

"THE CATHOLIC"

NEWS-BYTES

Address to his Patrons.

January 1st, 1844.

Permit your Printer's Carrying Boy,
On this New-Year to wish you joy;
With health and happiness complete,
And means, to help your Neighbour, meet.
I've brought you every week with pleasure,
A varied store of mental treasure;
The latest News from ev'ry Nation,
And facts, the worthiest of narration;
Whate'er seem'd curious or prodigious;
And what t' enrich the mind religious
With useful knowledge, true and sure,
Deriv'd from wisdom's source's pure:
Not like that drain'd from muddy puddles,
By preaching gangs of strolling Noodles,
But drawn forth from that Fountain seal'd
Which Christ has to his Church reveal'd;
And to her pastors did bestow
His Rod, that bids its waters flow.
As from the rock's forth gushing tide
Were Israel's thirsting hosts supplied,
While through the wilderness they pass'd
Till reach'd the promis'd Land at last.
Nay, if the muse were not so shy,
I'd bring you some sweet melody.
For all this yearly precious Budget,
I crave, (and hope you will not grudge it,)
Some Token of your approbation;
The Gift is at your own discretion.

Dr. SPOHN'S SICK-HEADACHE REMEDY.

Read the following from Judge Patterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives.

Middletown, N. J., March 12, 1840.
Messrs. Comstock & Co.

Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you deem will best subserve the purpose for which it is intended.

[Certificate of Judge Patterson.]

I HEREBY CERTIFY that my daughter has been afflicted with sick headache for about 20 years—the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time the paroxysms have been so severe, as apparently soon to deprive her of life. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Spohn's Headache Remedy as sold by you; and to the great disappointment and joy of herself and all her friends, found very material relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack was threatened has found immediate relief, until she is near permanently cured. The attacks are now very seldom, & disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant
JEHU PATTERSON,
Judge of the Court of C P

This Medicine can be had at Bickle's Medical Hall; also at the Drug-gist shops of C. H. Webster and J. Wiener Hamilton.

Children's Summer Complaint Specific Cordial.

Prepared and sold by Rev. Dr. Bartholomew for the wholesale dealers, Comstock & Co. N. Y.

MOTHERS should guard with their serious care the health of their children, and a little medicine always at hand in the house, may not only prevent immense pain and suffering to their tender offspring, but actually save their lives. What parents could ever forgive themselves, if for the want of a seasonable remedy they risked the life of their children till remedies were too late. The complaints of the stomach and bowels of children progress with such rapidity, that unless checked at the start, they are not only hazardous, but almost always fatal. In country places this remedy may be taken with certainty to stop all such complaints, and save the expense of calling a physician, or if a physician is sent for from a distance, this medicine will assure the safety of the child till the physician arrives.

LET, THEREFORE, NO FAMILY be without this medicine always at hand in their houses. How would they feel to lose a dear child by neglecting it?

ADULTS will find this cordial as useful to them as children; and its being free from all injurious drugs, &c. will be sure to please as well as benefit. In all sickness at stomach and bowel complaints do not fail to employ carefully this cordial.

WILL YOU, WE ASK, risk your lives and those of your children by neglecting to keep this in your house, when it only costs TWENTY-FIVE CENTS? We are sure all humane heads of families must supply themselves with this cordial without delay.

This medicine can be had at Bickle's Medical Hall; also at the Drug-gist shops of C. H. Webster and J. Wiener's Hamilton.

Stationery.

THE Subscribers are now receiving by the late arrivals at Montreal, a new supply of Plain and Fancy STATIONERY, including Account books of every description—full and half bound.

U. S. CATHOLIC MAGAZINE

A MONTHLY PERIODICAL, CONTAINING
Chiefly selections from the best Catholic
Reviews and other Publications.
Published with the approbation of the Most Rev.
Archbishop.

TERMS. The United States Catholic Magazine, will be published regularly, on or before the first of every month—each number will contain sixty-four pages, extra Royal Octavo. It will be printed in the neatest manner, on fine paper of a beautiful texture, with new type, cast expressly for the purpose. The work will be delivered in the city, and mailed regularly to subscribers, about the first of every month. Twelve numbers make a volume: each volume will commence with the January number, at which time the year's subscription commences.

The subscription is Three Dollars per year payable invariably in advance, (except for the city subscribers, who have the privilege of paying half yearly in advance, when they prefer it.) No subscriptions will be received for less than twelve months, and in no instance will the work be sent to any one, unless the order is accompanied with the cash. The very low price at which the work is furnished, renders the payment in advance indispensable.

The risk in the transmission of subscriptions by mail will be assumed by the publisher, providing the persons transmitting, sends the money, regularly under the postmaster's frank.

All letters must be post paid, (or they will not be taken from the office,) and directed to

THE CATHOLIC EXPOSITOR
AND LITERARY MAGAZINE.

With the April number the 4th volume of the Expositor will commence. The publishers cannot but return their thanks for the very liberal patronage extended to them during the past two years, and in announcing a new volume which will far exceed any of its predecessors in the quantity of matter, the number of pages, and splendid embellishments they hope to receive a corresponding patronage. The volumes of the Expositor commence with the April and October numbers, at which times subscriptions must commence and end. The expositor will be published on or before the first of each month; it will be printed on the very best quality of paper, with new type, cast expressly for the purpose. Each number will contain 72 pages royal octavo, stitched in a splendid cover, the design by Prudhomme, and engraved by Peckham. The embellishments will be of the highest order, by the best artists. Portraits of distinguished prelates and clergymen will appear during the year. We shall occasionally give fine lithographic views of the principal churches in the United States, of remarkable places, scenery, &c. The portraits will be on steel, engraved expressly for this work by Parker, in the highest style of the art.

TERMS TO COUNTRY SUBSCRIBERS. One copy, $3 per annum, payable invariably in advance in funds, current in New York. Two copies for $5, or one copy for two years $5. Twelve copies for $20.

All communications must be post paid, (or they are not taken from the post office,) and directed to the publishers of the Catholic Expositor, 151 Fulton-street, New York.
