question was "Resolved that uniform wage legislation should be enacted for the employees of the mines, workshops factories and stores of Canada." This was an opportune subject, as it is one now occupying the minds of Federal statesmen.

The Judges: Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. M. P. P.; Professor Forsythe of Kings College, Windsor; and a member of the faculty of Mount Allison University, Sackville, gave a unanimous decision in favor of the negative debaters from St. Francis Xavier.

The Fredericton Gleaner states that the debaters argued strong and well the respective sides. The work of both teams showed careful preparation and logical thought. Restigouche people who were present speak highly of F. H. McEvoy's ability as a debater.

Mrs. Alphenus D. Ward Sea Side, who spent a couple of weeks visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, Point La Nim, has returned home.

A very enjoyable and exciting game of hockey was witnessed were by many spectators on Thursday evening when the team known as the "Old Timers" defeated the crack team that recently won against the St. Thomas College team. The Old Timers who were heavy men proved their superiority in this regard and by strong defence and good combination, they soon registered the score of 9 to 3 over their opponents. The regulars played good stick handling and the spectators enjoyed the game. The military band rendered many good selections.

The lineup was as follows:

	Old Timers.
Goal	C.	Bernard
Point	L.	Clifford
C. Point		McKay
Centre	T.	Samson
R. Wing		St. Onge

Too Much Restraint.

"Even when a young woman rejects you for some other suitor it is not the part of a gentleman to criticse her."

"No?" questioned the rejected man.

"Positively not. None but a cad would in any way reflect upon a young lady."

"Say, can't I even suggest that I think she has poor taste?"

"My boy," said the successful merchant, "never let your capital lie idle. Remember that money talks, but doesn't talk in its sleep."

Is Your Headache Caused by Imperfect Eyes
It is stated on good authority that 90% of all the ladies are causeless by imperfect eyes and I have proved this true by my own experience. If this fact was generally known much unnecessary suffering could be avoided, and preventive and good glasses would be worn.
If you are subject to this distressing affliction you should see me at once, and give me the opportunity of examining your eyes and fitting you with glasses, that will bring you instant relief.
