WINNIPEG, Nov. 27.-It has just leaked out that several mail bags, which were for-warded from the Winnipeg postoffice to eastern points some time ago, have never reached their destination, and the sup position is that they have been robbed. This is substantiated by the fact that a tew days ago an empty mail bag was found under the platform at Emerson station It was identified as being the same bag that was forwarded from the postoffic-here about Oct. 24 last. It contained over seventy registered letters and was billed to Windsor. In the latter part of the same month a registered bag was for-warded to Toronto, but it has not yet reached that city and its whereabouts at present remain a mystery. This thriving business is said to have been going on for some time. out that several mail bags, which were fortruly,

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 27 .- News of an er. ouraging character was received from the small-pox district this morning. All were reported to be rapidly recovering, and the danger of fatal results to be past provided proper care was used. In the hands of the nuns the patients have improved with great rapidity, and no case under their care ha-yet proved fatal. Wholesome food and good nursing have in this outbreak been provided by the nuns to whom the thanks of the entire country are due. The following is an extract from a letter dated at Tweed on Tuesday evening from Father Hartigan to Mgr. Fathelly of this city: "Father Fleming improves steadily He is now feeling quite cheerful in the hope of being up again and at work before a week. The patients in the hospitals are all out of danger and are fast recovering under the care of the sisters. The panic is lessening since the recovery of several who were smitten, and in consequence we shall have no difficulty in keeping the disease under control. The sisters work hard and are in the best of spirits. For myself I have never been better. Thank God for all." small-pox district this morning. All were the executive committee at the city hall yesterday afternoon. The mayor pushed a motion to bind the committee to accept the terms of annexation settled at the gathering of city and village big-bugs a week ago. The aldermen contended that it would be ample time for the committee to move when they knew the assets and liabilities of Parkdale to a fraction. His worship's motion was lost and the annexation scheme will hang fire in consequence. Several claims for damages were relegated to the solicitor for report. The fire and gas com-mittee's list of new gas lamps was sent back for a statement of the amount of money on hand. The other standing committee 're-ports passed without change and the com-mittee adjourned.

ASSESSMENT INSURANCE. From The World of Thursday. An action was lately brought against one sociation in the California courts, for illegally acting as agent for a mutual reserve fund as-instructive. He claimed that the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association was not a life collection of assessments and their distribu-tion to beneficiaries of decased members, the sociation, it was urged, did not issue sierally worthless. Their payments were on the beneficiaries of decased members, the sociation that the association and with its were entirely voluntary. Can it be that the grave old gentleman in the centre dis-agrees with the learned brother on his right? Has the quiet gentleman on the left been unable to make up his mind as to whether or not the technicalities should be over-ruled?
