receives the premiums and has business with its members, but an arrangement is in existence whereby the London Guarantee Company gets the business. In the interim between the time the payment was made to the Travelers' Association and the time it was handed over to the Guarantee Co., Mr. Spence was killed. Now the London Guarantee Company disclaims responsibility for the payment of the $5000, the dispute being as to whether the man who handled the premiums had the right to hold the premium for a month after receiving it. Mrs. Elizabeth Spence, wife of the dead traveler, who was the beneficiary named in the policy, is suing the London Guarantee Company for the Street Rallway Notes.

There was a slight decrease in the Toronto Railway receipts during March.
The city's share is $5609, against $5828 in the same, month last year. For the three months just closed the city's percentage was $16,206, which is $60 less than in the first quarter of $1804.
