REMOVE THE TEMPTATION NOW

Mr. Currie Wants Temptations In Way of Sheriff Stewart Removed in Public Interest. MAKES ENQUIRIES.

Mr. Currie moved for all correspondence between James E. Stewart, High Sheriff of Restigouche County, and the Government, relative to appointments and dismissals of lumber scalers and other officers, and also regarding the administration of justice in Restigouche, and proceeded to address the House as follows:—

Mr. Speaker, we Canadians are proud of our British connections, we boast of our British institutions, our liberty and what we speak of as British fair play. We are particularly proud of our English law, and we have good reason to be proud of those things. But if the machinery by which that law is put in motion is defective, then our proud boast becomes a vain dream, and that for which we have just reason to be proud becomes a reproach to us.

My purpose, Mr. Speaker, in moving this resolution, was in order that I might bring before this House a condition that exists today in the County which I have the honor to represent, and which has existed since this Government came into power, and a condition which I think is not to the credit of this government or the Department of Justice over which the Honorable Premier presides.

James E. Stewart, Esquire, the high sheriff of the County of Restigouche, was a candidate on two different occasions for the present government in that County and I am sure you will all agree with me when I say that when a person runs two elections in a county that the lines are very clearly drawn between the friends and his opponents, and when I tell you that the same gentleman, the High Sheriff, has had the honor of the patronage for this government, and since they came into power, and has succeeded all the petty officers through out the County who dared to vote against him, and had them replaced by friends and supporters, I think you will agree with me that the lines are not more clearly defined than ever between his friends and opponents, and you can easily see that when litigation arises in litigation should arise between a friend and an opponent, this same gentleman has to go out and select jurors to sit on that case, and it is but human to expect that the jurors he would select would be from among his own friends. To add still more to the complication, Mr. Stewart's nephew, who was also a candidate for this government, is a leading lawyer, and also does the Crown Work in that County, and can readily see that when the candidate is the lawyer and the other candidate is the sheriff to select jurors to sit on the case, that there would be a very great danger to the sheriff being biased and the litigation suffer as a consequence.

Now I expect very much to have to bring this matter up, and if we will all agree there would be no necessity of doing so, but that unfortunate incident in the Garden of Eden so long ago, has so affected the human family that even we in this generation can hardly treat ourselves, and I think it is the duty of this government to remove every stumbling block that would be in the way of doing out even-handed justice to every man, and I feel that

MAY HOME JOURNAL
The May issue of the Home Journal, Toronto, gives abundant evidence of the changes promised for the new volume. "Dear Delightful Dulwich," by Katherine Hale, is breezy and interesting. "Around the Hearth," is a novel department by Jennie Allen Moore. "Domestic Science in Western Canada," by Lilian K. Beynon, is interestingly reminiscent, while the article "Our Breakfast Beverage" by M. Gustaf Knobel, gives interesting information about coffee production and use. The prices for the photo contest are announced in this issue and afford an interesting exhibition of amateur photographic art. The Home Journal announces for June an increase in size and a four-colored cover with a size-page insert in this. It will be a "Quintessential Number," illustrating the forthcoming International Congress of Women to be held at Toronto. A full-page portrait of the Countess Aberdeen and photos of the principal delegates will be given. June will also be the bridal number which will afford many useful hints as to wedding methods and customs.

IMPORTANT MATTERS DISCUSSED AT THE DOMINION CAPITAL

Board of Trade Delegation at Ottawa Presents Memorial to Various Departments—What Campbelleton Needs. CHANGES WILL BE MADE.

(Special to the Graphic)
OTTAWA, April 27.—A delegation from the Campbelleton Board of Trade arrived in the city Monday morning and are holding conferences with the ministers of the Railways and Canals, Marine and Fisheries, and Post Office Departments. This delegation which is composed of D. Murray, M. D., Mayor of Campbelleton; L. G. Pinault, M. D.; A. E. G. McKenzie; John M. McLean; and Alex. McLennan, are looking for important changes in reference to the I. C. R. at Campbelleton.

Armed with a memorial and comprehensive plans of what is required at the I. C. R. terminals, they interviewed the railway department, and received careful consideration of their proposals.

THOMSON'S MANAGER ORGANIZING ROUTE FOR S. S. SENLAC

Will Run on Express Service on the Campbelleton-Gaspé Route This Season. COMMENCES JUNE 1ST.

Mr. C. D. Robinson, one of the managers of the Wm. Thomson Co., St. John, is in town today, making preparations for the placing on the Campbelleton-Gaspé route of the steamer Senlac.

In an interview with the Graphic Mr. Robinson stated that the Senlac would go on the route about June 1st. At the present time she is being overhauled and extensive repairs are being made to her, so that when she arrives here she will be quick and smart, and will appear more like a yacht than a steamer for public service.

It is the intention of the Thomson Co. to run an express service only, no freight will be handled, and two round trips will be made, making close connection with the Ocean Limited both ways. As no freight is to be handled, short stops will be made at each port of call, thus landing passengers at their destination with the least possible delay.

The Senlac is comparatively a new boat and cost $110,000. Forty thousand dollars alone were spent in providing first class passenger accommodation. She is lighted with electricity, and has a powerful searchlight. The dining saloon has accommodation for fifty while there is first class state room accommodation for one hundred passengers. Second class accommodation is also being provided. The company will open an office here and have representatives at Montreal and Quebec.

Mr. Robinson leaves this week for Bonaventure and Gaspé ports to make arrangements in reference to traffic. The Senlac on this route will mean much to Campbelleton and the Bay Chaleur counties as the Thomson Co. thoroughly understand the tourist business and there is not a doubt but that many tourists will visit this country for the first time this season.

LATE DR. SMITH WAS A TRUE HERO
A St. John correspondent writes to a Montreal newspaper:—
There died last week in Tracadie, the bleakest, most lonely place on the New Brunswick coast, one of those men who, though not living in a climate, devote their lives to the good of their fellow men. The dead man was Dr. A. C. Smith head of the medical staff of the Canadian Leprosy Asylum.

CONSTANTINOPLE SURRENDERS

Garrison Lays Down Arms Without Firing a Shot—Victorious Troops Replace Guards. MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 25.—The Yildiz garrison surrendered today to the Constitutional forces. The commanders of these battalions began siding in their submission to Mahmud Sherif Pasha last night and the whole of the troops protecting the palace have their formal and unconditional surrender shortly after dawn. Niaz Bay, who is called the hero of the July revolution, is now in command of the garrison.

It has been stated since victory rested with the Constitutionalists that Sultan himself gave orders to his men not to resist. Whether or not this is true, it can be safely said of the troops within the capital that they made a stubborn resistance at all points, and the casualties on both sides are exceedingly heavy for the length of time the engagement was in progress.

The last garrison to surrender was the Selimieh artillery barracks in Contari, opposite Stamboul. Four thousand stationed there with a hundred guns, threatened to blow the city into ruins, but today General Scheffer ordered up sixty big guns and several batteries of machine guns to positions which command the barracks.

EDITORIAL MAIL

To Whom It May Concern:—
Mr. Editor:—
Permit me through the columns of your paper to state for the information of all persons who complain to me of the unduly slow inquiry, that they must sign their names to the letters containing the complaint, as I cannot reasonably be expected to take action against any one without being advised of the name of the complainant. I have of late received many anonymous letters containing complaints against alleged offenders, and the writers of these letters say nothing about me because I do not proceed against the said offenders.

But I cannot obtain the required particulars because I do not know who wrote me.

The writers of such letters would do well to sign their names as they will remain a dead weight with me. I cannot be compelled to tell the name of the party that furnished me with the information even if I were asked the question in any of our courts of law.

Some persons in my district have lately been writing me very persistently, complaining of certain alleged offenders and saying very unkind things about me because I do not proceed against them. Let this person whose letters to me are signed "XXX" when writing me sign his real name and I will attend to the matter immediately as soon as I am furnished with the necessary particulars, and it may be necessary for me to correspond with the writer to ascertain the necessary particulars before instituting proceedings against the alleged offender.

Having the "XXX" when again writing me will then his or her real name under an assurance that the name will be kept a great secret by me.

I am, Mr. Editor,
Very truly yours,
JOHN A. CRAIG,
Licensing Inspector,
Upper Charles, April 26th 1909.
